Ike Promises Joint Defense To Canadians

Sees Danger Of Atomic Attack From Soviets

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 14 (AP)—President Eisenhower, speaking of Russia as arrogant, told Canada's parliament today that United States-Canadian defense plans now must be geared to "Soviet ability to employ atomic attack on North America."

The President touched off a round of desk-thumping approval by members of the House of Commons and the Senate in declaring:

"You of Canada and we of the United States can and will devise ways to protect our North America from any surprise attack by air.

"And we shall achieve the defense of our continent without whittling our pledges to Western Europe or forgetting our friends in the Pacific."

Climaxing a two-day good neighbor visit to this capital of Canada, Eisenhower went before Parliament after reviewing an honor guard and getting a 21-gun salute on his arrival at the House of Commons from Rideau Hall, where he and Mrs. Eisenhower spent the night as guests of Gov. Gen. Vincent Massey.

This was the First Lady's 57th birthday and she watched from the gallery as the President spoke. Wearing a small white hat, white gloves and a fur cape over a black dress, Mrs. Eisenhower sat between Mrs. Louis St. Laurent, wife of Canada's Prime Minister, and Mrs. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., wife of the chief U. S. delegate to the United Nations.

The President was applauded and there was more traditional thumping of desks when he said:

"Here, on this continent, we present an example that other nations someday surely will recognize and apply in their relations with their neighbors.

"May that day be close. The only alternative—the bankruptcy of armament races and the suicide of nuclear war—cannot for long—must not for long—be tolerated by the human race."

Departing from his prepared text at one point, Eisenhower recalled the dark early days of World War II when Hitler "already had

Defense Experts Warn Of Danger From Nerve Gas

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Two federal civil defense experts warned tonight of the possible use of "nerve gas" if a big war should break out.

They said a relative few enemy planes could easily set up an effective concentration of this highly poisonous gas over any target area in the United States.

The experts, who spoke on the weekly broadcast "Disaster Strikes" over ABC, were Dr. Thomas H. Alphin, consultant on chemical warfare, and Col. James H. Defandorf, ret., specialist on chemical and biological warfare.

Nerve gas was described as odorless and colorless. The experts said the best defense is a gas mask, and they praised the Army's Chemical Corps for its work in developing a low cost mask for civilians.

End To 'Family Party'

Orphan Boy Kills Foster Parents, Another Orphan

FLOODWOOD, Minn., Nov. 14—UP—Edward Godfrey, 17, an orphan, shot and killed his foster parents and another orphan boy early Saturday after a happy "family" party.

The victims were George Snyder, 62, his 56-year-old wife and Richard De Mars, 17. Both youths had lived in the Snyder home for five years.

The shooting awakened Ernest Olbekson, 14, a grandson of the Snyders, and Jean Stipe, 19, Duluth Minn., who was spending the weekend with the family.

Authorities said it was possible that the slayings were the outgrowth of a teen-age love triangle involving Godfrey, De Mars and Miss Stipe.

The girl had dated both of the youths. But Mrs. Leonard Snyder, a daughter-in-law of the slain couple said the two boys "always got along very well." She said there had been "no sign of trouble," and discounted the possibility of a romantic triangle.

Godfrey himself sobbed remorsefully and said, "I don't know why I did it."

Police believed he might have killed the girl and the grandson if he had not run out of bullets. There were only four rounds in the 30-30 deer rifle he used.

When they were spent, he smashed the rifle's stock in anger.

Authorities said Godfrey apparently got out of bed during the night and killed the De Mars boy with a single shot, firing over the head of the grandson who was sleeping in the same room.

Then he apparently killed his foster father, who was sleeping in the living room.

17 Negro Convicts Cut Arms

ANGOLA, La., Nov. 14—UP—Seventeen Negro incorrigibles at Louisiana state penitentiary here cut their forearms with broken light fixtures Saturday for the second time in six months, according to Warden M. H. Sigler.

The men are the same group who cut themselves in July and have continually caused trouble at the penitentiary, Warden Sigler said.

The incident came about when six of the 17, all of whom were described by Sigler as "aggressive homosexuals and psychopaths," refused to pick cotton Friday. Sigler said all of them have been doing less work than the other prisoners.

The six were threatened with solitary, and Saturday about 6 a.m., before going to the fields, all 17 cut their arms. Sigler said many required stitches to close the wounds.

The warden said the 17, all Negroes and mostly from New Orleans, were segregated from the other prisoners. Most have long terms and most have already had their "good behavior" time, normally deducted from the original sentence, taken away for previous infractions.

He added that they will go before the prison disciplinary board and will be placed in solitary confinement as punishment.

Army Withdraws 20,000 Soldiers From Europe

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 —UP—The Army has quietly removed about 20,000 men—the equivalent of an infantry division—from Europe, informed Pentagon sources disclosed Saturday.

They said, however, that the cutback has affected only "support" units and "combat strength" in Europe has not been changed.

The United States now has five divisions, and the equivalent of a sixth in smaller combat units, stationed in Europe. They include about 120,000 men.

In addition the Army has about 100,000 others—engineers, communication experts and the like—assigned to European support units. Officials said this support force has been pared down by the Pentagon economy axe.

Administration leaders acted about three weeks ago to quiet fears in European capitals that the U. S. was planning large scale reductions in its troop strength. The apprehension resulted from a statement by Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson that "new weapons" might eventually reduce manpower needs.

Later, Wilson, President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, all said the United States would keep up its strength. Wilson himself said there was "no immediate plans for taking any troops out of Europe."

Today, Monday Fair And Mild

Although much of the nation has become blanketed with snow during the past week, the government weather bureau has predicted that clear skies and mild temperatures will prevail in Louisiana and Arkansas for the weekend.

The weather bureau forecast for both states is generally fair today and Monday, not much change in temperature.

CAA officials at the Selman Field station reported that the mercury reached its peak yesterday at the 76 degree mark. The low reading was 35 degrees.

Kidnap-Killers' Trial To Start Monday Morning

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 14 (AP)—Just seven weeks to the day they kidnaped and killed Bobby Greenlease his abductors will appear before a jury which will decide whether they will get death for their crime.

It was on Monday, Sept. 28 that Carl Austin Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady took the 6-year-old boy from his private school by a ruse, killed him and buried his body in a grave they had prepared earlier in St. Joseph, Mo. Then they began negotiations for ransom and collected $600,000.

Next Monday at 10 a.m. they will be brought into U. S. District Court, the same courtroom where they pleaded guilty to the kidnaping.

It will be an advisory trial. Its sole purpose will be to present the case so that the jury can decide whether to recommend death.

As a precedent, government and defense attorneys have a parallel case in John Henry Seadlund, the Minnesota lumberjack who kidnaped and killed Charles S. Ross of Chicago in 1937.

Seadlund pleaded guilty, but under the Lindbergh law, life was the maximum penalty the judge could give. A jury heard the evidence and then recommended the death penalty.

The proceedings will take the usual trial procedure. The government, however, won't call on all of the 200 witnesses it could have used had the defendants not pleaded guilty.

Edward L. Scheufler, U. S. district attorney, has not disclosed how many witnesses the government has summoned, but he said he and his staff would call "as many persons as necessary to have a successful trial."

State School Bus Operators End Convention

The 14th annual convention of the Louisiana School Bus Operators Association was concluded here Saturday and officers elected and re-elected for the coming year were Maurice Venable, president, Opelousas; G. Rushing, Winnsboro vice president; M. J. Welch, Pollock, secretary - treasurer.

The delegates were welcomed by Mayor John Coon and the principle address was made by Shelby Jackson, state superintendent of education.

In the closing sessions of the meeting, Maurice Venable, who has served as president of the association for the past three years and was re-elected to his post, gave an address and progress report to the 250 assembled delegates.

In his address Venable cited the mutual cooperation of the association and the Louisiana Department of Education "in working out a program of regular inspection of school busses and the holding of regular safety meetings between the operators and officials of the state department."

Author Duped By Fake War Hero

BEDFORD VILLAGE, N. Y., Nov. 14—Aurthor Quentin Reynolds said Saturday a former Canadian air force officer had duped him into writing a book about his imaginary heroism in the French underground during World War II.

Two Young Sisters Burned To Death

BATON ROUGE, Nov. 14 (AP)—Two young sisters died despite frenzied rescue attempts by their father, when their home burned to the ground last night at Perkins.

The victims were Elizabeth Josephine Street, 15, and Rosa Nell Street, 11. They were daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Street.

Neighbors who reported the blaze about midnight said the children's screams apparently aroused the household.

Street was knocked unconscious trying to rescue his daughters who were screaming "Daddy, save us." Blocked by flames, he ran outside and tried to break through a bedroom window but was badly dazed by shattering glass.

The cause of the blaze was not determined.

Other survivors include two brothers, Kline and J. B. Street of Denham Springs.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow at the Emmanuel Baptist Church near Walker.

Allied And Red Diplomats Set To Talk Peace

Agreement Paves Way For Debate At Panmunjom

PANMUNJOM, Sunday, Nov. 15 (AP)—Allied and Red diplomats cleared the first barrier in the path of a Korean peace meet and prepared today to plunge into debate Monday on concrete arrangements for the fateful conference.

After three weeks of talking, the negotiators finally reached agreement yesterday on an agenda for their discussions on planning the peace conference.

The agenda agreement marked the first diplomatic triumph for Dean. The Reds accepted virtually the same plan Dean had proposed two weeks ago. It allows simultaneous consideration of the site and time of the peace conference and the thorny controversy over seating of Asiatic neutrals including Russia.

"This is just the key that opens the door," Dean said of the agenda

GOP Leaders To Confer With Ike December 10-12

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14—UP—GOP congressional leaders will hold three days of conferences with President Eisenhower and the Cabinet in December to work on the administration's legislative program for next year, it was announced Saturday.

Senate Republican leader William F. Knowland told reporters that the "target date" for these meetings is Dec. 10-11-12, shortly after Mr. Eisenhower returns from the Big Three conference at Bermuda.

It had been announced previously that Mr. Eisenhower would meet with House and Senate GOP leaders before drafting his annual State of the Union message. That message outlines the administration program to Congress in January.

Knowland suggested that the December conferences may enable legislative committees to get in motion early, allowing Congress to take a running start in January on what is expected to be a heavy program.

Both Knowland and Sen. Homer Ferguson, Mich., chairman of the Senate Republican Policy committee, were eager to get Congress moving early and fast. Both predicted a St. Lawrence seaway bill will be the first — or among the first — major bills before the Senate.

Ferguson also told reporters that he thinks there should be early action to freeze the Social Security payroll tax at its present level, retroactive to Jan. 1. Such legislation would have to originate in the House.

ASSISTS CAUSE—Former President Harry Truman, who has been in the spotlight lately as a result of charges hurled at him by congressional investigating committees probing the Harry Dexter White case, pauses in a New York hotel lobby before his morning walk Saturday to help open the "Letter Carriers' March for Muscular Dystrophy." Jay Colby, 8, a victim of the disease, was on hand to seek Truman's assistance in the drive which has a $9-million national goal.

Ex-President To Make Radio Talk Monday

Says He'll Tell 'All The Facts' In White Case

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Senate Republican leaders opened the way today to call FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover for testimony on any claim by former President Truman that he kept Harry Dexter White in the government as a decoy for surveillance of Communist spy suspects.

Truman announced today he will go on the air Monday night to "tell all the facts" of the sensational case, which broke open when Atty. Gen. Brownell accused Truman of promoting White to high office in the face of FBI reports which, Brownell said, showed White to be a Soviet spy.

In advance of Truman's speech, various reports have been circulating widely. Some Democratic supporters of Truman have passed the word that the President kept White in the government to see if the FBI could catch him, and possibly others, in any act of espionage. Other sources have countered by saying that Hoover entered into no such arrangement and knew nothing of it.

In New York today Truman was asked whether he permitted the White promotion to U. S. director on the International Monetary Fund—to go through under an arrangement with the FBI.

"I have not examined the record on the matter and my memory is hazy—I would have to look it up," Truman said.

A reporter asked: "If the FBI made such a request, would you have complied?"

"It's a possibility," the former President replied.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, said in an interview he regards as a "White herring, or possibly a red one," any such explanation by Truman.

Knowland said he had "grave doubts" that Hoover ever recommended any such procedure, adding:

"Hoover probably could clarify the point and anyone who can throw any light on this subject should have the opportunity of throwing light."

Sen. Ferguson of Michigan, chairman of the Senate Republican policy committee, said in a

Would Ban Livestock From Most Highways

Legislative Study Group Approves Rough Draft Of Sweeping Livestock Bill

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 14—UP—A legislative study committee met here Saturday, and after a noisy and heated discussion, adopted the rough draft of a state stock law bill which it will present to the next legislative session.

The vote was 12 to one, with Rep. W. T. Hodges Jr. of Jena opposing.

It would prohibit stock, including horses and mules, cattle, hogs, sheep and goats, from roaming on most U. S. and state highways on which the traffic count averages 1,000 vehicles per 24-hour period.

It also provides for impounding of livestock found on the highways, which are designated in the bill, by state police, sheriffs, deputies and other law enforcement officers, at the rate of $4 per animal for fees and feed costs of 50 cents per day for horses and cattle and 25 cents for sheep.

Impounded animals would be advertised and sold if unclaimed, the money after all fees and expenses turned over to the Public Safety Department. Violators of the law would be subject to fines of $25 or 30 days in jail, or both.

Hodges, a bitter opponent of stock law legislation, provided most of the fireworks at the meeting.

He charged the committee didn't have enough cattlemen on it to "get the cattleman's viewpoint."

The committee, as were other legislative study committees, formed by members of the legislature themselves specifying which group they wished to serve on.

Rep. F. A. Graugnard Jr. of St. James parish, a cattle owner, said that not only were non cattle-owning citizens interested in the stock law. "Many cattlemen are vitally interested, because you can't improve your herd with all kinds of cattle roaming free."

Hodges demanded to know where Sen. Eloi Girard was getting money to promote the stock law, and how he intended to spend

Hiss To Receive Parole Hearing

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Alger Hiss will get another chance next Saturday at a parole from his five-year prison term.

A routine annual review of the case will be made at that time by the federal parole board, Dr. George C. Killinger, a board member, said today. Hiss will not appear or be questioned, and the board will meet in executive session. A decision will be announced a short time thereafter, Killinger said.

Hiss was convicted Jan. 25, 1950, on charges of lying under oath when he swore before a federal grand jury that he had never passed secret government documents to Whittaker Chambers, admitted courier for a pre-war Soviet spy ring.

Weird Tales From The Jungle Intrigue Scientists

Tribe Of Naked Women Use Stones For Lighting

LONDON, Nov. 14. —UP—Weird tales of a tribe of naked women in the jungles of New Guinea, who light their villages with strange, glowing "neon-like" balls of stone and who treat the males of the tribe like slaves, were told Saturday in reports reaching here from responsible sources.

Strangely enough, the reports emerged from a conference on street lighting and traffic in Pretoria, South Africa.

C. S. Downey, a delegate to the conference, told of "a community of females in a jungle valley near Mt. Wilhelmnia in New Guinea, who go about their work completely nude—disdaining even the tufts of grass worn by women of other tribes."

These jungle Amazons, he said, despise the male sex and imprison their men in caves.

Downey said traders who had penetrated this strange valley of women reported they were "terrified to see many moons suspended in the air and shining with great brightness all night long."

Downey said the suspended "moons" were described as "stone balls about 12 feet in diameter and mounted on high columns."

"When the shadows stole across the valley, the huge stone balls began to glow with mysterious light," he said.

He suggested that "these women, cut off from the rest of mankind, may have perfected a system of artificial illumination equal, if not superior, to the gaseous neon tubes of the 20th Century."

The tribe, Downey said, is ruled by a queen and "although the quota of men is tolerated to insure the continuance of the race, their position is similar to that of slaves."

Officials at Australia House, an information center here, said reports of the naked tribeswomen frequently had reached Australia from prospectors and from allied service men during the war when white men penetrated for the first time into some of the most remote areas of New Guinea.

Neighbors who reported the blaze about midnight said the children's screams apparently aroused the household.

Street was knocked unconscious trying to rescue his daughters who were screaming "Daddy, save us." Blocked by flames, he ran outside and tried to break through a bedroom window but was badly dazed by shattering glass.

The cause of the blaze was not determined.

Other survivors include two brothers, Kline and J. B. Street of Denham Springs.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow at the Emmanuel Baptist Church near Walker.

Agreement Paves Way For Debate At Panmunjom

PANMUNJOM, Sunday, Nov. 15 (AP)—Allied and Red diplomats cleared the first barrier in the path of a Korean peace meet and prepared today to plunge into debate Monday on concrete arrangements for the fateful conference.

After three weeks of talking, the negotiators finally reached agreement yesterday on an agenda for their discussions on planning the peace conference.

The agenda agreement marked the first diplomatic triumph for Dean. The Reds accepted virtually the same plan Dean had proposed two weeks ago. It allows simultaneous consideration of the site and time of the peace conference and the thorny controversy over seating of Asiatic neutrals including Russia.

"This is just the key that opens the door," Dean said of the agenda

GOP Leaders To Confer With Ike December 10-12

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14—UP—GOP congressional leaders will hold three days of conferences with President Eisenhower and the Cabinet in December to work on the administration's legislative program for next year, it was announced Saturday.

Senate Republican leader William F. Knowland told reporters that the "target date" for these meetings is Dec. 10-11-12, shortly after Mr. Eisenhower returns from the Big Three conference at Bermuda.

It had been announced previously that Mr. Eisenhower would meet with House and Senate GOP leaders before drafting his annual State of the Union message. That message outlines the administration program to Congress in January.

Knowland suggested that the December conferences may enable legislative committees to get in motion early, allowing Congress to take a running start in January on what is expected to be a heavy program.

Both Knowland and Sen. Homer Ferguson, Mich., chairman of the Senate Republican Policy committee, were eager to get Congress moving early and fast. Both predicted a St. Lawrence seaway bill will be the first — or among the first — major bills before the Senate.

Ferguson also told reporters that he thinks there should be early action to freeze the Social Security payroll tax at its present level, retroactive to Jan. 1. Such legislation would have to originate in the House.

ASSISTS CAUSE—Former President Harry Truman, who has been in the spotlight lately as a result of charges hurled at him by congressional investigating committees probing the Harry Dexter White case, pauses in a New York hotel lobby before his morning walk Saturday to help open the "Letter Carriers' March for Muscular Dystrophy," Jay Colby, 8, a victim of the disease, was on hand to seek Truman's assistance in the drive which has a $9-million national goal.

Ex-President To Make Radio Talk Monday

Says He'll Tell 'All The Facts' In White Case

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Senate Republican leaders opened the way today to call FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover for testimony on any claim by former President Truman that he kept Harry Dexter White in the government as a decoy for surveillance of Communist spy suspects.

Truman announced today he will g. on the air Monday night to "tell all the facts" of the sensational case, which broke open when Atty. Gen. Brownell accused Truman of promoting White to high office in the face of FBI reports which, Brownell said, showed White to be a Soviet spy.

In advance of Truman's speech, various reports have been circulating widely. Some Democratic supporters of Truman have passed the word that the President kept White in the government to see if the FBI could catch him, and possibly others, in any act of espionage. Other sources have countered by saying that Hoover entered into no such arrangement and knew nothing of it.

In New York today Truman was asked whether he permitted the White promotion to U. S. director on the International Monetary Fund—to go through under an arrangement with the FBI.

"I have not examined the record on the matter and my memory is hazy—I would have to look it up," Truman said.

A reporter asked: "If the FBI made such a request, would you have complied?"

"It's a possibility," the former President replied.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, said in an interview he regards as a "White herring, or possibly a red one," any such explanation by Truman.

Knowland said he had "grave doubts" that Hoover ever recommended any such procedure, adding:

"Hoover probably could clarify the point and anyone who can throw any light on this subject should have the opportunity of throwing light."

Sen. Ferguson of Michigan, chairman of the Senate Republican policy committee, said in a

Legislative Study Group Approves Rough Draft Of Sweeping Livestock Bill

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 14—UP—A legislative study committee met here Saturday, and after a noisy and heated discussion, adopted the rough draft of a state stock law bill which it will present to the next legislative session.

The vote was 12 to one, with Rep. W. T. Hodges Jr. of Jena opposing.

It would prohibit stock, including horses and mules, cattle, hogs, sheep and goats, from roaming on most U. S. and state highways on which the traffic count averages 1,000 vehicles per 24-hour period.

It also provides for impounding of livestock found on the highways, which are designated in the bill, by state police, sheriffs, deputies and other law enforcement officers, at the rate of $4 per animal for fees and feed costs of 50 cents per day for horses and cattle and 25 cents for sheep.

Impounded animals would be advertised and sold if unclaimed, the money after all fees and expenses turned over to the Public Safety Department. Violators of the law would be subject to fines of $25 or 30 days in jail, or both.

Hodges, a bitter opponent of stock law legislation, provided most of the fireworks at the meeting.

He charged the committee didn't have enough cattlemen on it to "get the cattleman's viewpoint."

The committee, as were other legislative study committees, formed by members of the legislature themselves specifying which group they wished to serve on.

Rep. F. A. Graugnard Jr. of St. James parish, a cattle owner, said that not only were non cattle-owning citizens interested in the stock law. "Many cattlemen are vitally interested, because you can't improve your herd with all kinds of cattle roaming free."

Hodges demanded to know where Sen. Eloi Girard was getting money to promote the stock law, and how he intended to spend

Hiss To Receive Parole Hearing

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Alger Hiss will get another chance next Saturday at a parole from his five-year prison term.

A routine annual review of the case will be made at that time by the federal parole board, Dr. George C. Killinger, a board member, said today. Hiss will not appear or be questioned, and the board will meet in executive session. A decision will be announced a short time thereafter, Killinger said.

Hiss was convicted Jan. 25, 1950, on charges of lying under oath when he swore before a federal grand jury that he had never passed secret government documents to Whittaker Chambers, admitted courier for a pre-war Soviet spy ring.

Weird Tales From The Jungle Intrigue Scientists

Tribe Of Naked Women Use Stones For Lighting

LONDON, Nov. 14. —UP—Weird tales of a tribe of naked women in the jungles of New Guinea, who light their villages with strange, glowing "neon-like" balls of stone and who treat the males of the tribe like slaves, were told Saturday in reports reaching here from responsible sources.

Strangely enough, the reports emerged from a conference on street lighting and traffic in Pretoria, South Africa.

C. S. Downey, a delegate to the conference, told of "a community of females in a jungle valley near Mt. Wilhelmnia in New Guinea, who go about their work completely nude—disdaining even the tufts of grass worn by women of other tribes."

These jungle Amazons, he said, despise the male sex and imprison their men in caves.

Downey said traders who had penetrated this strange valley of women reported they were "terrified to see many moons suspended in the air and shining with great brightness all night long."

Downey said the suspended "moons" were described as "stone balls about 12 feet in diameter and mounted on high columns."

"When the shadows stole across the valley, the huge stone balls began to glow with mysterious light," he said.

He suggested that "these women, cut off from the rest of mankind, may have perfected a system of artificial illumination equal, if not superior, to the gaseous neon tubes of the 20th Century."

The tribe, Downey said, is ruled by a queen and "although the quota of men is tolerated to insure the continuance of the race, their position is similar to that of slaves."

Officials at Australia House, an information center here, said reports of the naked tribeswomen frequently had reached Australia from prospectors and from allied service men during the war when white men penetrated for the first time into some of the most remote areas of New Guinea.

Winnsboro Man Celebrates 99th Birthday Today

By OTIS HASSELL
Winnsboro Correspondent

WINNSBORO, Nov. 15 (Special)—James M. King, a retired farmer and retail merchant is 99 years old today. His home is located on route two, 10 miles southwest of Winnsboro.

Mr. King has been very active and in excellent health and spirits all his life but is not able to take his usual part in the birthday celebration this year on account of a fever which has kept hanging on for the past few days. Two weeks ago when Robert F. Mulhearn was taking Mr. King by ambulance to a clinic in Winnsboro, he turned to Mulhearn and said, "Son, I will be 99 years old on November 15, and this is the first time I have had to go to one of these places."

In 1950 at the age of 95 Mr. King became the beneficiary of his own life insurance policy and collected the $1,500 proceeds of a contract he had purchased 46 years before. The policy was issued to him in 1904 by the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. His opportunity to collect the proceeds resulted from the company's practice of offering policyholders who have reached the age of 96 the value of the policy in bulk payment or the option of leaving it with the company where it would earn interest.

Mr. King, a native of Arkansas, has lived in Franklin parish since 1870. He retired a few years ago after a long career as a farmer and retail merchant. He operated one of the first cotton gins in Franklin parish; a portable machine which he moved from farm to farm as it was needed.

He is a long-time member of the Masonic Lodge and the Boeuf Prairie Methodist Church at Fort Necessity, La. With his brothers, John and Mack, he constructed the first Methodist church building in Winnsboro. The present-day Winnsboro First Methodist Church stands on the same site which was a pine forest when the King boys first approached it.

Mr. King's wife the former Clara Brinsfield, passed away in 1928 during their fiftieth year of marriage. Six of their 10 children survive: G. E. King, who lives with his father; Mrs. A. E. Hynum and Mrs. W. H. Price, Winnsboro, route 2; J. F. King, Wisner; Mrs. L. M. Cook, of Arkansas, and Dr. Brinsfield King, of Baton Rouge; sixteen grandchildren; twelve great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Crippled Children Invited To Circus

All crippled children in the Twin Cities are cordially invited to attend the Kay Brothers Indoor Circus as guest of the Knights of Columbus Monday at 4 p.m.

An evening performance will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the West Monroe rodeo arena.

Children from the Baptist Children's Home and Louisiana Training Institute will also be guests of the club.

Kilpatrick Funeral Home Holding Open House Sun.

Kilpatrick's Funeral home of West Monroe will continue its formal opening Sunday at its newly-established location at 1502 Cypress street. Open house will be held from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. Open house was also held Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The new funeral home is owned by K. D. Kilpatrick, Tex R. Kilpatrick, and B. R. Patton. The three partners, who have been with the Kilpatrick Funeral Home organization, with established funeral homes in Ruston, Bernice and Farmerville, came to West Monroe and purchased the Gentry home, converting it into a funeral home.

Tex Kilpatrick, the manager of the Kilpatrick's Funeral home in West Monroe, graduated from Louisiana State University, with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1953. He formerly received his mortician's license from Landig Mortuary College in Houston, Tex., in 1949.

Kilpatrick's in West Monroe consists of a display room, a reception room, a state room and has a fleet of four ambulances, offering ambulance service 24 hours a day. In the near future Kilpatrick's plans an addition to the operation which will include a burial assessment plan and an industrial insurance office.

Chest X-Rays For Students At Northeast

Northeast State students will be given an opportunity to have their chests X-rayed in a mobile unit on the campus November 17-20.

The project is being sponsered by the State Department of Health and the Northeast Health and Physical Education section.

Specialists in New Orleans read the film, and if the picture indicates chest disturbance, a re-take is made. This system has proved quite satisfactory, according to George Ineichen, regional health educator.

Emphasizing the value of chest X-ray, Ineichen explained that the X-ray machine shows the presence of tuberculosis in its earliest stages -long before symptoms develope.

Finding the disease early gives greater opportunity for it to be checked in a shorter period of treatment and to limit its spread to other individuals.

Moose Lodge Home Newly Decorated

The new home of the Loyal Order of Moose, Lodge No. 1714, at 17 Louisville avenue, has been redecorated and is ready for use by club members, it was announced yesterday.

The home has been painted throughout. New drapes made by Mrs. J. E. Farmer and Mrs. J. H. Walker, add to the beauty of the home. A television set has been installed in the main parlor for the enjoyment of members.

The home is open to members and their guests from 4 p.m. to midnight each day.

Congressman Otto E. Passman and Clarence Vokker were installed as members at the November 10 meeting of the club. The initiation was performed by the Monroe ritual team, composed of Billye Adams, Robert L. Rhodes, Mel Spain, Ralph Gebhardt, Reuben Simmons, and Joseph Worley.

Following the initiation Congressmen Passman made a short but interesting address.

MISS EMOGENE PLINER

Mrs. Thelma Oetgen served as moderator. Members of the panel were Mrs. Sue Gatlin, Mrs. Lois Thompson, Mrs. Hazel Ziedman, and Mrs. Dorothy Martin.

Following the panel discussion, Mrs. Ruth Green explained the part that the P-TA plays in legislation.

Mrs. Sue Gatlin and Mrs. Ruth Greene gave a report on the district meeting held in Bernice.

Battleship Delivers Rare Inca Treasure

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 14—UP—The battleship New Jersey docked here Saturday with a fortune in the gold of the Incas and other ancient pagan cultures in her hold. The $500,000 collection comprises 80 masterpieces of prehistoric works of Goldsmith art from the gold collection of the Museo De Oro, owned by the Banco De La Republica in Bogota, Columbia. The works will be exhibited at four American museums during a six month exposition tour.

Two daily newspapers are published by the Army: the Far East and European editions of The Stars and Stripes.

Hale Lauds Success Of Business-Education Day

"Monroe - West Monroe and Ouachita Parish school teachers turned out 100 per cent for the Chamber of Commerce's initial business - education day project," stated L. L. Hale, chairman of the organization's sponsoring committee, "and, thanks to our 38 host-firms yesterday will probably stand as a literal high - water mark in close cooperation between business and education authorities

"The tremendous planning for our business - education day event, Hale said, "required perfect cooperation from 457 teachers, city and parish school superintendents and their staffs, transportation staffs, and a terrific amount of work and effort from our 38 host-businesses."

"Bryan Blalock's speech," Education Chairman Hale stated, "definitely was made to order for our program; in that in his own way he succeeded in leaving with our teachers and business leaders a true - story of the great American free enterprise system."

Mayor John E. Coon, representing the City of Monroe, made Blalock an honorary citizen of the city presenting him with an engraved gold key to the city at the conclusion of his address.

"The business - education day project will be evaluated by both participating business firms and teachers," Chamber secretary Jim Williams said, "We will during the next few days send out a survey form to record the impulse of those making the project possible — that is, so that specific changes of a constructive nature might be made in the over-all planning of the event if it is to be staged annually."

Chamber officials pointed ou that it was "indeed regrettable that on this initial project that larger group of firms could no have been utilized; however, wider scope of endeavor will b taken into consideration on futur presentations.

"I want to publicly acknowledg the cooperation of Van Odom, cit superintendent of schools; W. W Ward, superintendent of the pari schools; Paul Neal, principal Neville; P. B. Mangum, princi of West Monroe High; and Mor Griggs and the contingent of drivers who made the mass tra portation of the teachers pos ble," Chairman Hale stated.

The chamber's education co mittee consisting of Dr. D. L. A derson, A. K. Kilpatrick, H. Poulan, I. A. Faulk, Paul Gol man, J. H. Trousdale, Jr., To Scott, Dave Silverstein, Van Odon W. W. Ward and Jim Ewing, wa lauded by Chairman Hale as "th finest group of committeemen that I've ever had the experience of working with."

"These committeemen," Hale stated, "gave of their time and efforts over an extended period of some four months in laying the ground work for this project and it is to them that the precision like clockwork of our event yesterday was due."

Chamber officials are elated over the public - acclaim of the B-E Day, and are grateful to the businessmen and executives of business constituting the 38 "host sponsors" who made the tours of private enterprise possible.

Latter Day Saints In Area Conference Today

Conferences will be held for the North - Louisiana district of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, in the Barkdull Faulk School auditorium, today at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Milton Belisle, president of the north-Louisiana district will preside at the meetings. President Belisle is well-known throughout north Louisiana in both church, political, and civic affairs. At present he is a state representative for Sabine Parish, and for the past sixteen years has been mayor of Many, La. He is owner and publisher of the Sabine Index. He is past president of both the Lions Club and the Chamber of Commerce. Since his conversion 14 years ago to the Mormon faith, he has served as a district worker, eight years of which he has been president of the N. Louisiana district.

This conference is outstanding and unusual because of the rapid growth of the church in this section. The Shreveport branch has grown to such large proportions that it has been made a ward of the Dallas area and is no longer a part of the north Louisiana district. This district had a good many district workers in Shreveport, and their removal makes it necessary to reorganize a large part of the district. Branch presidents and men holding the priesthood have been warned that they may be released from their present offices and called to fill the vacancies in the district organization. These changes will naturally affect each branch in the district with many of these branches being completely reorganized.

The Ladies Relief Society of the Monroe Branch will prepare and serve lunch at noon free of charge to all who attend these meetings. Friends who are interested in attending these meetings, are cordially invited to do so.

Wilma Elephant Leaves Monroe

Wilma, 7,300 pounds of pouting pulsating elephant is finally on her merry way to Ft. Worth.

Wilma was summarily ejected from the truck, in which she and two other elephantine cuties were being transported to Texas, by the state police troopers who discovered that, due to her excess avoirdupoise, Wilma was overloading the truck.

Despite her objections to the contrary, Wilma was temporarily housed in the old power plant at 12th and Grammont Sts. She and the other two elephants are the property of the Cole Brothers Circus and are scheduled to perform in a Shrine circus at Ft. Worth.

Wilma's trainer was worried about separating the three elephants, whose combined weight is 23,300 pounds, in view of the fact that they had been together all their lives, however, outside of a few tempermental snorts and wails Wilma managed to behave herself.

Radio Moscow Deals With Robin Hood

LONDON, Nov. 14—UP—The Soviet News Agency Tass said Saturday "American censors" have included Robin Hood on the list of "subversive elements." Tass quoted a Radio Moscow droadcast commenting on a dispatch saying that a lady member of the Indiana textbook commission wanted the story of Robin Hood banned from the schools as communistic.

Winnsboro Correspondent

WINNSBORO, Nov. 15 (Special)—James M. King, a retired farmer and retail merchant is 99 years old today. His home is located on route two, 10 miles southwest of Winnsboro.

Mr. King has been very active and in excellent health and spirits all his life but is not able to take his usual part in the birthday celebration this year on account of a fever which has kept hanging on for the past few days. Two weeks ago when Robert F. Mulhearn was taking Mr. King by ambulance to a clinic in Winnsboro, he turned to Mulhearn and said, "Son, I will be 99 years old on November 15, and this is the first time I have had to go to one of these places."

In 1950 at the age of 95 Mr. King became the beneficiary of his own life insurance policy and collected the $1,500 proceeds of a contract he had purchased 46 years before. The policy was issued to him in 1904 by the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. His opportunity to collect the proceeds resulted from the company's practice of offering policyholders who have reached the age of 96 the value of the policy in bulk payment or the option of leaving it with the company where it would earn interest.

Mr. King, a native of Arkansas, has lived in Franklin parish since 1870. He retired a few years ago after a long career as a farmer and retail merchant. He operated one of the first cotton gins in Franklin parish; a portable machine which he moved from farm to farm as it was needed.

He is a long-time member of the Masonic Lodge and the Boeuf Prairie Methodist Church at Fort Necessity, La. With his brothers, John and Mack, he constructed the first Methodist church building in Winnsboro. The present-day Winnsboro First Methodist Church stands on the same site which was a pine forest when the King boys first approached it.

Mr. King's wife the former Clara Brinsfield, passed away in 1928 during their fiftieth year of marriage. Six of their 10 children survive: G. E. King, who lives with his father; Mrs. A. E. Hynum and Mrs. W. H. Price, Winnsboro, route 2; J. F. King, Wisner; Mrs. L. M. Cook, of Arkansas, and Dr. Brinsfield King, of Baton Rouge; sixteen grandchildren; twelve great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Crippled Children Invited To Circus

All crippled children in the Twin Cities are cordially invited to attend the Kay Brothers Indoor Circus as guest of the Knights of Columbus Monday at 4 p.m.

An evening performance will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the West Monroe rodeo arena.

Children from the Baptist Children's Home and Louisiana Training Institute will also be guests of the club.

Kilpatrick Funeral Home Holding Open House Sun.

Kilpatrick's Funeral home of West Monroe will continue its formal opening Sunday at its newly-established location at 1502 Cypress street. Open house will be held from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. Open house was also held Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The new funeral home is owned by K. D. Kilpatrick, Tex R. Kilpatrick, and B. R. Patton. The three partners, who have been with the Kilpatrick Funeral Home organization, with established funeral homes in Ruston, Bernice and Farmerville, came to West Monroe and purchased the Gentry home, converting it into a funeral home.

Tex Kilpatrick, the manager of the Kilpatrick's Funeral home in West Monroe, graduated from Louisiana State University, with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1953. He formerly received his mortician's license from Landig Mortuary College in Houston, Tex., in 1949.

Kilpatrick's in West Monroe consists of a display room, a reception room, a state room and has a fleet of four ambulances, offering ambulance service 24 hours a day. In the near future Kilpatrick's plans an addition to the operation which will include a burial assessment plan and an industrial insurance office.

Chest X-Rays For Students At Northeast

Northeast State students will be given an opportunity to have their chests X-rayed in a mobile unit on the campus November 17-20.

The project is being sponsered by the State Department of Health and the Northeast Health and Physical Education section.

Specialists in New Orleans read the film, and if the picture indicates chest disturbance, a re-take is made. This system has proved quite satisfactory, according to George Ineichen, regional health educator.

Emphasizing the value of chest X-ray, Ineichen explained that the X-ray machine shows the presence of tuberculosis in its earliest stages long before symptoms develope.

Finding the disease early gives greater opportunity for it to be checked in a shorter period of treatment and to limit its spread to other individuals.

Moose Lodge Home Newly Decorated

The new home of the Loyal Order of Moose, Lodge No. 1714, at 17 Louisville avenue, has been redecorated and is ready for use by club members, it was announced yesterday.

The home has been painted throughout. New drapes made by Mrs. J. E. Farmer and Mrs. J. H. Walker, add to the beauty of the home. A television set has been installed in the main parlor for the enjoyment of members.

The home is open to members and their guests from 4 p.m. to midnight each day.

Congressman Otto E. Passman and Clarence Vokker were installed as members at the November 10 meeting of the club. The initiation was performed by the Monroe ritual team, composed of Billye Adams, Robert L. Rhodes, Mel Spain, Ralph Gebhardt, Reuben Simmons, and Joseph Worley.

Following the initiation Congressmen Passman made a short but interesting address.

MISS EMOGENE PLINER

Miss Pliner To Address League Of Women Voters

Miss Emogene Pliner, research analyst of the Public Affairs Research Council for the state of Louisiana, will be the principal speaker at the monthly meeting of the Monroe League of Women Voters, Mrs. LeVerne Riddle, president, announced yesterday. The meeting will be held at Tony's Redwood restaurant beginning at 6:45 p.m. Monday.

Subject of the talk will be "The Louisiana Tax Dollar," Mrs. Riddle stated.

Miss Pliner, who received a B. A. and M. A. in government from Louisiana State University, received the highest honor in that field by taking the Carleton Fellowship in government.

The Public Affairs Research Council, for which she works, is a citizen - supported non-political research and educational organization set up to make studies of state and local government problems in Louisiana, to work with public officials in the improvement of government, and to keep its members and all citizens of Louisiana informed and advised on public affairs.

Following the panel discussion, Mrs. Ruth Green explained the part that the P-TA plays in legislation.

Mrs. Sue Gatlin and Mrs. Ruth Greene gave a report on the district meeting held in Bernice.

Battleship Delivers Rare Inca Treasure

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 14—UP—The battleship New Jersey docked here Saturday with a fortune in the gold of the Incas and other ancient pagan cultures in her hold. The $500,000 collection comprises 80 masterpieces of prehistoric works of Goldsmith art from the gold collection of the Museo De Oro, owned by the Banco De La Republica in Bogota, Columbia. The works will be exhibited at four American museums during a six month exposition tour.

Hale Lauds Success Of Business-Education Day

"Monroe - West Monroe and Ouachita Parish school teachers turned out 100 per cent for the Chamber of Commerce's initial business - education day project," stated L. L. Hale, chairman of the organization's sponsoring committee, "and, thanks to our 38 host-firms yesterday will probably stand as a literal high - water mark in close cooperation between business and education authorities

"The tremendous planning for our business - education day event, Hale said, "required perfect cooperation from 457 teachers, city and parish school superintendents and their staffs, transportation staffs, and a terrific amount of work and effort from our 38 host-businesses.'

"Bryan Blalock's speech," Education Chairman Hale stated, "definitely was made to order for our program; in that in his own way he succeeded in leaving with our teachers and business leaders a true - story of the great American free enterprise system."

Mayor John E. Coon, representing the City of Monroe, made Blalock an honorary citizen of the city presenting him with an engraved gold key to the city at the conclusion of his address.

"The business - education day project will be evaluated by both participating business firms and teachers," Chamber secretary Jim Williams said, "We will during the next few days send out a survey form to record the impulse of those making the project possible — that is, so that specific changes of a constructive nature might be made in the over-all planning of the event if it is to be staged annually."

Chamber officials pointed out that it was "indeed regrettable" that on this initial project that a larger group of firms could not have been utilized; however, a wider scope of endeavor will be taken into consideration on future presentations.

"I want to publicly acknowledge the cooperation of Van Odom, city superintendent of schools; W. W. Ward, superintendent of the parish schools; Paul Neal, principal of Neville; P. B. Mangum, principal of West Monroe High; and Morris Griggs and the contingent of bus drivers who made the mass transportation of the teachers possible," Chairman Hale stated.

The chamber's education committee consisting of Dr. D. L. Anderson, A. K. Kilpatrick, H. T. Poulan, I. A. Faulk, Paul Goldman, J. H. Trousdale, Jr., Tom Scott, Dave Silverstein, Van Odom, W. W. Ward and Jim Ewing, was lauded by Chairman Hale as "the finest group of committeemen that I've ever had the experience of working with."

"These committeemen," Hale stated, "gave of their time and efforts over an extended period of some four months in laying the ground work for this project and it is to them that the precision, like clockwork of our event yesterday was due."

Chamber officials are elated over the public - acclaim of the B-E Day, and are grateful to the businessmen and executives of business constituting the 38 "host sponsors" who made the tours of private enterprise possible.

Latter Day Saints In Area Conference Today

Conferences will be held for the North - Louisiana district of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, in the Barkdull Faulk School auditorium, today at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Milton Belisle, president of the north-Louisiana district will preside at the meetings. President Belisle is well-known throughout north Louisiana in both church, political, and civic affairs. At present he is a state representative for Sabine Parish, and for the past sixteen years has been mayor of Many, La. He is owner and publisher of the Sabine Index. He is past president of both the Lions Club and the Chamber of Commerce. Since his conversion 14 years ago to the Mormon faith, he has served as a district worker, eight years of which he has been president of the N. Louisiana district.

This conference is outstanding and unusual because of the rapid growth of the church in this section. The Shreveport branch has grown to such large proportions that it has been made a ward of the Dallas area and is no longer a part of the north Louisiana district. This district had a good many district workers in Shreveport, and their removal makes it necessary to reorganize a large part of the district. Branch presidents and men holding the priesthood have been warned that they may be released from their present offices and called to fill the vacancies in the district organization. These changes will naturally affect each branch in the district with many of these branches being completely reorganized.

The Ladies Relief Society of the Monroe Branch will prepare and serve lunch at noon free of charge to all who attend these meetings. Friends who are interested in attending these meetings, are cordially invited to do so.

Two daily newspapers are published by the Army: the Far East and European editions of The Stars and Stripes.

Wilma Elephant Leaves Monroe

Wilma, 7,300 pounds of pouting pulsating elephant is finally on her merry way to Ft. Worth.

Wilma was summarilly ejected from the truck, in which she and two other elephantine cuties were being transported to Texas, by the state police troopers who discovered that, due to her excess avoirdupoise, Wilma was overloading the truck.

Despite her objections to the contrary, Wilma was temporarilly housed in the old power plant at 12th and Grammont Sts. She and the other two elephants are the property of the Cole Brothers Circus and are scheduled to perform in a Shrine circus at Ft. Worth.

Wilma's trainer was worried about separating the three elephants, whose combined weight is 23,200 pounds, in view of the fact that they had been together all their lives, however, outside of a few tempermental snorts and wails Wilma managed to behave herself.

Radio Moscow Deals With Robin Hood

LONDON, Nov. 14—UP—The Soviet News Agency Tass said Saturday "American censors" have included Robin Hood on the list of "subversive elements." Tass quoted a Radio Moscow droadcast commenting on a dispatch saying that a lady member of the Indiana text book commission wanted the story of Robin Hood banned from the schools as communistic.

Tests In New Setup Held In Post Offices

Under the new modernized program of the Post Office department a new procedure is being inaugurated for the promotion of clerks and city letter carriers to the supervisory positions of clerk in charge and foreman.

November 14 was named as the date for a written competitive examination to be held in post offices all over the nation. All post office clerks and city carriers were eligible to volunteer by means of making application in advance. This is the largest written competitive examination ever held by the post office department and it is expected that more than 50,000 employes over the United States will participate.

This examination is the first under a new program which Postmaster General Summerfield has set up to assure that future promotions of post office employes to supervisory jobs will be made, wherever possible, on the results of impartial competitive examinations. There will be further opportunities, even, for employes who fail to pass these tests. Training courses, to be taken on the employes' own time, will be offered for the benefit of those who failed to make a passing grade, so that ambitious and sincere postal employes may be assured of every chance to qualify for advancement.

The examination was held in Monroe on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 in the civil service room of the post office building. Seventeen local post office employes participated. The examination was conducted by F. H. Clampitt, post office inspector, who was assisted by Guy T. Elliott and Conley E. Thornhill, supervisors in the Monroe post office.

Claims Truman Kept White With FBI Approval

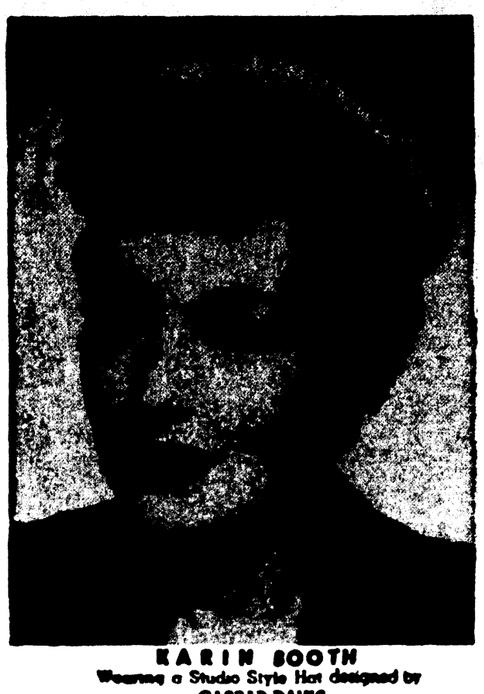

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13 —UP— Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) said Friday he was "reliably informed" the Truman administration kept Harry Dexter White in the government with J. Edgar Hoover's approval so FBI agents could watch his every move.

Walter, top-ranking Democrat on the House Un-American Activities committee, said the FBI director was party to a plan to keep the accused spy "under surveillance" and track down his alleged Red associates. He demanded that Hoover be called before the committee.

Walter told reporters the agreement to move White in 1946 from assistant secretary of the treasury to U.S. executive director of the International Monetary Fund was "party of the strategy to ferret out suspects in the government."

This was not supported, however, in other equally official quarters where the United Press was informed that at no time did the FBI enter into agreement to move White from the treasury to the monetary fund.

School's Three-Point Defense Plan Given

A guide which outlines a three-point program for schools to follow in establishment of civil defense self-protection programs for use in enemy attack or such natural disasters as hurricanes and tornadoes has been published by the state department of education and the Louisiana Civil Defense Agency.

Announcement of the publication was made today by Shelby M. Jackson, state superintendent of education, and Francis A. Woolfley, state civil defense director. The officials said that preliminary distribution of the booklet has been started to public, parochial and private school superintendents and principals throughout the state.

The guide, said Jackson, spells out the following proposals:

1. Safety drills to be used in emergencies, with or without warning of impending danger.
2. Pointers on how to select shelter sites for schools.
3. Civil defense basic data especially prepared for schools and inclusion in regular studies.

Commenting on the program, General Woolfley asserted that "the governor, the state superintendent and I feel that the program is a long-term proposition which people in education and school patrons will recognize as an affirmative approach to the problem of integrating Civil Defense instruction into the safety program of our schools."

Jackson said that sufficient quantities of the publication have been printed for each public, parochial and private teacher in the state from the primary through senior high levels and that the Civil Defense agency will attempt to furnish reference booklets to the school systems.

Material used in the guide was adapted from Civil Defense school programs by the Houston and Milwaukee school systems, the National Association of secondary school principals, federal Civil Defense administration and various other educational and Civil Defense groups including the Dallas regional office of FCDA, the superintendent noted.

Revisions were suggested by committees representing the Louisiana Educational Association, the Diocesan council of schools, state department of education and Civil Defense officials.

"On the whole, superintendents, principals, teachers and parent groups approached on the proposed school Civil Defense program are in favor of its implementation," the director noted. "The guide outlines ways in which school facilities can be organized for community Civil Defense purposes but the emphasis is made upon self-protection and information for the school systems."

FRATERNITY ELECTS BROWN

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 14—UP—Robert U. Brown, editor of Editor & Publisher magazine, was elected president of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalistic fraternity, Saturday. He succeeds Lee Hills, executive editor of the Detroit Free Press.

Name Mrs. Agnew Assistant In Area Defense

Mrs. David L. Agnew of Monroe has been appointed assistant director of the 12-parish civil defense district F of northeast Louisiana.

Announcement of the appointment was made by District Director A. B. Clarkson of Monroe, who said that Mrs. Agnew is "highly qualified for the post due to her work in civil defense as deputy director of women for Monroe and Ouachita parish and training at the federal civil defense staff college at Olney, Md."

Mrs. Agnew, who is associated in several business enterprises with her husband, is president of the Monroe Symphony orchestra and is serving a second term as head of the Monroe Quota club. She is a graduate of Ouachita Parish High School and attended college in Marshall, Mo.

Clarkson said that the appointment of Mrs. Agnew is the latest step in the advancement of Northeast Louisiana Civil Defense activities. He noted that Mrs. Elmer Slagle of Monroe is serving as district coordinator of women and that a district headquarters has been opened in Monroe with the assistance of Ouachita parish and Monroe officials.

State and federal civil defense assistance and coordination is provided through Clay Johnson, state civil defense field representative who maintains headquarters at the district office, Clarkson noted.

Walter told reporters the agreement to move White in 1946 from assistant secretary of the treasury to U.S. executive director of the International Monetary Fund was "party of the strategy to ferret out suspects in the government."

This was not supported, however, in other equally official quarters where the United Press was informed that at no time did the FBI enter into agreement to move White from the treasury to the monetary fund.

Petroleum companies produced and delivered a record of 136,532,246 gallons of gasoline per day during 1952. This would be enough gasoline to drive an automobile for more than 376,122 years!

School's Three-Point Defense Plan Given

A guide which outlines a three-point program for schools to follow in establishment of civil defense self-protection programs for use in enemy attack or such natural disasters as hurricanes and tornadoes has been published by the state department of education and the Louisiana Civil Defense Agency.

Announcement of the publication was made today by Shelby M. Jackson, state superintendent of education, and Francis A. Woolfley, state civil defense director. The officials said that preliminary distribution of the booklet has been started to public, parochial and private school superintendents and principals throughout the state.

The guide, said Jackson, spells out the following proposals:

1. Safety drills to be used in emergencies, with or without warning of impending danger.
2. Pointers on how to select shelter sites for schools.
3. Civil defense basic data especially prepared for schools and inclusion in regular studies.

Commenting on the program, General Woolfley asserted that "the governor, the state superintendent and I feel that the program is a long-term proposition which people in education and school patrons will recognize as an affirmative approach to the problem of integrating Civil Defense instruction into the safety program of our schools."

Jackson said that sufficient quantities of the publication have been printed for each public, parochial and private teacher in the state from the primary through senior high levels and that the Civil Defense agency will attempt to furnish reference booklets to the school systems.

Material used in the guide was adapted from Civil Defense school programs by the Houston and Milwaukee school systems, the National Association of secondary school principals, federal Civil Defense administration and various other educational and Civil Defense groups including the Dallas regional office of FCDA, the superintendent noted.

Revisions were suggested by committees representing the Louisiana Educational Association, the Diocesan council of schools, state department of education and Civil Defense officials.

"On the whole, superintendents, principals, teachers and parent groups approached on the proposed school Civil Defense program are in favor of its implementation," the director noted. "The guide outlines ways in which school facilities can be organized for community Civil Defense purposes but the emphasis is made upon self-protection and information for the school systems."

FRATERNITY ELECTS BROWN

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 14—UP—Robert U. Brown, editor of Editor & Publisher magazine, was elected president of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalistic fraternity, Saturday. He succeeds Lee Hills, executive editor of the Detroit Free Press.

Name Mrs. Agnew Assistant In Area Defense

Mrs. David L. Agnew of Monroe has been appointed assistant director of the 12-parish civil defense district F of northeast Louisiana.

Announcement of the appointment was made by District Director A. B. Clarkson of Monroe, who said that Mrs. Agnew is "highly qualified for the post due to her work in civil defense as deputy director of women for Monroe and Ouachita parish and training at the federal civil defense staff college at Olney, Md."

Mrs. Agnew, who is associated in several business enterprises with her husband, is president of the Monroe Symphony orchestra and is serving a second term as head of the Monroe Quota club. She is a graduate of Ouachita Parish High School and attended college in Marshall, Mo.

Clarkson said that the appointment of Mrs. Agnew is the latest step in the advancement of Northeast Louisiana Civil Defense activities. He noted that Mrs. Elmer Slagle of Monroe is serving as district coordinator of women and that a district headquarters has been opened in Monroe with the assistance of Ouachita parish and Monroe officials.

State and federal civil defense assistance and coordination is provided through Clay Johnson, state civil defense field representative who maintains headquarters at the district office, Clarkson noted.

The Sophisticates

There is a segment of American society in each and every community which considers itself to be the "sophisticated set." These people have apparently no jobs, much money and are generally the best excuse the Marxists can offer for their own doctrine. Sometimes, they have positions which afford them much leisure time which is spent in a wasteful manner. Unfortunately, sometimes these people are the "pillars of society" in many communities.

Fortunately, in the Southland, these people are in the minority, the minute minority, especially in the smaller communities. It is this group which considers itself intellectually superior to nearly everyone and, which as a group, is the most responsible for breaking the laws of God and then flouting them, broken to pieces in the faces of people who still are God-fearing and despise this action. The national headquarters for the "class" or group is New York City's Greenwich Village, a regular American cesspool of degredation and immorality. West Coast headquarters is Hollywood and there are a few spots in between, one of them being Chicago.

Whether you know it or not, there are Americans today who flaunt the great Commandments of God, not only do they flaunt them, but they have no use for them and curse and degrade those who do. These are the Americans who appreciate neither God nor country and live in their own materialistic world sometimes even courting the thoughts of the cruel materialistic dialectics of men who believed along these lines. These are the Americans who neither are patriots, semi-patriots nor do they have any feelings along those lines.

Unfortunately, there were many of this type people in government service during a period which demanded the most alert patriots and God-fearing people. There are still some of these materialists in the federal government and it is time to remove them, by force if necessary. It is these "sophisticates" who in the main, control the theatre world and the motion picture industry as far as the participants are concerned. Their sordiness is spread much as black lava across the nation each week by the gossip columnists wherever they may be. Their one ambition in life seems to be to see how many husbands or wives they can capture during their span on this earth. They have no aims in life, only drifting about like clouds of smoke.

It is these people who are shown on the covers of many magazines which attempt to see how base and degrading they can appear before the government removes them from the mails and then, that move makes them more popular than ever, so constructed is the mind of many Americans these days.

You say, "why worry, it's their business?" That is not true as these people in many cases are the ones in dominating positions not only in the public eye, but in controlling positions in government. Since the new federal administration took office, they have been to a great extent, removed, but there are still some. The records show clearly that these people in important positions who have committed some breach of the Commandments are the best targets for the subversive influences today. These are the ones who fall victim to the blackmailers of the Soviet espionage service and thus, render harm to the nation. However, those are in the minority.

It is the vast and unfortunate lack of feeling towards the great Commandments today which has helped to some extent, fester moral decay in this great land. It is these people, in motion pictures, on television, in print performing their antics all over the nation, flouting the laws of God who are spotlighted into the public eye and the youth, the hope of this land formulates some of its thinking from this unfortunate miasma. Examples are set by those in the public eye. The divorce rate is made the example of many young people who go to the altar of marriage with the idea that "if it doesn't work, we can always get a divorce."

What a foolish supposition.

Can you divorce yourself from the law of God? Whether these people know it or not, they are, by their actions, helping the forces which are determined to take control of this nation and make of the American people immoral and degenerate slaves.

Americans, this must not happen. Consider the words of Lenin who said, "The materialist gives a more important place to materialism and nature while relegating God and all the philosophical rabble who believe in Him to the sewer and manure heap." He added, "We must make our school boys and girls not merely non-religious, but actively and passionately anti-religious." Do these "sophisticates" not help this aim of the Communist leaders? Instead of rushing to the newsstands to "buy a hot magazine" or to the bookstore to buy a "hot book," shun them as the poison and narcotic they are, and they will be forced out of print.

Shun the "sophisticates" who, whether they know it or not, are helping to ruin the moral fiber of this nation. Americans, remember the Ten great Commandments of God and you can do no wrong or fall into any danger if you abide by them. All that the forces of Marxism can heap on your head will be as chaff, blown away by the winds if you believe in and live by the laws of God.

Every "sophisticate" is a stroke for the materialists: every God-fearing American is a strike against them.

'New Men In The Party'

Stephen Mitchell, the Chairman of the Democrat National Committee came whistling through Louisiana on what was described as a "fence mending" tour. He also came to this state to solicit funds for his leftist associates up North who he hopes will be elected so that they can use their power to help throw more Southerners out of future National Democrat conventions and ruin some more Southern ideas on how the South is to be treated nationally.

Mr. Mitchell was aided by several "loyal" Democrat politicians who sounded off against the Louisiana governor. One pipsqueak state Senator hinted that the Governor has had "income tax troubles." Unless he can back these charges, the Governor would seem to have grounds for a libel suit. In any case, there has already been a check delivered to the Northern Socialists who include Franklin Roosevelt, Jr., Hubert Humphries, Herbert Lehman, Robert Wagner, Harry Truman and others of this order. The check came from a citizen of this community. Some of the money will go to those who have ill feelings toward the South and its people, perhaps as a section of the nation, the last bastion of states' rights and free enterprise in the nation.

Mr. Mitchell asserted that, "There are a lot of new people in our party. One of the benefits of defeat is that you get rid of a lot of people who are just along for the ride and their places are taken by people who are Democrats because of ideals and principles." The statement is entirely factual.

Regard some of the "new faces." They are Communist faces and if you don't believe so, consider the July meeting of the National Council of the American Communist party which adopted as its main domestic objective, the infiltration of the Democrat party.

As the most recent example put into practice, the Communists openly supported Robert Wagner and violently opposed the candidacy of Mayor Impellitteri and Mr. Reigelman, the GOP candidate. Not only that, the Communists are going far out of their way to support the leftists now in control of the Democrat party. They reminded Wagner, the Mayor elect in New York, of the "united front of labor, liberals, and Communists who battled alongside his father and Franklin D. Roosevelt against the tories and the economic royalists."

In the last election, his coterie rid themselves of three hundred thousand Louisiana voters who had had enough riding with leftists and subversives.

Dulles' Amazing Statement

The Vice President, Mr. Nixon is presently visiting the Asian theatre of the war against the Marxist imperalistic design. Last week, he visited the Nationalist bastion of Formosa and saw with his own eyes the effort being made by Chiang to fight the Communists on the mainland. He now knows that the Nationalists have more than 200 radio stations on the mainland and are in daily contact with more than a million and a half Nationalist guerillas.

He knows now if he didn't know before that Chiang Kai-Shek is the only man alive who can settle the Asian question. The Chinese Communists, the running dogs of the Soviet Communist government which, following the pattern laid out by the imperalistic Czars, are attempting to take over the world. Mr. Nixon knows now that given the material, not the men, Chiang could in all probability, settle the question in two or three years.

As he was praising the government of Chiang, a cabinet member of the United States government, a curious man who has changed since assuming his present office, made a statement which reporters on the scene described as making Mr. Nixon's face turn red, then blue and then, purple. John Foster Dulles, the American Secretary of State asserted that the United States may at some point in the future, recognize the Chinese Communists.

If ever a more unfortunate statement was made, this is it. To recognize this bandit nation in Asia would be sealing the fate of the United States in the Pacific and destroying the main line of Pacific American defense. To recognize this cruel agent of the Soviet Union which is responsible for the brutal murder of innocent American prisoners would forever ruin what little respect the Asian peoples have for the United States.

When will the United States government stop taking its foreign policies from the British and French foreign offices? That is an easy question to answer. Only when these Eastern Seaboard Republicans are removed from places of importance to be replaced by Americans. It makes no difference whether they are Democrats or Republicans as long as they are for this nation and will defend it over its enemies from abroad.

Mr. Dulles' record is amazing. Only this time last year, he was all for the passage of the Bricker amendment and the Chinese Nationalists who he thought were necessary. Now, the situation as far as the Secretary, is changed and it would appear that the Bricker amendment is "one which would curtail the executive department" and do other assorted harms to the nation. If ever there was a necessity for the Bricker amendment, that time is now with the Secretary of State thinking about recognizing the Chinese Communists. He, with this statement, leaves the door open to more troubles, hurts the Nationalist position in Asia and the world and as a result, hurts his own nation by these statements.

As of now, the Chinese government on Formosa is not being supplied to any extent, government propaganda to the contrary and the Nationalists have only defensive weapons. It is hoped that the Vice President will see fit to bring about a change of this unfortunate policy and that the Secretary of State will cease making these absurd statements which certainly do more harm than good.

Forgotten Men?

The news columns of the papers seem to have discontinued to some extent the stories concerning the anti-Communist prisoners who are undergoing a fearful ordeal at the hands of the Communist "explainers."

Do not forget them. They are a mark of everlasting shame and discredit to the United States which at the orders of the "United Nations," fearfully betrayed them. The "explainers" are constantly at work browbeating them and demanding that they return to the Communist "homeland."

It is well to remember that these troops are anti-Communist. The "United Nations army" put out the propaganda that if they surrendered, they would be given good treatment and would be kept out of the hands of the Communists. This has not been done and from the dispatches coming out of that area, one would almost believe that these men were criminals. The United States is receiving the blame in the eyes of all the Oriental peoples the world over for this matter. It is merely another example of the embarrassment caused this nation by its membership in the "U. N."

Do not forget these anti-Communists who wish to fight for you and your benefit.

A health authority urges people to remain calm. But this nation was started by people who refused to remain calm about taxes.

Public Forum—Voice Of All The People

Gov. Kennon Says Logic Of Editorial—Irrefutable

Baton Rouge, La.

Editor, Morning World:

I was interested in reading your Thursday morning editorial regarding the current effort by a minority of the Louisiana congressional delegation to arrogate to themselves the Democratic label and to pat themselves on the back as the true standard bearers of democracy.

The logic of your editorial is irrefutable. Prior to the Chicago Convention, the leadership of the Louisiana Democratic Party through the Democratic Central Committee, indicated its determination to follow true democratic principles at the Chicago Convention and in the subsequent November, 1952, election. At Chicago, the majority of the Louisiana delegation turned away from and assisted in the rebuff given to these bureaucratic proponents of false doctrines such as Senators Humphries and Lehmann of New York.

As a devotee of the Jeffersonian principles of government, I can never support a platform or candidate which would destroy states rights and bring about the adoption of national FEPC legislation and other legislation designed to destroy the freedom of the people and the sovereignty of our American states.

As you so well put in your editorial, the Louisiana Democrats stood on this ground successfully at Chicago. Subsequently, their stand was approved by the State Central Committee in official session and on November 4th over three hundred thousand Louisiana Democrats expressed their independence and devotion to what they believed to be to the best interest of their country by voting for General Eisenhower.

I congratulate you on your independence of thought and action as a citizen and editorial writer and wish for you many happy days ahead.

ROBERT F. KENNON.
Governor of Louisiana.

Notorious Dr. Goslin

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

For some time I have been wanting to tell you what a wonderful work you are doing through your clarion - call editorials. In this day of Leftist editors, it seems that you are one of the very few who know the score. What a complete metamorphosis you have wrought, as compared with the paper of two years ago which extolled the alleged integrity of local politicos — and little else! I, for one, am truly grateful.

I'm finally writing because I'm incensed at the announcement in the current issue of Louisiana Schools, the journal of the LEA, that the notorious Dr. Goslin, of the Pasadena story, will be our main speaker at the teachers' convention at Lafayette. — an incredible and shocking announcement.

I'm protesting to you rather than to Jackson, the state superintendent, because I feel that you will act (as in the British Guiana case; also Dr. MacKay's Presbyterian dictum) — and I'm quite certain that no one in the field of education will. We in that field are such suckers, nimcompoops, and weaklings — so busy imitating the latest in the new Socialist pedagogy —that we can't see the ulterior motive back of it all: namely, the ruination of our schools and thus the youth of the land. So busy at this, in fact, that most of us aren't even aware of the machinations of Goslin. Why, those in status positions in our field are trying hard to impose NEA membership on all of us, when the well-read lay public knows this organization is loaded to the hilt with Commies and is dedicated to subversive policies!

Other places have refused to have Goslin speak. Can't we prove that our sector is not so benighted as to fall for his line? If Houston can repudiate Dr. Eby, can't Louisiana give Goslin the gate (alliteration unplanned)? Could you send articles to papers all over the state, but pronto, and thus bring the situation down to the grass roots?

I'm not given to anonymous letters, but I do not want to be quoted. Please help. Good luck!

A Loyal American Teacher.

Dear Mr. Robinson:

The Prime Minister, Sir Winston Churchill, has asked me to write to you and thank you sincerely for your letters of the 15th September and the 8th October 1952, about the situation in British Guiana.

Her Majesty's government had been watching events in British Guiana very closely for some time, as you will gather from the terms of the statement that has been made, and you are no doubt aware of the firm action which has been taken to restore the situation there.

The Prime Minister thanks you for the interest that you have taken in this matter.

"Flying Tiger" Returns

Editor, Morning World:

Thought you might be interested in reading this bulletin issued by the China Travel Service.

Although we arrived too late for the Double Tenth (Oct. 10) celebration, Anna and I helped celebrate Fromosa Liberation Day (8th anniversary, Oct. 25), CAT 7th anniversary and Chiang Kai-shek's official birthday (67 years on Oct. 31.)

Have you read Joe Alsop's recent articles written after his visit to Formosa? The trip out here altered his views consideraby.

(GEN.) C. L. CHENNAULT.

(Editor's Note: The bulletin issued by the CTS read as follows: "Forty tons of Taiwan (Formosa) rice were airdropped on the mainland on the eve of the Double Tenth as gifts from Free China to the poor Chinese who are now on the verge of starvation, the Military Information Service disclosed.

"Other sources reported that 12 C-46 transports took off from northern Taiwan bases on the night of Oct. 9. The planes flew in pitch darkness over the provinces of Chekiang, Fukien, Anhwei, Hunan, Kwangtung and Kiangsi, and returned safely on the morning of Oct. 10. The daring feat was accomplished without a single loss or mishap to the aircraft involved.")

Fluoridation Opposition Stems From Biased Groups

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

With regards to a letter published in your forum last Sunday about Fluoridation, signed by Mrs. John Fox, I believe, I must take exception. It was said in this letter that fluoridation, in the professions, is a controversial issue. Practically all health groups in the nation have openly endorsed the measure and not a single one has opposed it. A reasonable approximation of the percentage of individual members of the professions favoring fluoridation would be 98 per cent. Of the remaining 2 per cent, half are not opposed but are "on the fence." At the last meeting of the Louisiana State Dental Society a resolution favoring fluoridation was passed without one dissenting vote. There is no controversy on the subject in the professions. Both the medical and dental professions endorse and urge it as a beneficial health measure.

According to information furnished by the American Dental Association opposition stems from biased groups outside the professions. In most areas, they have been ineffective, the findings of all organized health groups was ample justification to proceed with fluoridation. As a result many millions of Americans are now drinking fluoridated water.

Panther Patter

Harrisonburg, La.

Editor, Morning World:

I would like to inform those who have been plagued with panther panic in and around the LaFourche swamp and its water shed to lay down their arms, take up those steel jawed traps, remove those 00 (double naught) buck shot from their "long toms." Be not afraid, sleep well, for your sleep will not be disrupted by the scream and wailing of a panther. That is, not for a while anyway, for this often seen and elusive cat is now roaming in the "free state of Catahoula."

I am sure it is the same panther for the description of him by those who have seen him in this area compares favorably with the description of him by those who have seen him in the LaFourche area.

Judging from reports, so many of these black felines have been seen in so many places at the same time, northeast Louisiana must be thickly infested with them.

One of them exposed some 10 or 12 feet of his hide to a woman in this area and she seemed to think it was as "long and wide as a door, his tail was dragging the ground and his eyes looked like two fried eggs."

When all this panther patter was at its peak, a colored farmer in this vcinity heard a commotion in the direction of his cow lot. Knowing it was the panther, he poked his pot metal single barrel out the door and pulled the trigger, hoping the panther would get in the way of his load of shot. He then slammed the door, nailed it and all the windows in his house and crawled under his bed to wait for day-light.

Cemetery Culprits

West Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

As the father of a soldier buried at Hasley Cemetery in West Monroe ,and on behalf of others who have loved ones resting there, I want to protest the theft of various articles from the graves.

Some time ago a small vase was taken from my son's grave and later, two small flags. This past week when I visited the cemetery a large, expensive vase had been stolen. When I complained to the caretaker, he informed me that he was surprised it had remained there as long as it had; that people constantly reported thefts of vases and even lumber left there to build forms for concrete bases had been taken. He stated he had no authority to search all parties leaving the cemetery and was helpless to do anything.

Surely some measure can be taken to catch these culprits. How can we hold ourselves up as an example for all the world to follow when, in our own community, there are those who stoop so low as to desecrate the resting place of our dead.

ARCHIE L. BANKS.

Follow The "Golden Rule"

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

I want to take this means of thanking your paper for the fine cooperation that was given to the Safety Committee of the North Monroe Lions Club during our recent Courtesy and Safety Campaign conducted over KFAZ-TV.

We know by the police records that our program did definite good in this area. Furthermore, we feel that there is an urgent need for programs of this type of Public Education and we are making a definite appeal to the people to try to practice the "Golden Rule" in driving, which will insure Safety for all of us.

We of the North Monroe Lions Club plan to have other programs that will help cut down the high number of accidents, injuries, and deaths in our community.

We feel that the various other organizations of our city will do the same. Otherwise, we are fast becoming a city and a nation of killers.

VERNON B. GREENLEE.
Chairman, Safety Committee, of the North Monroe Lions Club.

Elections Decided On Issues, Not Parties

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

Many thanks for the fine editorial in the November 7th edition of the World. The editor has presented a clear picture of the voter's position with respect to elective offices at every level. The people wanted a change last November and now they are insisting upon the change being made by citizens they elected to effect this change.

I am sure that all your readers were pleased to note that your editorial pointed out the continuation of policy by the American voters. The voters insist upon elections being decided upon issues and not upon the respective strength of the major parties.

It is useless for politicians to try to evaluate the strength of their parties upon the success of any candidate bearing a party label. The wise political bosses will do well to study the issues discussed by the opposing candidates and the platforms offered by the winning candidates. As the editor pointed out, the candidates in recent elections tried to get in on the popularity of President Eisenhower. They failed to note that popularity was not the deciding factor in electing the President.

To the best of my knowledge, our local editor was the first to correctly present the present stability of the mandate issued by the American voters in the last presidential election. The American voter has at last realized that the only weapon effective against centralization of government, special interests, infiltration by the communists and one-party control of our government is a well considered vote cast for the best qualified candidate. All a qualified candidate needs to be is an American who loves his country, understands its needs and understands his full responsibility to the voters whose confidence places him in public office. No one political party has a monopoly on such candidates.

Teachers Retirement

Newellton, La.

Dear Legislators:

We, the undersigned, are one hundred per cent opposed to changes which would in anyway detract or affect the retirement and compensation laws provided by the state for the personnel of the schools of Louisiana.

The present laws and salaries have not only raised the standards of the present teaching force, but they have done much to attract some of the finest of our young people to prepare themselves to become the teachers of tomorrow. A cut in the retirement would dissipate an assurance of security in later years after a life of service. Desirable new recruits would seek more profitable financial fields and teachers who are presently employed would justifiably do likewise.

We feel confident that you will in the future, as you have in the past, support all legislation that is beneficial to well - rounded schools of democracy (including teacher's living salaries now and after retirement) and that you will strive to help us, your school employees, maintain the enviable position in the United States that Louisiana now enjoys.

"Teaching at long last has become a profession in Louisiana. Let us keep it a profession worth of being so called.

MRS. J. T. COOK,
President of Tensas Unit of L. E. A.
Faculty of Newellton High School.

"Southern Belles"

Kadena A. F. B.
Okinawa,

Editor, Morning World:

Enclosed you will find an article published in the September, 1953 issue of Real Magazine. Upon reading it I became very irritated and do not think such a lie should be published.

I was born and reared in West Monroe, Louisiana and lived there until 1950 when I joined the U. S. A. F. and I considered myself a so-called true Southerner. I do not think the South should be scandalized in such a manner. Perhaps this so-called Sherman Ballard is just trying to get a little publicity, and I will give him credit for that, but more than likely he has written this article on heasay only and probably has never been in the real South to see for himself.

Here on Okinawa I live in a barracks which is full of Southerners and I do not find any extremely different than the average Yankee. Maybe Mr. Ballard is trying to start another Civil War, but I grant you if I met him face to face he would not have to go to the dentist to have his teeth removed. I think something should be done about this article.

S/Sgt. WILLIAM H. WHARTON.

(Editor's Note: The article was entitled "It's The Bunk About Southern Belles.")

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

We Want Democracy

I believe it matters not what kind of an organization or its name. We should teach Democracy. Democrats and Republicans likewise should teach Democracy. We should read the Constitution of the U. S. A., the Declaration of Independence. Just saying you are a Democrat or a Republican does not always mean that you know what Democracy means. Often we are mislead and vote for something that is un-Democratic, but it's advocates will tell you it is. We all want good government and if you are not posted as to what Democracy is, how can you cast an intelligent vote?

We all know what the Democrats will and did do for they were in office nearly twenty years and we have no reason to believe they will do better if they should get back in power again. We also know what the Republicans have done and intend to do in the future. I am led to believe that neither one of the old major parties are as much interested in giving us a Democratic government as they are of staying in office.

We are still giving our money away to nations across the oceans. I read in the apers where we are giving Spain one hundred million dollars, for a few bases we say. I read again where we are giving France two hundred eighty-five million. Most of this give away will be used for military purposes. We are giving away millions more in different countries, for different purposes so we say, but for the most part it will be used for military purposes. Furnishing ammunition, guns, tanks, to kill somebody with, but yet we cry we want peace. We want Democracy. This does not look like we want Democracy. This big idea of making them bow and scrape to our music won't always work.

In closing I would like to say that, as well you must know from past elections, people just won't vote, even if they are registered voters. In some places in recent elections, they are only about 50 per cent of the votes pulled. People, I think have lost all interest in elections; and this is not as it should be and to keep our country a Free Democratic and prosperous country, the duty of the young people is to see that the people vote in all elections. This is a fine job for you to do.

God Speaks To You

GOD speaks to you in His own way . . . Or have you never heard . . . His kind, consoling message and . . . The wisdom of His word? . . . He speaks of love and brotherhood . . . And courage in your strife . . . Of faith and deep humility . . . And virtue in this life . . . His voice is not the common kind . . . The sound from lips that part . . . It is a sweet and gentle tongue . . . That whispers to your heart . . . It does not scold or criticize . . . Or make the least demand . . . It only wants to let you know . . . That God will understand . . . God speaks to you each day and night . . . His voice is soft but clear . . . And you will hear His word unless . . . You do not want to hear.

The Sophisticates

There is a segment of American society in each and every community which considers itself to be the "sophisticated set." These people have apparently no jobs, much money and are generally the best excuse the Marxists can offer for their own doctrine. Sometimes, they have positions which afford them much leisure time which is spent in a wasteful manner. Unfortunately, sometimes these people are the "pillars of society" in many communities.

Fortunately, in the Southland, these people are in the minority, the minute minority, especially in the smaller communities. It is this group which considers itself intellectually superior to nearly everyone and, which as a group, is the most responsible for breaking the laws of God and then flouting them, broken to pieces in the faces of people who still are God-fearing and despise this action. The national headquarters for the "class" or group is New York City's Greenwich Village, a regular American cesspool of degredation and immorality. West Coast headquarters is Hollywood and there are a few spots in between, one of them being Chicago.

Whether you know it or not, there are Americans today who flaunt the great Commandments of God, not only do they flaunt them, but they have no use for them and curse and degrade those who do. These are the Americans who appreciate neither God nor country and live in their own materialistic world sometimes even courting the thoughts of the cruel materialistic dialectics of men who believed along these lines. These are the Americans who neither are patriots, semi-patriots nor do they have any feelings along those lines.

Unfortunately, there were many of this type people in government service during a period which demanded the most alert patriots and God-fearing people. There are still some of these materialists in the federal government and it is time to remove them, by force if necessary. It is these "sophisticates" who in the main, control the theatre world and the motion picture industry as far as the participants are concerned. Their sordiness is spread much as black lava across the nation each week by the gossip columnists wherever they may be. Their one ambition in life seems to be to see how many husbands or wives they can capture during their span on this earth. They have no aims in life, only drifting about like clouds of smoke.

It is these people who are shown on the covers of many magazines which attempt to see how base and degrading they can appear before the government removes them from the mails and then, that move makes them more popular than ever, so constructed is the mind of many Americans these days.

You say, "why worry, it's their business?" That is not true as these people in many cases are the ones in dominating positions not only in the public eye, but in controlling positions in government. Since the new federal administration took office, they have been to a great extent, removed, but there are still some. The records show clearly that these people in important positions who have committed some breach of the Commandments are the best targets for the subversive influences today. These are the ones who fall victim to the blackmailers of the Soviet espionage service and thus, render harm to the nation. However, those are in the minority.

It is the vast and unfortunate lack of feeling towards the great Commandments today which has helped to some extent, fester moral decay in this great land. It is these people, in motion pictures, on television, in print performing their antics all over the nation, flouting the laws of God who are spotlighted into the public eye and the youth, the hope of this land formulates some of its thinking from this unfortunate miasma. Examples are set by those in the public eye. The divorce rate is made the example of many young people who go to the altar of marriage with the idea that "if it doesn't work, we can always get a divorce."

What a foolish supposition.

Can you divorce yourself from the law of God? Whether these people know it or not, they are, by their actions, helping the forces which are determined to take control of this nation and make of the American people immoral and degenerate slaves.

Americans, this must not happen. Consider the words of Lenin who said, "The materialist gives a more important place to materialism and nature while relegating God and all the philosophical rabble who believe in Him to the sewer and manure heap." He added, "We must make our school boys and girls not merely non-religious, but actively and passionately anti-religious." Do these "sophisticates" not help this aim of the Communist leaders? Instead of rushing to the newsstands to "buy a hot magazine" or to the bookstore to buy a "hot book," shun them as the poison and narcotic they are, and they will be forced out of print.

Shun the "sophisticates" who, whether they know it or not, are helping to ruin the moral fiber of this nation. Americans, remember the Ten great Commandments of God and you can do no wrong or fall into any danger if you abide by them. All that the forces of Marxism can heap on your head will be as chaff, blown away by the winds if you believe in and live by the laws of God.

Every "sophisticate" is a stroke for the materialists: every God-fearing American is a strike against them.

'New Men In The Party'

Stephen Mitchell, the Chairman of the Democrat National Committee came whistling through Louisiana on what was described as a "fence mending" tour. He also came to this state to solicit funds for his leftist associates up North who he hopes will be elected so that they can use their power to help throw more Southerners out of future National Democrat conventions and ruin some more Southern ideas on how the South is to be treated nationally.

Mr. Mitchell was aided by several "loyal" Democrat politicians who sounded off against the Louisiana governor. One pipsqueak state Senator hinted that the Governor has had "income tax troubles." Unless he can back these charges, the Governor would seem to have grounds for a libel suit. In any case, there has already been a check delivered to the Northern Socialists who include Franklin Roosevelt, Jr., Hubert Humphries, Herbert Lehman, Robert Wagner, Harry Truman and others of this order. The check came from a citizen of this community. Some of the money will go to those who have ill feelings toward the South and its people, perhaps as a section of the nation, the last bastion of states' rights and free enterprise in the nation.

Mr. Mitchell asserted that, "There are a lot of new people in our party. One of the benefits of defeat is that you get rid of a lot of people who are just along for the ride and their places are taken by people who are Democrats because of ideals and principles." The statement is entirely factual.

Regard some of the "new faces." They are Communist faces and if you don't believe so, consider the July meeting of the National Council of the American Communist party which adopted as its main domestic objective, the infiltration of the Democrat party.

As the most recent example put into practice, the Communists openly supported Robert Wagner and violently opposed the candidacy of Mayor Impellitteri and Mr. Reigelman, the GOP candidate. Not only that, the Communists are going far out of their way to support the leftists now in control of the Democrat party. They reminded Wagner, the Mayor elect in New York, of the "united front of labor, liberals, and Communists who battled alongside his father and Franklin D. Roosevelt against the tories and the economic royalists."

In the last election, his coterie rid themselves of three hundred thousand Louisiana voters who had had enough riding with leftists and subversives.

Dulles' Amazing Statement

The Vice President, Mr. Nixon is presently visiting the Asian theatre of the war against the Marxist imperialistic design. Last week, he visited the Nationalist bastion of Formosa and saw with his own eyes the effort being made by Chiang to fight the Communists on the mainland. He now knows that the Nationalists have more than 200 radio stations on the mainland and are in daily contact with more than a million and a half Nationalist guerillas.

He knows now if he didn't know before that Chiang Kai-Shek is the only man alive who can settle the Asian question. The Chinese Communists, the running dogs of the Soviet Communist government which, following the pattern laid out by the imperalistic Czars, are attempting to take over the world. Mr. Nixon knows now that given the material, not the men, Chiang could in all probability, settle the question in two or three years.

As he was praising the government of Chiang, a cabinet member of the United States government, a curious man who has changed since assuming his present office, made a statement which reporters on the scene described as making Mr. Nixon's face turn red, then blue and then, purple. John Foster Dulles, the American Secretary of State asserted that the United States may at some point in the future, recognize the Chinese Communists.

If ever a more unfortunate statement was made, this is it. To recognize this bandit nation in Asia would be sealing the fate of the United States in the Pacific and destroying the main line of Pacific American defense. To recognize this cruel agent of the Soviet Union which is responsible for the brutal murder of innocent American prisoners would forever ruin what little respect the Asian peoples have for the United States.

When will the United States government stop taking its foreign policies from the British and French foreign offices? That is an easy question to answer. Only when these Eastern Seaboard Republicans are removed from places of importance to be replaced by Americans. It makes no difference whether they are Democrats or Republicans as long as they are for this nation and will defend it over its enemies from abroad.

Mr. Dulles' record is amazing. Only this time last year, he was all for the passage of the Bricker amendment and the Chinese Nationalists who he thought were necessary. Now, the situation as far as the Secretary, is changed and it would appear that the Bricker amendment is "one which would curtail the executive department" and do other assorted harms to the nation. If ever there was a necessity for the Bricker amendment, that time is now with the Secretary of State thinking about recognizing the Chinese Communists. He, with this statement, leaves the door open to more troubles, hurts the Nationalist position in Asia and the world and as a result, hurts his own nation by these statements.

As of now, the Chinese government on Formosa is not being supplied to any extent, government propaganda to the contrary and the Nationalists have only defensive weapons. It is hoped that the Vice President will see fit to bring about a change of this unfortunate policy and that the Secretary of State will cease making these absurd statements which certainly do more harm than good.

Forgotten Men?

The news columns of the papers seem to have discontinued to some extent the stories concerning the anti-Communist prisoners who are undergoing a fearful ordeal at the hands of the Communist "explainers."

Do not forget them. They are a mark of everlasting shame and discredit to the United States which at the orders of the "United Nations," fearfully betrayed them. The "explainers" are constantly at work browbeating them and demanding that they return to the Communist "homeland."

It is well to remember that these troops are anti-Communist. The "United Nations army" put out the propaganda that if they surrendered, they would be given good treatment and would be kept out of the hands of the Communists. This has not been done and from the dispatches coming out of that area, one would almost believe that these men were criminals. The United States is receiving the blame in the eyes of all the Oriental peoples the world over for this matter. It is merely another example of the embarrassment caused this nation by its membership in the "U. N."

Do not forget these anti-Communists who wish to fight for you and your benefit.

A health authority urges people to remain calm. But this nation was started by people who refused to remain calm about taxes.

Public Forum — Voice Of All The People

Gov. Kennon Says Logic Of Editorial—Irrefutable

Baton Rouge, La.

Editor, Morning World:

I was interested in reading your Thursday morning editorial regarding the current effort by a minority of the Louisiana congressional delegation to arrogate to themselves the Democratic label and to pat themselves on the back as the true standard bearers of democracy.

The logic of your editorial is irrefutable. Prior to the Chicago Convention, the leadership of the Louisiana Democratic Party through the Democratic Central Committee, indicated its determination to follow true democratic principles at the Chicago Convention and in the subsequent November, 1952, election. At Chicago, the majority of the Louisiana delegation turned away from and assisted in the rebuff given to these bureaucratic proponents of false doctrines such as Senators Humphries and Lehmann of New York.

As a devotee of the Jeffersonian principles of government, I can never support a platform or candidate which would destroy states rights and bring about the adoption of national FEPC legislation and other legislation designed to destroy the freedom of the people and the sovereignty of our American states.

As you so well put in your editorial, the Louisiana Democrats stood on this ground successfully at Chicago. Subsequently, their stand was approved by the State Central Committee in official session and on November 4th over three hundred thousand Louisiana Democrats expressed their independence and devotion to what they believed to be to the best interest of their country by voting for General Eisenhower.

I congratulate you on your independence of thought and action as a citizen and editorial writer and wish for you many happy days ahead.

ROBERT F. KENNON.
Governor of Louisiana.

Notorious Dr. Goslin

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

For some time I have been wanting to tell you what a wonderful work you are doing through your clarion - call editorials. In this day of Leftist editors, it seems that you are one of the very few who know the score. What a complete metamorphosis you have wrought, as compared with the paper of two years ago which extolled the alleged integrity of local politicos — and little else! I, for one, am truly grateful.

I'm finally writing because I'm incensed at the announcement in the current issue of Louisiana Schools, the journal of the LEA, that the notorious Dr. Goslin, of the Pasadena story, will be our main speaker at the teachers' convention at Lafayette. — an incredible and shocking announcement.

I'm protesting to you rather than to Jackson, the state superintendent, because I feel that you will act (as in the British Guiana case; also Dr. MacKay's Presbyterian dictum) — and I'm quite certain that no one in the field of education will. We in that field are such suckers, nimcompoops, and weaklings — so busy imitating the latest in the new Socialist pedagogy —that we can't see the ulterior motive back of it all: namely, the ruination of our schools and thus the youth of the land. So busy at this, in fact, that most of us aren't even aware of the machinations of Goslin. Why, those in status positions in our field are trying hard to impose NEA membership on all of us, when the well-read lay public knows this organization is loaded to the hilt with Commies and is dedicated to subversive policies!

Other places have refused to have Goslin speak. Can't we prove that our sector is not so benighted as to fall for his line? If Houston can repudiate Dr. Eby, can't Louisiana give Goslin the gate (alliteration unplanned)? Could you send articles to papers all over the state, but pronto, and thus bring the situation down to the grass roots?

I'm not given to anonymous letters, but I do not want to be quoted. Please help. Good luck!

A Loyal American Teacher.

4-H'ers Plan For Future

Wyatt, La.

Editor, Morning World:

We are 4-H Club members who had market hogs at the State Fair. You were the buyer of our hogs. We sure do thank you for buying our hogs. We will put the money away from our 4-H work in the bank so we can go to college later.

Churchill Writes Monroyan

British Embassy,
Washington.

Dear Mr. Robinson:

The Prime Minister, Sir Winston Churchill, has asked me to write to you and thank you sincerely for your letters of the 15th September and the 8th October 1953, about the situation in British Guiana.

Her Majesty's government had been watching events in British Guiana very closely for some time, as you will gather from the terms of the statement that has been made, and you are no doubt aware of the firm action which has been taken to restore the situation there.

The Prime Minister thanks you for the interest that you have taken in this matter.

A. CAMPBELL,
Colonial Attache.

Taipei, Formosa.

Editor, Morning World:

Thought you might be interested in reading this bulletin issued by the China Travel Service.

Although we arrived too late for the Double Tenth (Oct. 10) celebration, Anna and I helped celebrate Fromosa Liberation Day (8th anniversary, Oct. 25), CAT 7th anniversary and Chiang Kai-shek's official birthday (67 years on Oct. 31.)

Have you read Joe Alsop's recent articles written after his visit to Formosa? The trip out here altered his views consideraby.

(GEN.) C. L. CHENNAULT.

(Editor's Note: The bulletin issued by the CTS read as follows: "Forty tons of Taiwan (Formosa) rice were airdropped on the mainland on the eve of the Double Tenth as gifts from Free China to the poor Chinese who are now on the verge of starvation, the Military Information Service disclosed.

"Other sources reported that 12 C-46 transports took off from northern Taiwan bases on the night of Oct. 9. The planes flew in pitch darkness over the provinces of Chekiang, Fukien, Anhwei, Hunan, Kwangtung and Kiangsi, and returned safely on the morning of Oct. 10. The daring feat was accomplished without a single loss or mishap to the aircraft involved.")

Fluoridation Opposition Stems From Biased Groups

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

With regards to a letter published in your forum last Sunday about Fluoridation, signed by Mrs. John Fox, I believe, I must take exception. It was said in this letter that fluoridation, in the professions, is a controversial issue. Practically all health groups in the nation have openly endorsed the measure and not a single one has opposed it. A reasonable approximation of the percentage of individual members of the professions favoring fluoridation would be 98 per cent. Of the remaining 2 per cent, half are not opposed but are "on the fence." At the last meeting of the Louisiana State Dental Society a resolution favoring fluoridation was passed without one dissenting vote. There is no controversy on the subject in the professions. Both the medical and dental professions endorse and urge it as a beneficial health measure.

According to information furnished by the American Dental Association opposition stems from biased groups outside the professions. In most areas, they have been ineffective, the findings of all organized health groups was ample justification to proceed with fluoridation. As a result many millions of Americans are now drinking fluoridated water.

Panther Patter

Harrisonburg, La.

Editor, Morning World:

I would like to inform those who have been plagued with panther panic in and around the LaFourche swamp and its water shed to lay down their arms, take up those steel jawed traps, remove those oo (double naught) buck shot from their "long toms." Be not afraid, sleep well, for your sleep will not be disrupted by the scream and wailing of a panther. That is, not for a while anyway, for this often seen and elusive cat is now roaming in the "free state of Catahoula."

I am sure it is the same panther for the descripton of him by those who have seen him in this area compares favorably with the description of him by those who have seen him in the LaFourche area.

Judging from reports, so many of these black felines have been seen in so many places at the same time, northeast Louisiana must be thickly infested with them.

One of them exposed some 10 or 12 feet of his hide to a woman in this area and she seemed to think it was as "long and wide as a door, his tail was dragging the ground and his eyes looked like two fried eggs."

When all this panther patter was at its peak, a colored farmer in this vcinity heard a commotion in the direction of his cow lot. Knowing it was the panther, he poked his pot metal single barrel out the door and pulled the trigger, hoping the panther would get in the way of his load of shot. He then slammed the door, nailed it and all the windows in his house and crawled under his bed to wait for day-light.

Cemetery Culprits

West Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

As the father of a soldier buried at Hasley Cemetery in West Monroe ,and on behalf of others who have loved ones resting there, I want to protest the theft of various articles from the graves.

Some time ago a small vase was taken from my son's grave and later, two small flags. This past week when I visited the cemetery a large, expensive vase had been stolen. When I complained to the caretaker, he informed me that he was surprised it had remained there as long as it had; that people constantly reported thefts of vases and even lumber left there to build forms for concrete bases had been taken. He stated he had no authority to search all parties leaving the cemetery and was helpless to do anything.

Surely some measure can be taken to catch these culprits. How can we hold ourselves up as an example for all the world to follow when, in our own community, there are those who stoop so low as to desecrate the resting place of our dead.

ARCHIE L. BANKS.

Follow The "Golden Rule"

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

I want to take this means of thanking your paper for the fine cooperation that was given to the Safety Committee of the North Monroe Lions Club during our recent Courtesy and Safety Campaign conducted over KFAZ-TV.

We know by the police records that our program did definite good in this area. Furthermore, we feel that there is an urgent need for programs of this type of Public Education and we are making a definite appeal to the people to try to practice the "Golden Rule" in driving, which will insure Safety for all of us.

We of the North Monroe Lions Club plan to have other programs that will help cut down the high number of accidents, injuries, and deaths in our community.

We feel that the various other organizations of our city will do the same. Otherwise, we are fast becoming a city and a nation of killers!

VERNON B. GREENLEE.
Chairman, Safety Committee, of the North Monroe Lions Club.

Elections Decided On Issues, Not Parties

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

Many thanks for the fine editorial in the November 7th edition of the World. The editor has presented a clear picture of the voter's position with respect to elective offices at every level. The people wanted a change last November and now they are insisting upon the change being made by citizens they elected to effect this change.

I am sure that all your readers were pleased to note that your editorial pointed out the continuation of policy by the American voters. The voters insist upon elections being decided upon issues and not upon the respective strength of the major parties.

It is useless for politicians to try to evaluate the strength of their parties upon the success of any candidate bearing a party label. The wise political bosses will do well to study the issues discussed by the opposing candidates and the platforms offered by the winning candidates. As the editor pointed out, the candidates in recent elections tried to get in on the popularity of President Eisenhower. They failed to note that popularity was not the deciding factor in electing the President.

To the best of my knowledge, our local editor was the first to correctly present the present stability of the mandate issued by the American voters in the last presidential election. The American voter has at last realized that the only weapon effective against centralization of government, special interests, infiltration by the communists and one-party control of our government is a well considered vote cast for the best qualified candidate. All a qualified candidate needs to be is an American who loves his country, understands its needs and understands his full responsibility to the voters whose confidence places him in public office. No one political party has a monopoly on such candidates.

Teachers Retirement

Newellton, La.

Dear Legislators:

We, the undersigned, are one hundred per cent opposed to changes which would in anyway detract or affect the retirement and compensation laws provided by the state for the personnel of the schools of Louisiana.

The present laws and salaries have not only raised the standards of the present teaching force, but they have done much to attract some of the finest of our young people to prepare themselves to become the teachers of tomorrow. A cut in the retirement would dissipate an assurance of security in later years after a life of service. Desirable new recruits would seek more profitable financial fields and teachers who are presently employed would justifiably do likewise.

We feel confident that you will in the future, as you have in the past, support all legislation that is beneficial to well - rounded schools of democracy (including teacher's living salaries now and after retirement) and that you will strive to help us, your school employees, maintain the enviable position in the United States that Louisiana now enjoys.

"Teaching at long last has become a profession in Louisiana." Let us keep it a profession worthy of being so called.

MRS. J. T. COOK,
President of Tensas Unit of L. E. A.
Faculty of Newellton High School.

"Southern Belles"

Kadena A. F. B.
Okinawa,

Editor, Morning World:

Enclosed you will find an article published in the September, 1953 issue of Real Magazine. Upon reading it I became very irritated and do not think such a lie should be published.

I was born and reared in West Monroe, Louisiana and lived there until 1950 when I joined the U. S. A. F. and I considered myself a so-called true Southerner. I do not think the South should be scandalized in such a manner. Perhaps this so-called Sherman Ballard is just trying to get a little publicity, and I will give him credit for that, but more than likely he has written this article on heasay only and probably has never been in the real South to see for himself.

Here on Okinawa I live in a barracks which is full of Southerners and I do not find any extremely different than the average Yankee. Maybe Mr. Ballard is trying to start another Civil War, but I grant you if I met him face to face he would not have to go to the dentist to have his teeth removed. I think something should be done about this article.

S/Sgt. WILLIAM H. WHARTON.

(Editor's Note: The article was entitled "It's The Bunk About Southern Belles.")

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

We Want Democracy

I believe it matters not what kind of an organization or its name. We should teach Democracy. Democrats and Republicans likewise should teach Democracy. We should read the Constitution of the U. S. A., the Declaration of Independence. Just saying you are a Democrat or a Republican does not always mean that you know what Democracy means. Often we are mislead and vote for something that is un-Democratic, but it's advocates will tell you it is. We all want good government and if you are not posted as to what Democracy is, how can you cast an intelligent vote?

We all know what the Democrats will and did do for they were in office nearly twenty years and we have no reason to believe they will do better if they should get back in power again. We also know what the Republicans have done and intend to do in the future. I am led to believe that neither one of the old major parties are as much interested in giving us a Democratic government as they are of staying in office.

We are still giving our money away to nations across the oceans. I read in the apers where we are giving Spain one hundred million dollars, for a few bases we say. I read again where we are giving France two hundred eighty-five million. Most of this give away will be used for military purposes. We are giving away millions more in different countries, for different purposes so we say, but for the most part it will be used for military purposes. Furnishing ammunition, guns, tanks, to kill somebody with, but yet we cry we want peace. We want Democracy. This does not look like we want Democracy. This big idea of making them bow and scrape to our music won't always work.

In closing I would like to say that, as well you must know from past elections, people just won't vote, even if they are registered voters. In some places in recent elections, they are only about 50 per cent of the votes pulled. People, I think have lost all interest in elections; and this is not as it should be and to keep our country a Free Democratic and prosperous country, the duty of the young people is to see that the people vote in all elections. This is a fine job for you to do.

REUNITED—Dorothea Del Longo, 13, is reunited with her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. James Botticelli, in a New York police station after Friday the Thirteenth proved a day of horror for her. A "scar-faced" man gained entry to the Botticelli home early in the morning while proclaiming himself "the law." He took the pajama-clad girl from her home to a mid-town hotel and raped her. Afterward, he left her shivering on a sidewalk. Authorities are searching for a man they said Dorothea identified from police photographs.

put most of Europe under his heel."

But victory eventually was won, the President added, noting that despair can change to exultation. Then, in an obvious allusion to Russia, he declared:

"Now, today, as we fail to understand the intransigeance that we feel marks others, as we try to color every proposal we make with what we believe to be reason, understanding—even sympathy, as offers are never taken up, let us never despair that faith will win through."

Eisenhower got a round of applause when he entered the oak-paneled green-carpeted chamber, and standing ovations at the start and finish of his speech. During the speech he was interrupted by applause and desk-thumping 16 times.

At the outset, the President made a few remarks in hesitant French saluting the French-speaking members of Parliament. That brought a round of delighted desk-banging.

The President was introduced by Prime Minister St. Laurent, who said he wanted Eisenhower to know "we are grateful for the leadership your nation is providing in the common effort of free men and women to make our world a safer and better place for future generations."

In addition to continental defense and Russia's ability to launch an atomic attack on North America, the President spoke of a need for expanion of international trade and for construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

He got his most prolonged burst of applause when he said:

"The free world must come to recognize that trade barriers, although intended to protect a country's economy, in fact shackle its prosperity. In the United States, there is a growing recognition that free nations cannot expand their productivity and economy without a high level of international trade."

Canada has been hoping for liberalization of U. S. trade policies.

it. Hodges said Girard told him after the last committee meeting that insurance companies were putting up some money.

Girard denied this, and said Hodges was the first to mention "insurance" when they discussed the subject before.

The senator, who "fathered" the study committees in the last session, said "I put up $50 of my own money" and added there were civic groups about the state who strongly favored the bill.

Three representatives of many women's state organizations, including the Parent-Teacher Association, attended the meeting to plead for the bill.

Rep. George Endeville of New Orleans opposed Hodges' stand that the small cattlemen must be protected. "Cars have a right to be protected, too. The highways were built for cars, not cows," he said.

There were obvious hard problems ahead.

The first will come Monday when the diplomats attempt to work out subcommittees for discussing simultaneously the composition, place and time of the peace conference. The agenda agreement notes that simultaneous consideration of these three issues is subject to limitations of translators and personnel.

The Reds have insisted all along that Asiatic neutrals be invited to the peace conference. The Allies want to confine it to belligerents only, but are agreeable to accepting Russia on the Communist side.

In order on the Panmunjom agenda after the questions of composition, place and time, are procedural matters, administrative arrangements and expenditures.

Vice President Nixon, in Korea on a Far East goodwill mission, hailed the agenda agreement but sounded a warning.

Nixon said he was encouraged over the chances for "attaining the end we want—a free and independent Korea."

But if the conference fails, Nixon said, "it will be only because the Communists do not want peace in Korea or anywhere else." He warned that renewed war in Korea would mean "It's going to break out everywhere."

"I think Dean is handling the (preliminary) negotiations splendidly," Nixon said. "He understands the Communists and he isn't being fooled by them. If a political conference can succeed, Dean is the man to make it succeed. I think he is the ideal man to conduct these negotiations."

South Korean leaders also praised Dean.

President Syngman Rhee, whose threats of renewing the war hang like a sword over peace attempts said "Dean is the first man to be firm with the Communists" among the Americans who have negotiated with them.

Foreign Minister Pyun Yung Tai predicted that the Reds would agree eventually to a time and place for the peace meeting because "they do not want to take the responsibility if a Korean political conference is not held."

He insisted also that the Reds would give in on the issue of inviting Asiatic neutrals.

"I do not think they can exact any commitment from the U. S. delegate about anything else (other than time and place) because it is beyond his authorization."

Pyun, speaking to correspondents, did not say on what he based his prediction.

Meanwhile, the Communist program of interviewing prisoners of war seeking to woo them back was stalled for the 10th straight day. The Reds stood firm on their demand to talk with 150 Chinese POWs of one compound whom they didn't have time for when the compound was called in for explanations.

Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya of India, chairman of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission, had refused to use force.

"The only solution seems to be a change of mind by the Northern (Communist) Command," Daeniker said. "If that is not forthcoming the work may have to go on by other means."

Thimayya has indicated the Indians may take over interviews if the Reds continue their stalling. The explanations period ends Dec. 23. Less than 10 per cent of the 22,400 Chinese and North Korean POWs have been interviewed, and only 3 per cent of those interviewed have agreed to go home.

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 14—UP—A young marine veteran of three years in Communist prison camps, stood helplessly by on his shell-shattered legs in a railroad station washroom Friday night and watched two young hoodlums steal his suitcase.

The suitcase contained $30 in cash, clothing and leave papers of Corp. James T. Easterling, 23, Kenosha, Wis. Easterling was wounded by shell fragments in 1950 in Korea. He had been to his Kenosha home on a leave, and was on his way back to Balboa, Calif., Naval Hospital.

Judge Matthews Returns On Visit To Farmerville

Of the 18 lawyers, who composed the Farmerville Bar Association from 1905 to 1912, three are still living. They are H. G. Fields, still a Farmerville attorney; Judge Clifton Matthews, of the U. S. Ninth District Court of Appeals in San Francisco (the Ninth district includes several western states, Guam, Alaska and Hawaii) and Judge Minor of the State Appelate Court in California.

This week Judge Matthews returned to Farmerville for a visit with friends and relatives. He will remain in that Union Parish city until Monday, when he visits relatives in Winnfield and Baton Rouge.

Judge Matthews gained considerable nation - wide attention when he gave a dissenting opinion in the case of the U. S. government vs. Harry Bridges, head of the International Longshoremen's Union. It was Judge Matthew's opinion that Bridges questioned on Communist charges should not be released on bond following his conviction on a perjury charge.

In 1912 Judge Matthews moved from Louisiana to New Mexico. He was appointed U. S. attorney in Arizona in 1933, and has been with the appelate court for the past 18 years.

Judge Matthews married Miss Virginia Preau.

separate interview that if Truman "gives as his version of the case that White was used as a decoy, then Hoover should be called."

Rep. Walter of Pennsylvania, top Democrat on the House un-American Activities Committee, previously had demanded that the FBI chief be called to tell all he knows about the White case.

Such an appearance by Hoover would be extraordinary since the FBI director rarely has testified in public sessions of Congressional committees. In one appearance, in 1947, Hoover testified that the Communist party in this country was far better organized at that time than were Nazi fifth columns in Europe prior to World War II.

Walter said he had been told reliably that Truman; Hoover; Fred Vinson, then secretary of the treasury; and Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark, then attorney general, had decided in 1946 to promote White "and then keep him under surveillance."

Chairman Jenner (R-Ind) of the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, challenged this but said he would ask Brownell about it when he appears before the group Tuesday.

Truman's announcement to newsmen came shortly before he and his wife boarded a train for their home state of Missouri.

It topped off a five-day visit highlighted from beginning to end by a raging political uproar over a charge by Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. that Truman promoted White in the government though he knew the FBI had labelled White as a Russian spy.

Truman came to New York for a couple of routine speeches and a conference with publishers of his forthcoming memoirs but, because of the controversy, found himself the center of as much attention as when he was President.

Under a steady drumfire of questions, he amiably gave largely non-committal replies.

The radio-TV address will mark his first comprehensive review of the case publicly.

NBC and CBS said they intended to carry the Truman speech on both radio and TV.

Legion Winds Up Traffic Safety Survey In City

The safety committee of L. B. Faulk Post No. 13, American Legion, concluded its traffic safety survey this week, and has submitted a summary of recommendations to the Monroe Commission-Council.

The recommendations, taken from suggestions submitted by the public, were as follow:

1. Install a traffic light at Sixth and Harrison streets.

2. Make North Fifth street one way (southbound) and North Sixth street one way (northbound) between Louisville avenue and DeSiard street.

3. Eliminate traffic jams at Grand and DeSiard streets, by making Grand street one way (southbound) from Illinois Central Railroad to Grammont street; make St. John street one way (northbound) from Grammont to DeSiard street; make DeSiard street two way from St. John to Grand street; permit no right turns at the intersection of St. John and DeSiard streets; make Walnut street one way (northbound) from DeSiard street to a point north of the Illinois Central railroad tracks, and install a traffic light at the intersection of Walnut and DeSiard streets and permit right turns on the red light.

4. Relieve traffic going into North Fourth street, by making DeSiard street two way up to Third street.

5. Relieve traffic jams at Washington and North Fourth streets by prohibiting left turns at this corner for northbound traffic.

6. Relieve traffic on Louisville avenue and eliminate traffic jams at the intersection of that thoroughfare and North Fourth street by making Pine street one way (westbound) from Fifth street to Riverfront. Install traffic lights at each street intersecting Pine. Put up signs instructing traffic bound for West Monroe to use Pine street.

7. Pave Grammont street and make it a continuous street from Grand street to a point beyond the college.

8. Extend Layton street eastward to intersect with DeSiard street just beyond the Sicard overpass, and pave this street.

9. Install yellow walk lights for pedestrians at busy intersections. (Most often suggested).

10. Prohibit parking on DeSiard, Louisville, and North and South Grand streets between 7 and 9:30 a.m. and 4 and 5:30 p.m.

11. Keep private cars out of unloading zones.

12. Prohibit parking on North Second street between Bres and Louisville.

13. Greater enforcement of speed laws, especially on through streets.

14. Make Harrison street one way from Hall to St. John.

15. Install a traffic light at Hall and Harrison streets.

16. Install a caution blinker light at the intersection of Jackson street and Lee avenue.

18. Mark Milhaven and Texas avenue for use by through truck traffic.

19. Install a traffic light at the intersection of Layton and Catalpa streets.

20. Make Calypso street one way.

21. Route through traffic away from business district. Use Oak, Powell, Texas, and other streets that could divert traffic from the main thoroughfares.

22. Permit right turns on red light for traffic moving from DeSiard to Jackson street.

23. Place traffic light at Pine and North Fourth streets.

24. Make more use of yellow traffic lines, such as those at Grand and Washington streets, to direct traffic into proper lanes for turns.

25. Enforce 25 mile speed limit in residential areas where children play.

Venable continued, "for the splendid help they have given us in the inspection of our equipment and the testing of the physical condition of bus operators."

Venable went on to point out the outstanding safety record of the school bus drivers and stated: "this is a fine record and I congratulate each of you for your part in this record."

On the strength of this record, Venable stated that the L. S. B. O. A. executive committee had begun action on a uniform insurance program to protect children riding the busses, the bus operator and the operator's parish board. (Louisiana school busses are individually owned and cannot qualify for group insurance under the provisions applying to large fleets of busses.) In a plan with a local insurance group, several insurance companies will underwrite the injury and property damage insurance on the busses and at the end of a years time, if the safety record of the association remains good, will apply to the state insurance commission for a reduction in bus insurance rates.

Venable cited the four points of the legislative program which are: 1. A uniform salary schedule; 2. A uniform scale of compensation covering depreciation on the bus, tires, cost of oil, gas and insurance; 3. Amendment of the retirement system and 4 Re.-introduction of the sick leave bill.

Venable told the delegates of other points that were needed to improve the association and the following provisions were adopted: 1. Increase the membership of the executive board from five to eight members; 2. Issue monthly bulletins; 3. Issue regular information letters to the presidents and secretaries of each parish; 4. Hold two meetings in each congressional district; and 5. Employ a full-time secretary to handle all details necessary to good operation.

Mrs. Eisenhower Gets Birthday Gift From Ike

OTTAWA, Nov. 14 (AP)—This was Mamie Eisenhower's 57th birthday, and her husband remembered it with a gift. He gave her a gold pendant about the size of a 50-cent piece engraved with the seal of the President of the United States. She plans to attach it to a charm bracelet.

The President presented the gift before breakfast at Rideau Hall, where they were the overnight guests of Canada's Governor General, Vincent Massey. This afternoon at the American Embassy there was a surprise party for the first lady, given by White House staff members and others who accompanied the Eisenhowers on their state visit to Ottawa. There she was given another gift, a gold maple leaf pin.

Arsenic Capsules Kill Two Persons

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands, Nov. 14 (AP)—Amsterdam's public prosecutor said today capsules of arsenic mistakenly distributed as vitamins by a drug company have killed two persons and left five others partly paralyzed.

The prosecutor said the capsules were traced to an Amsterdam firm. He said the company apparently had packed the vitamin capsules with arsenic in confusion caused by similarity between their scientific names. The scientific name of arsenic is acidum arsenicosum and that of vitamin C acidium ascorbinium.

Farmer Accused By Sons In Slaying

LURS, France, Nov. 14—UP—Two sons of a 76-year-old French farmer have accused him of murdering Sir Jack and Lady Anne Drummond and their 10-year-old daughter near here 15 months ago, police said Saturday.

The Drummonds, of London, were found dead on Aug. 5, 1952, near the place where they had camped for the night on a French vacation tour.

It costs about $10,000 a week to maintain a first-class dance orchestra while it is on the road.

REUNITED—Dorothea Del Longo, 13, is reunited with her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. James Botticelli, in a New York police station after Friday the Thirteenth proved a day of horror for her. A "scar-faced" man gained entry to the Botticelli home early in the morning while proclaiming himself "the law." He took the pajama-clad girl from her home to a mid-town hotel and raped her. Afterward, he left her shivering on a sidewalk. Authorities are searching for a man they said Dorothea identified from police photographs.

But victory eventually was won, the President added, noting that despair can change to exultation. Then, in an obvious allusion to Russia, he declared:

"Now, today, as we fail to understand the intransigeance that we feel marks others, as we try to color every proposal we make with what we believe to be reason, understanding—even sympathy, as offers are never taken up, let us never despair that faith will win through."

Eisenhower got a round of applause when he entered the oak-paneled green-carpeted chamber, and standing ovations at the start and finish of his speech. During the speech he was interrupted by applause and desk-thumping 16 times.

At the outset, the President made a few remarks in hesitant French saluting the French-speaking members of Parliament. That brought a round of delighted desk-banging.

The President was introduced by Prime Minister St. Laurent, who said he wanted Eisenhower to know "we are grateful for the leadership your nation is providing in the common effort of free men and women to make our world a safer and better place for future generations."

In addition to continental defense and Russia's ability to launch an atomic attack on North America, the President spoke of a need for expanion of international trade and for construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

He got his most prolonged burst of applause when he said:

"The free world must come to recognize that trade barriers, although intended to protect a country's economy, in fact shackle its prosperity. In the United States, there is a growing recognition that free nations cannot expand their productivity and economy without a high level of international trade."

Canada has been hoping for liberalization of U. S. trade policies.

Legion Winds Up Traffic Safety Survey In City

The safety committee of L. B. Faulk Post No. 13, American Legion, concluded its traffic safety survey this week, and has submitted a summary of recommendations to the Monroe Commission-Council.

The recommendations, taken from suggestions submitted by the public, were as follow:

1. Install a traffic light at Sixth and Harrison streets.

2. Make North Fifth street one way (southbound) and North Sixth street one way (northbound) between Louisville avenue and DeSiard street.

3. Eliminate traffic jams at Grand and DeSiard streets, by making Grand street one way (southbound) from Illinois Central Railroad to Grammont street; make St. John street one way (northbound) from Grammont to DeSiard street; make DeSiard street two way from St. John to Grand street; permit no right turns at the intersection of St. John and DeSiard streets; make Walnut street one way (northbound) from DeSiard street to a point north of the Illinois Central railroad tracks, and install a traffic light at the intersection of Walnut and DeSiard streets and permit right turns on the red light.

4. Relieve traffic going into North Fourth street, by making DeSiard street two way up to Third street.

5. Relieve traffic jams at Washington and North Fourth streets by prohibiting left turns at this corner for northbound traffic.

6. Relieve traffic on Louisville avenue and eliminate traffic jams at the intersection of that thoroughfare and North Fourth street by making Pine street one way (westbound) from Fifth street to Riverfront. Install traffic lights at each street intersecting Pine. Put up signs instructing traffic bound for West Monroe to use Pine street.

7. Pave Grammont street and make it a continuous street from Grand street to a point beyond the college.

8. Extend Layton street eastward to intersect with DeSiard street just beyond the Sicard overpass, and pave this street.

9. Install yellow walk lights for pedestrians at busy intersections. (Most often suggested).

10. Prohibit parking on DeSiard, Louisville, and North and South Grand streets between 7 and 9:30 a.m. and 4 and 5:30 p.m.

11. Keep private cars out of unloading zones.

12. Prohibit parking on North Second street between Bres and Louisville.

13. Greater enforcement of speed laws, especially on through streets.

14. Make Harrison street one way from Hall to St. John.

15. Install a traffic light at Hall and Harrison streets.

16. Install a caution blinker light at the intersection of Jackson street and Lee avenue.

18. Mark Milhaven and Texas avenue for use by through truck traffic.

19. Install a traffic light at the intersection of Layton and Catalpa streets.

20. Make Calypso street one way.

21. Route through traffic away from business district. Use Oak, Powell, Texas, and other streets that could divert traffic from the main thoroughfares.

22. Permit right turns on red light for traffic moving from DeSiard to Jackson street.

23. Place traffic light at Pine and North Fourth streets.

24. Make more use of yellow traffic lines, such as those at Grand and Washington streets, to direct traffic into proper lanes for turns.

25. Enforce 25 mile speed limit in residential areas where children play.

State School

Venable continued, "for the splendid help they have given us in the inspection of our equipment and the testing of the physical condition of bus operators."

Venable went on to point out the outstanding safety record of the school bus drivers and stated: "this is a fine record and I congratulate each of you for your part in this record."

On the strength of this record, Venable stated that the L. S. B. O. A. executive committee had begun action on a uniform insurance program to protect children riding the busses, the bus operator and the operator's parish board. (Louisiana school busses are individually owned and cannot qualify for group insurance under the provisions applying to large fleets of busses.) In a plan with a local insurance group, several insurance companies will underwrite the injury and property damage insurance on the busses and at the end of a years time, if the safety record of the association remains good, will apply to the state insurance commission for a reduction in bus insurance rates.

Venable cited the four points of the legislative program which are: 1. A uniform salary schedule; 2. A uniform scale of compensation covering depreciation on the bus, tires, cost of oil, gas and insurance; 3. Amendment of the retirement system and 4 Re.-introduction of the sick leave bill.

Venable told the delegates of other points that were needed to improve the association and the following provisions were adopted: 1. Increase the membership of the executive board from five to eight members; 2. Issue monthly bulletins; 3. Issue regular information letters to the presidents and secretaries of each parish; 4. Hold two meetings in each congressional district; and 5. Employ a full-time secretary to handle all details necessary to good operation.

Mrs. Eisenhower Gets Birthday Gift From Ike

OTTAWA, Nov. 14 (AP)—This was Mamie Eisenhower's 57th birthday, and her husband remembered it with a gift. He gave her a gold pendant about the size of a 50-cent piece engraved with the seal of the President of the United States. She plans to attach it to a charm bracelet.

The President presented the gift before breakfast at Rideau Hall, where they were the overnight guests of Canada's Governor General, Vincent Massey. This afternoon at the American Embassy there was a surprise party for the first lady, given by White House staff members and others who accompanied the Eisenhowers on their state visit to Ottawa. There she was given another gift, a gold maple leaf pin.

Arsenic Capsules Kill Two Persons

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands, Nov. 14 (AP)—Amsterdam's public prosecutor said today capsules of arsenic mistakenly distributed as vitamins by a drug company have killed two persons and left five others partly paralyzed.

The prosecutor said the capsules were traced to an Amsterdam firm. He said the company apparently had packed the vitamin capsules with arsenic in confusion caused by similarity between their scientific names. The scientific name of arsenic is acidum arsenicosum and that of vitamin C acidium ascorbinium.

Farmer Accused By Sons In Slaying

LURS, France, Nov. 14—UP—Two sons of a 76-year-old French farmer have accused him of murdering Sir Jack and Lady Anne Drummond and their 10-year-old daughter near here 15 months ago, police said Saturday.

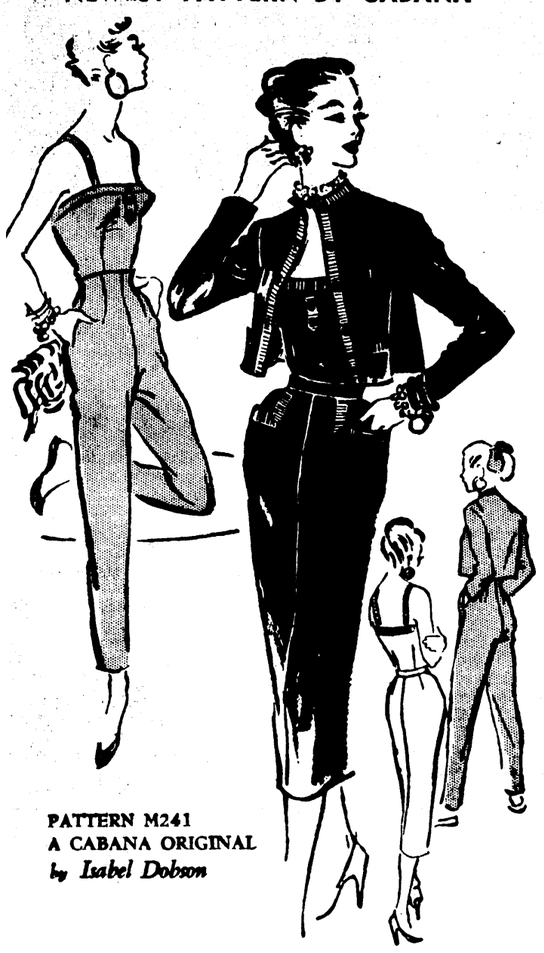

The Drummonds, of London, were found dead on Aug. 5, 1952, near the place where they had camped for the night on a French vacation tour.

It costs about $10,000 a week to maintain a first-class dance orchestra while it is on the road.

PATTERN M241
A CABANA ORIGINAL
by Isabel Dobson

PROMINENT DESIGNER—THE MOST GLAMOROUS LINE on the holiday fashion scene is slim—sleek—shapely. Patterned here—exclusively for our readers—is Isabel Dobson's dramatic interpretation of the "straight and narrow." Her evening separates have unlimited switch-ability from Christmas right through the New Year. For the theater, there's a suit composed of box jacket and string-slim skirt. Under it, a bare bodice that can go dancing—or stay at home, paired with the long, fitted pants. (Even television can't compete with the allure of this ensemble!) This American designer likes the polished look of velveteen for M241. Note how she accents the simple details with grosgrain ribbon. Duplicate this Cabana "after-five" wardrobe exactly, if you wish. It's easy enough to make in time for the holidays. Or if you're heading South, plan to make it up in linen or faille. All of the separates are included in our Prominent Design Pattern so you can make, match, mix at will.

Pattern M241 is available in Misses' Sizes 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18. Please see your pattern for required yardages.

10 Men Jailed In Narcotics Drive

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 13 (AP) — Federal narcotics agents said today the arrest of ten men on charges of selling marijuana and heroin marked the end of a barroom narcotics den.

Thomas McGuire, district federal narcotics chief, said the arrests climaxed a three-month investigation of drug traffic in and around the Valera Lounge.

McGuire said the arrested men were very uncooperative and refused to reveal who supplied them with the dope. Agents arrested the men after they bought marijuana and heroin in amounts worth from $10 to $25.

Are Huge Animals Life-Saver Or Death-Bearer To Industry?

Lafayette Rancher Center Of Dispute Involving Million-Dollar Herd Of Rare Charolais Cattle

LAFAYETTE, La., Nov. 14 (AP)—A million dollar herd of Charolais cattle — only 63 animals — has brought a storm of controversy to this South Louisiana city and an indictment against a Lafayette cattleman.

Over everything hangs the fear that the cattle might have brought the dreaded hoof and mouth disease with them from Southern Mexico.

Cattleman Alphe Broussard of Lafayette was indicted Wednesday in U. S. District Court in Waco, Tex., on a charge of fraudulently importing the herd.

Also indicted with him were Antonio Enrique Gilly, of Atlixco, Mexico, and William L. Babb of El Paso, Tex.

Broussard returned to his home after posting $5,000 bond. He said two weeks ago that "the cattle were delivered to me. I did not bring them into the United States."

Sixty-three head were brought across the Texas border between January and May of this year—without a federal permit.

Since then, 13 calves have been born. The government values the herd at $1,080,000.

Broussard claims that these big, white animals may be the salvation of the ailing U. S. cattle industry.

Charolais cross-breeds are reported to produce more high grade meat faster than other breeds, and thus permit more profits.

Other U. S. cattlemen had been trying for years to buy the herd. The owner, Henri Gilly, a French rancher who settled in the southern Mexican state of Puebla, refused to sell, except for a handful of bulls.

Broussard says that Gilly, a Catholic, agreed to sell to him when Broussard—also a Catholic—explained that most of the profits from the herd would go to charities.

Broussard says he planned to donate part of the herd to religious schools in Lafayette, and intended to set up a breeding foundation and earmark a share of the profits for charities.

The sale was agreed on in May, 1952, for $500,000 plus 25 per cent of the profits. At that time no imports of cattle from Mexico were allowed because foot and mouth disease was still prevalent in Mexico.

From September, 1952, to May, 1953, however, the disease declined and the U. S. government permitted imports from the Northern Mexican states.

Broussard says Gilly had shipped the Charolais north to the border during the summer of 1952. The Mexican government, however, also refused to grant export permits.

Broussard applied for U. S. import papers, but was refused. Federal officials say this was done because the herd originally came from Southern Mexico, scene of the hoof and mouth outbreak.

But Boussard says he was told informally that it would be all right to bring the cattle in. He says he got the impression that U. S. officials favored his plan to import the cattle.

In January, the first animals of the herd crossed the Rio Grande—without permits. They kept coming, in small groups, until only 27 were left in Mexico.

In May, the dreaded cattle disease broke out again in Mexico, and the United States clamped down a complete embargo on Mexican cattle.

The 63 animals which crossed the border were sent to ranches in Louisiana. A few weeks later, Broussard was arrested and charged.

Sanitary officers fear that the little-known virus which causes hoof and mouth disease may be lying dormant in the Charolais. They say no known test can positively exclude the possibility of infection.

If the disease should break out here, cattlemen fear it would bring ruin to the Louisiana cattle industry—and perhaps in other states.

What are the characteristics of these Charolais?

The peasants of that area used their cattle for three purposes: meat, milk and to pull their wagons and turn their mills.

Since the farms were small, each family could own only a few animals. Consequently, only the best were mated to produce a triple-purpose offspring.

This program of intensive breeding produced a large, heavy animal. They have powerful, chunky rumps where the choicest cuts of meat are found.

Because the cattle are used to work, they are able to digest rapidly a great amount of food. Their white coats also help keep them cool in hot, southern climates and permit them to graze all day while other breeds rest in the shade.

The Charolais also grow a thick, curly coat in winter. They reportedly survive the bitter climate of Wyoming mountain ranches better than other breeds.

Two Men Killed In Truck-Car Crash

MAGNOLIA, Miss., Nov. 14—UP—Two men were killed and another injured on Highway 51 north of here Friday night when a dairy tank truck and an automobile collided head on, the State Highway Patrol reported Saturday.

Patrolmen identified the dead as Joe H. Ross, 39, of Chatawa and Jethro Nelson, about 45, of Magnolia, both Negroes. Injured was John Rudolph Jones, 35, Tickfaw, La., driver of the dairy truck. He is hospitalized in McComb with neck and back injuries.

Officers said the southbound car was attempting to pass a line of other cars and the driver apparently was unable to return to the right lane and hit the northbound truck.

Local Authorities Seeking Men Held In Other Cities

Detainers for persons held in two separate towns have been sent to authorities by the Ouachita parish sheriff department, Chief Criminal Deputy Frank Kirby stated Saturday morning. Both of the men, held in Shreveport and Tyler Texas, have been arrested for offenses allegedly committed in those places.

Kirby identified the men as William G. Howton, now being held in Shreveport, and Jack Berry, 30, in Tyler, Texas.

Howton is wanted in Monroe for two counts of forgery of checks written on the Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey circus.

Both of the checks were drafts on a fictitious bank, the Florida First National Bank of Sarasota, Florida.

Howton was arrested in Shreveport by the Caddo sheriff department for theft of a television set.

The second person being sought by the local sheriff department is Jack Berry, 30, who formerly lived around Monroe, but more recently is believed to have residence near or in Tyler, Texas. He was apprehended by Tyler authorities and has refused to sign a waiver. Extradition proceedings will be begun immediately.

He is wanted for theft by check.

The first factory of any sort in the United States was a glass factory that started operation near Jamestown, in 1608.

Fishermen Lose Fight To Reopen Pontchartrain

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14—UP—The injunction suit filed by commercial fishermen of Jefferson and St. Charles parishes contesting the closing of Lake Pontchartrain to all commercial fishing has been dismissed, it was disclosed Saturday.

Judge L. Julian Samuels heard the case in Jefferson parish and found there was no cause of action against the Louisiana Wild Life and Fisheries Commission.

In St. Charles parish, Judge L. Robert Rivarde dismissed the proceedings there this week on a joint motion of both the plaintiffs and defendants.

Warren M. Simon, attorney for the Wild Life Commission, said the effect of the two judgments is to close the lake to all trawling.

Bonnie Prince Charles Gets New Car For Fifth Birthday

By ROBERT JONES

LONDON, Nov. 14 (AP) — Bonnie Prince Charles is getting a new car—just about the fastest he's ever laid hands on—for his fifth birthday.

The chubby-faced heir to Britain's throne has one car now—a push-pedal job which is all right in its way. But this new one, a top secret from his parents, Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Edinburgh, is every little boy's dream auto.

It's a spanking red limousine, with an electric motor and all the controls and gadgets a real auto has. It was specially built to the specifications of his father.

But with it comes a royal order: "No driving indoors."

At present, Charles likes to sweep around inside the palace in his pedal car and there's no telling what speed records he set for the 50-yard stretch of the King's Corridor, off which all the royal suites lead.

But the new car is considered much too heavy to meet headon coming round a palace corner.

Prince Charles is beginning to learn something of the destiny life holds for him as heir to the throne.

He sat in awe in Westminster Abbey last June to watch his mother crowned queen and, for the first time in his life, began to realize he is not like any ordinary boy.

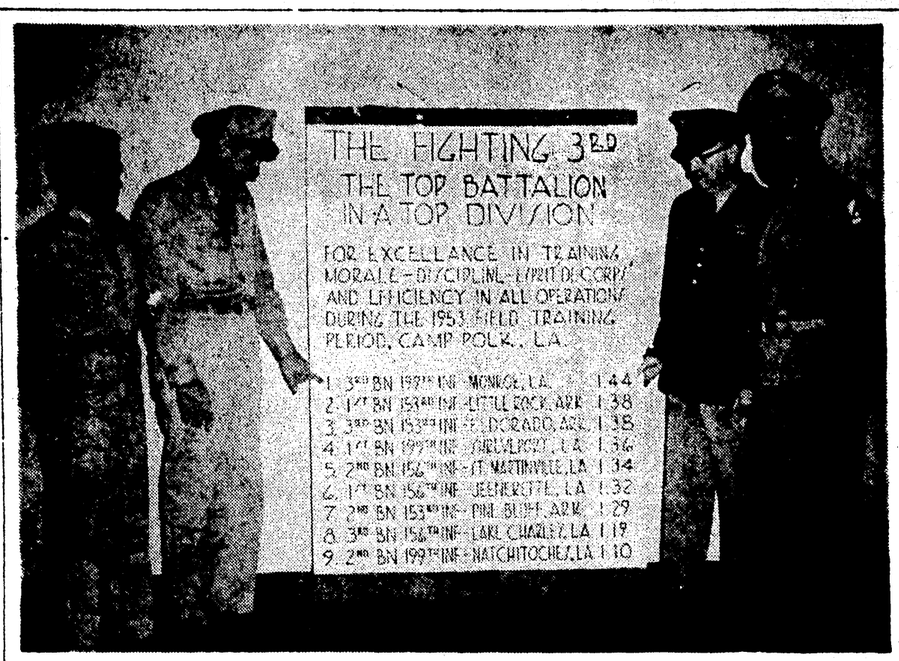

He'll be learning a lot more soon, for Queen Elizabeth and the duke have decided it's high time he started his education.

Earlier this week the queen announced the appointment of a governess, Katherine Peebles, 38, to take charge of the high-spirited youngster for the next few years.

Miss Peebles—a Scot like the queen's old governess, Marion Crawford—is used to teaching royal youngsters. For a time she was governess to the 11-year-old Prince Richard of Kent.

Tomorrow Charles will wake up to the rumble of guns from the Tower of London firing the royal salute in his honor.

LOCAL GUARD UNIT TOPS—The Monroe headquartered 3rd Battalion of the 199th Infantry has been rated as the top infantry battalion in the 39th Division of the National Guard, on the basis of its performance during field maneuvers and encampment last summer, the state adjutant general's office has announced. The division has some 10,000 troops from Louisiana and Arkansas. The 3rd has units in Monroe, Bastrop, Farmerville and Ruston. Battalion officers, shown after receiving special commendation for the outfit's achievement, are from left, Capt. A. L. Causey, S-2; Maj. E. C. Mallory, executive officer; Lt. Col. Walter H. Johnson, commanding officer, and Capt. Frank V. Anzalone, S-4.

India Stalls Off Disarmament Vote In UN Committee

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Nov. 14 (AP)—V. K. Krishna Menon of India stalled off a vote today in the U.N. Political Committee on widely different proposals about how to tackle the problem of disarmament. He said he would try to get some unanimity over the weekend. Delegates held little hope he would succeed.

Diplomats reported Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky was working behind the scenes to smooth over his uncompromising speech to the Political Committee yesterday. He was absent today and Soviet Delegate Jacob A. Malik took a somewhat calmer tone in the debate.

These diplomats said if the committee had voted yesterday everyone except the Red bloc would have voted against Vishinsky's arms proposals. They added that he wants to get some countries to abstain if they do not support his view.

Salvage Crew Clearing Track In Hodge Wreck

HODGE, La., Nov. 14 — Late today wrecking crews were still working to clear the right-of-way of the North Louisiana and Gulf Railway of debris left by a three-locomotive crash Thursday night.

M. F. Mooney, auditor for the railway, said this afternoon an exact estimate of the damage would not be available before Monday. However, the unofficial estimate has been placed in the vicinity of a million dollars.

The wreck occurred when workmen attempted to save a diesel locomotive from a burning machine shop. The engine got out of control, careened out of the shop engulfed in flames, and ran wild on the main tracks. Five miles from the burning shop, the runaway locomotive crashed head-on with a freight train drawn by two diesel engines.

Tom Taylor, engineer on the freight train, suffered a leg injury, bruises and shock, when he and other crew members leaped from the train when they realized the crash was imminent. Other crew members suffered only minor injuries.

An unidentified crewman in the caboose, although thrown through the window by the force of impact, was reported uninjured.

Bob Jones, identified as an official of the railroad, suffered first, second and third degree burns while rescuing the flaming locomotive from the burning building. He was taken to the Hodge clinic, where his condition was not believed to be serious.

Memogram Is Issued By La. Institutions

A Memogram, issued by the Louisiana Department of Institutions last Thursday, tells of salient features and work that is being done or planned state-wide.

Edward D. Grant, director announces that the next meeting will be held Tuesday at 10 a. m. in the board room, 20th floor of the state capitol.

Also a final conference at the governor's mansion will be held next Wednesday for a large number of prominent ministers and church leaders of the state who will come to learn of the progress of the institutions operated by the state.

R. P. Farnsworth & Co., submitted low bid of $433,547 for the boilerhouse and laundry at Angola. Of this amount, the state building authority will put up $236,341 and the department of institutions will pay $197,206.

Bids will be opened Monday November 16 for the Outpatient clinic at E. A. Conway Memorial Hospital in Monroe for the second time. Bids will be presented to the board the following day.

Bids will be opened Tuesday, November 17 at the board meeting for additions to Lafayette Charity Hospital.

Four 66-bed patient's buildings will be advertised for bids during the first few days of December, to be added to the campus at Central Louisiana State Hospital at Pineville. (Don Chesson, Consulting Engineer.)

Plans are being developed for an intensive in - service training program for all social workers at East Louisiana State Hospital in Jackson. First portion of the program is to cover 3 months, and it will consist of presentations by the staff psychiatrists, illustrating various mental illnesses. Second portion of the program will cover basic casework concepts, and the final phase will cover resources for therapy. Similar programs are being planned to develop the staffs of other institutions. (E. R. Rogiollio, Chief, Mental Health Division).

Dr. H. C. Mullins, medical officer at Angola, has been called to active duty with the U. S. Army, on Nov. 18. Prior to the arrival of a replacement at the prison, consultants from Baton Rouge will care for inmate ills. (Reed Cozart, Assistant Director.)

State Colony and Training School's dairy herd has been signally honored in three showings. At the Louisiana Livestock & Pasture Festival in Marksville, the herd was awarded a championship in the dairy division, age cow plaque and outstanding exhibitors, plus four first places, four seconds and one third. At Central Louisiana State Fair in Alexandria the herd came off with reserve champion, Holstein breed, senior yearling, in addition to two first, two seconds and two thirds. At Louisiana State Fair in Shreveport, the colony won one first, three seconds, one third, one fourth and two fifths.

10 Scientists Back Up Dr. Astin's Report On Disputed Battery Fluid

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 — A committee of 10 scientists today backed up the U. S. Bureau of Standards' findings that AD-X2, a product designed to pep up tired, old batteries, is "without merit."

The 10 scientists from the National Academy of Sciences labelled the bureau's tests as "excellent."

Secretary of Commerce Weeks once sharply criticized the tests as "not sufficiently objective" and fired the bureau director, but today he expressed his "sincere appreciation" of the review which the 10 scientists conducted at his request.

"(Their) scientific evaluation is an assurance to the public and a source of satisfaction to me and to the bureau," Weeks' statement said.

Jesse Ritchie of Oakland, Calif., who manufactures the battery additive, has battled for five years against the Standard Bureau's attitude toward his product.

The bureau's finding against AD-X2 led to a postal fraud order, early this year, against Ritchie and his company, Pioneers, Inc. The order was suspended, at Weeks' request, in February and canceled in August.

It was not immediately clear what action postal authorities might take in view of the committee's report.

Post Office officials said they had not been served with a copy of the committee's findings and would have no comment until they have studied the report.

Ritchie's battle and the storm that blew up over the Bureau of Standard's verdict against AD-X2 resulted in the ousting of Dr. A. V. Astin last April as director of the bureau.

Astin's dismissal promptly roused a wave of protests from scientific organizations over the country. Weeks then asked Astin to stay on the job until he could get further information. Weeks requested scientific organizations to appoint three committees to study the bureau—one on the bureau's work in general, one on a successor to Astin, and one on the bureau's testing of AD-X2. He said this after an investigation of the bureau by Craig R. Sheaffer, then the bureau's boss as assistant secretary of commerce for domestic affairs.

In August, Weeks discharged the committee assigned to name a successor to Astin, and requested Astin to resume his $15,000-a-year job as head of the nation's central laboratory, on a permanent basis. Astin accepted.

Xavia M. Holt, Jr., Lieutenant Colonel

Xavia M. Holt, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. X. M. Holt of 2557—12, Monroe, Louisiana, has been promoted to lieutenant colonel in the Corps of Cadets at the New Mexico Military Institute. Along with his promotion, he was named one of three battalion commanders.

In addition to the promotion, Holt was among college students whose names appear on the Dean's List released by the dean of the college. The Dean's List is composed of the names of all students who have achieved a grade point average of 3.00 or above, and is published at the end of each nine-week period. Cadets with this academic honor are eligible for special privileges in accordance with the school authorities.

Holt will graduate from the institute in June with a degree in biology. He has been active in the Corps of Cadets holding several responsible positions.

On the day that the announcement was made the bank celebrated its 18-month-birthday.

Child Born With Misplaced Organs

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Three-month-old Rachel Lynn Gannon of Logansport, Ind., apparently faces death before her first birthday because of a strange mix-up of her internal organs.

Doctors at Riley Hospital in Indianapolis said today there is no connection between her gall bladder, intestines and liver, and her stomach is on the wrong side of her body.

The baby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Middleton Gannon, who live northeast of Logansport, was born with a collapsed lung, doctors said. The displaced organs were found later during surgery after she developed yellow jaundice caused by bile pigments in the blood.

The Gannons have three other children, all normal.

Post Office officials said they had not been served with a copy of the committee's findings and would have no comment until they have studied the report.

Ritchie's battle and the storm that blew up over the Bureau of Standard's verdict against AD-X2 resulted in the ousting of Dr. A. V. Astin last April as director of the bureau.

Astin's dismissal promptly roused a wave of protests from scientific organizations over the country. Weeks then asked Astin to stay on the job until he could get further information. Weeks requested scientific organizations to appoint three committees to study the bureau—one on the bureau's work in general, one on a successor to Astin, and one on the bureau's testing of AD-X2. He said this after an investigation of the bureau by Craig R. Sheaffer, then the bureau's boss as assistant secretary of commerce for domestic affairs.

In August, Weeks discharged the committee assigned to name a successor to Astin, and requested Astin to resume his $15,000-a-year job as head of the nation's central laboratory, on a permanent basis. Astin accepted.

Child Born With Misplaced Organs

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Three-month-old Rachel Lynn Gannon of Logansport, Ind., apparently faces death before her first birthday because of a strange mix-up of her internal organs.

Doctors at Riley Hospital in Indianapolis said today there is no connection between her gall bladder, intestines and liver, and her stomach is on the wrong side of her body.

The baby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Middleton Gannon, who live northeast of Logansport, was born with a collapsed lung, doctors said. The displaced organs were found later during surgery after she developed yellow jaundice caused by bile pigments in the blood.

Hospital attaches said the derangement apparently is too extensive for surgical correction.

Xavia M. Holt, Jr., Lieutenant Colonel

Xavia M. Holt, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. X. M. Holt of 2557—12, Monroe, Louisiana, has been promoted to lieutenant colonel in the Corps of Cadets at the New Mexico Military Institute. Along with his promotion, he was named one of three battalion commanders.

In addition to the promotion, Holt was among college students whose names appear on the Dean's List released by the dean of the college. The Dean's List is composed of the names of all students who have achieved a grade point average of 3.00 or above, and is published at the end of each nine-week period. Cadets with this academic honor are eligible for special privileges in accordance with the school authorities.

Holt will graduate from the institute in June with a degree in biology. He has been active in the Corps of Cadets holding several responsible positions.

Indicted In Revolt

LA PAZ, Bolivia, Nov. 14—UP—The government announced Saturday that 750 persons, including three ex-presidents and 13 women, will be tried for planning, financing or taking part in Monday's abortive revolt. Since no former chief executive is known to be in the country, it was assumede the ex-presidents would be indicted in absentia.

Salvage Crew Clearing Track In Hodge Wreck

HODGE, La., Nov. 14 — Late today wrecking crews were still working to clear the right-of-way of the North Louisiana and Gulf Railway of debris left by a three-locomotive crash Thursday night.

M. F. Mooney, auditor for the railway, said this afternoon an exact estimate of the damage would not be available before Monday. However, the unofficial estimate has been placed in the vicinity of a million dollars.

The wreck occurred when workmen attempted to save a diesel locomotive from a burning machine shop. The engine got out of control, careened out of the shop engulfed in flames, and ran wild on the main tracks. Five miles from the burning shop, the runaway locomotive crashed head-on with a freight train drawn by two diesel engines.

Tom Taylor, engineer on the freight train, suffered a leg injury, bruises and shock, when he and other crew members leaped from the train when they realized the crash was imminent. Other crew members suffered only minor injuries.

An unidentified crewman in the caboose, although thrown through the window by the force of impact, was reported uninjured.

Bob Jones, identified as an official of the railroad, suffered first, second and third degree burns while rescuing the flaming locomotive from the burning building. He was taken to the Hodge clinic, where his condition was not believed to be serious.

Resources Of Rayville Bank Reported High

RAYVILLE, Nov. 14 (Special)—W. D. Cotton, president of the First National Bank, Rayville's newest banking facility, announced this week that the resources of that concern reached and surpassed the $2,000,000 mark.

On the day that the announcement was made the bank celebrated its 18-month-birthday.

India Stalls Off Disarmament Vote In UN Committee

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Nov. 14 (AP)—V. K. Krishna Menon of India stalled off a vote today in the U.N. Political Committee on widely different proposals about how to tackle the problem of disarmament. He said he would try to get some unanimity over the weekend. Delegates held little hope he would succeed.

Diplomats reported Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky was working behind the scenes to smooth over his uncompromising speech to the Political Committee yesterday. He was absent today and Soviet Delegate Jacob A. Malik took a somewhat calmer tone in the debate.

These diplomats said if the committee had voted yesterday everyone except the Red bloc would have voted against Vishinsky's arms proposals. They added that he wants to get some countries to abstain if they do not support his view.

Louisiana College Noses Out Northeast

Paul Martin Looks 'Em Over

You can just about count on our membership in the Cotton States Baseball League for 1954 as a concentrated drive has brought baseball fans flocking to the rescue to save the franchise for Monroe, and (some lukewarm Twin City fans may be a little shamed-faced) many of the subscribers in pro baseball stock here come from the surrounding towns, as far away as Natchitoches, El Dorado, and Tallulah, and even the Bahama Islands.

The baseball leaders meet again here tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at Hotel Virginia to recount the applications for stock. With the total well over $15,000, we can expect a call almost anytime, probably tomorrow, for a stockholders' meeting within the next few days to elect a board of directors and officers.

Monroe will host the Louisiana Junior Chamber of Commerce Junior Golf Tournament next year, we have been informed by Tom Hyland of the Jaycee sports committee here. The date hasn't been set. While on the Jaycee junior golf subject, some concern is being shown in this area about the golfing future of Don Sims, the Bastrop youth who won the northeast district Jaycee title here last year. Sims suffered a severe knee injury recently in an automobile accident.

Pro football is claiming a victory by winning only one point in its fight against the government's anti-trust suit regarding radio and television of football games. The one point permits restriction of TV when a team is playing at home. But radio and TV people are claiming victory on other points that permit no restriction whatever on radio and allow competitive TV at home when a team is on the road. The puzzler about Judge Alan K. Grim's decision in federal court at Philadelphia is how he came to such a decision in differing between radio and TV. If radio can't be restricted under any circumstances, then neither should TV. If video can be restricted during home games, then the same should apply to radio if the home club wants. The fuss isn't over yet.

Duck hunters (the season opens Tuesday) will be interested in legal shooting hours which, according to Kirt Touchstone Jr., will be sponsored daily in this newspaper by his firm. The times provided by Touchstone's organization will be the actual hours for starting and stopping the daily firing, not sunrise and sunset times. The duck hunting times will be supplied in ad form similar to the solunar tables we carry.

By WILBUR MARTIN

WACO, Tex., Nov. 14 (AP)—Underdog University of Houston, shooting for a prestige victory, got it with a bruising 37-7 victory over Baylor's ninth ranked Bears today.

The thrice-beaten Missouri Valley team scored the first two times it got the ball and a hard charging line that chewed Baylor's forward wall to bits insured the upset over the Southwest Conefrence team.

There was never much doubt that Baylor, flat as the Texas prairie, after its undefeated record was ruined by a single point last week by Texas, was going to lose. The only thing the sparse crowd of 15,000 didn't know was the final score. That and trying to figure the strategy of Coach George Sauer as he played mostly second stringers two-third of the game, made the affair interesting.

Baylor had a first string tackle, Bob Knowles, and its whizz kid quarterback, Cotton Davidson, injured in the first quarter. Sauer may have decided not to gamble on any more injuries in a non-conference game, but at no time during the game did Baylor have what is generally considered its complete first string in the game.

After Don Hargrove scored from the five and Jack Patterson punched over from the two in the first period, Houston chalked up 10 points in the third and 14 more in the final period.

Verle Cray kicked a 10-yard field goal and S. M. Meeks went nine yards for a touchdown in the third. Patterson scored on a one-yard plunge and end Ben Wilson scampered 25 yards with a blocked punt in the fourth.

Baylor's only touchdown came on the opening play of the final period when Jerry Coody climaxed a 39-yard drive from the one.

Score by quarters:

Houston	13	0	10	14	—37
Baylor	0	0	0	7	— 7

Baylor scoring: touchdown, Coody. Conversion, Dupre.

7 Teams Reach Quarter-Finals Of 4-Ball Play

Seven teams are ready for action in the quarter-final round of the Bayou DeSiard Four - Ball Handicap Tournament, and the other combination is due to be settled today in a match that sends C. B. McMahon and W. C. Crowell against Dr. T. A. Brulte and Ned Leigh.

The team of Curtis Cook and H. G. Prophit will meet the winners of the remaining match to decide a quarter - finalist.

N. C. State Easy Prey For Pitt's Panthers

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 14. (AP)—Sophomore second stringers, chiefly halfback Joe Grier, turned in the key plays to power the University of Pittsburgh to an easy 40-6 victory over North Carolina State today, handing the Wolfpack its worst trimming of the season and the seventh in eight games.

Score by quarters:

N. C. State	0	0	0	6	— 6
Pittsburgh	14	7	19	0	—40

N. C. State scoring: touchdown, Teer.

Wildcats Battle From Behind For 21 to 19 Victory

The Northeast State College Indians suffered their eighth loss of the season here last night at Brown Stadium to the Louisiana College Wildcats, 21-19.

The Indians led at halftime, 19-7, but two sustained drives, of 85 and 80 yards respectively, accounted for two more Wildcat touchdowns in the final quarter, with Winnsboro's Eugene Southern hitting over from one and ten yards out to climax each drive. Quarterback Sonny Clark and halfback Wade Alexander, a hard-running offensive threat for the visitors all evening, sparked both drives with repeated short gains.

The first Louisiana College marker came in the first quarter on a 45-yard jaunt by Frank Mobley, who also kicked the extra point from placement. Both of Clark's last period placement kicks were perfect.

The Tribe gridders, who played inspired ball all during the first half, scored early in the initial period, when tackle Jimmy Berry blocked a Wildcat punt on the visitors' 28. A Mark Boatright to end Ronald Gunter aerial was complete to the one, from where Billy Joe Milstead plunged over. "Red" Nix's conversion kick split the uprights, and the Tribe had a 7-0 lead with the game not two minutes old.

With Northeast on its own 42 early in the second quarter, Milstead burst off tackle, headed for the east sideline, and went all the way for 58 yards to paydirt. Nix's placement attempt was wide, but the Indians had a 13-7 lead.

A few moments later, after Camille Detore had returned a Wildcat punt 20 yards to the Louisiana College 40, another Boatright to Gunter pass, plus a short gain by Boatright, carried for a first down to the 30, from where "Boat" heaved a long aerial to end Ted Jones in the end zone, for what proved to be the final Tribe tally. Again the conversion kick was wide.

It was all Louisiana College in the second half, with the first drive starting on their own 15, and ending with a touchdown five first downs later. The next Wildcat drive, beginning eight plays later from their 20, chalked up six first downs.

Gunter, Jim Knox, Francis Yocum, and Sammy Moore were the stalwarts of the Tribe defense, with the latter, from his line-backing slot, starting nearly every Indian tackle.

Crowville Nabs First Triumph; Thumps Gilbert

CROWVILLE, La., Nov. 14. (Special)— Joy reigned at Crowville today after the Crowville High Bulldogs, winless all season bounced back last night to smear the Gilbert Demons, 13 to 7, and send a Bulldog homecoming crowd home happy.

Darwin Southern, Crowville's out standing halfback, scampered across the Gilbert goal line to put the Bulldogs ahead in the second quarter, and early in the fourth period Huey Martin rifled a pass to Faye Riser for the second touchdown. Southern added Crowville's only conversion.

The Bulldogs, notching their first win, had lost seven straight before tying Mangham last week. Gilbert came here with a record of two wins, a tie, and six losses.

Kansas State Falls To Missouri, 16 To 6

COLUMBIA, Mo., Nov. 14. (AP)—The Missouri Tigers struck on the ground for a 16-6 victory today that spoiled Kansas State's chances of sewing up second place in the final Big Seven football standings.

Score by quarters:

Kansas State	0	0	6	0	— 6
Missouri	6	0	3	7	—16

Kansas State scoring: touchdowns, Eaton, Scarbo. Field goal, Merrifield. Conversion, Merrifield.

SUTTON SPARKS FURMAN EVA

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Nov. 14 (AP)—Russ Sutton scored one touchdown and ran 82 yards to set up another as Furman's football team defeated Florida State University 14-7 today.

MARQUETTE WINS

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 14 (AP)—After yielding the home forces a touchdown in the opening period, Marquette's hard driving football team struck once in both the second and third periods today to defeat Holy Cross 13-7.

CLEMSON TRIUMPHS

CHARLESTON, S.C., Nov. 14 (AP)—Heavily favored Clemson ran into more than it bargained for today before subduing a fired-up Citadel team, 34-13.

Alabama Springs Upset On Georgia Tech, 13-6

By MERCER BAILEY

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 14—Pass interceptions by Bobby Luna and Bill Stone started Alabama on two scoring drives today and the Crimson Tide upset Georgia Tech 13-6 in a game watched by Sugar and Gator Bowl officials.

It was the first time a Southeastern Conference team had beaten the fifth-ranked Yellow Jackets since the Tide's 54-19 victory three years ago.

The loss, Tech's second this year, didn't knock the Jackets out of the bowl picture, but it took away a lot of the luster and the victory kept 'Bama in the running for a New Year's Day date.

Sub quarterback Albert Elmore did a good job of filling in for the Tide's ailing Bart Starr and the return of fullback Lewis from the injured list gave Alabama a big hand toward its victory before 42,530 fans.

Tech couldn't handle the bigger Alabama line. The Tech runners—Leon Hardeman, Billy Teas and Glenn Turner—were held to 72 yards on the ground.

Luna intercepted a Wade Mitchell pass in the first quarter and returned it 33 yards to Tech's 21. Five plays later halfback Bill Oliver charged over from the 3. Luna converted to make it 7-0 late in the first quarter.

Given a boost by two 15-yard penalties, Tech drove 54 yards in 11 plays in the third period with Turner going over from the 3. Pepper Rodgers' conversion attempt was blocked by center Ralph Carrigan and for a while it looked as if that might be the difference.

But in the fourth sub fullback Stone stole another pass by Mitchell and returned to Tech's 48. With Luna and Lewis supplying the power, the Tide rolled over Tech's injury-riddled guard posts and scored in 11 plays. Elmore hit the middle for the last few inches.

End Bud Willis and tackle Sid Youngleman did a fine job of stopping Teas oon his favorite play, an end sweep, just as they did last year when Tech won 7-3. Guard Harry Lee and Carrigan also continually dumped Tech runners.

Georgia Tech	0	0	6	0	— 6
Alabama	7	0	0	6	—13

Georgia Tech scoring: Touchdown, Turner.

Alabama scoring: Touchdowns, Oliver, Elmore. Conversion, Luna.

BOLAND SHINES

DAVIDSON, N. C., Nov. 14 (AP)—Joe Boland, 6-foot-1 junior halfback, scored four touchdowns that led George Washington to a 33-0 Southern Conference football victory over winless Davidson today.

In an ABC tournament in Chicago in 1944 Joe Fliger made 11 strikes in a row. He fouled on the 12th ball. He bowled 290.

'Buddy' Blair Wins Place On Athletic Council For L. S. U.

Maryland Might Slaps Ole Miss Into Submission

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Nov. 14 (AP)—Maryland's pent-up scoring power broke its fetters for three touchdowns and a field goal in the second quarter today for its ninth straight victory over supposedly dangerous Mississippi, 38-0.

The nation's second-ranked team was held at bay in the first quarter by the team which pulled the upset of 1952 on it.

But within less than six minutes of the second quarter, quarterback Bernie Faloney squeezed out one touchdown and fullback Ralph Felton railroaded 42 yards for another to relieve most of the 35,000 in Byrd Stadium.

Faloney skipped nine yards for a third touchdown and then substitute fullback Dick Bielski kicked a field goal on the last play of the half to wrap up a safe 24-0 lead.

Mississippi, ranked 11th in the country, got two yards away from a touchdown in the first quarter, but otherwise was frustrated at every turn by Maryland's defensive hawks. Maryland intercepted almost as many passes as Mississippi completed, getting in the way of six by the nation's fourth best aerial team which connected on only nine out of 30.

The Maryland substitutes then added two touchdowns for good measure in the last quarter to virtually cement Maryland's selection as representative of the Atlantic Coast Conference in the Orange Bowl.

Southerners Hang 30-0 Loss On Louisiana Tech

RUSTON, La., Nov. 14 (AP)—Quarterback Bill Jerrell threw two touchdown passes and end Hub Waters and halfback Laurin Pepper scored twice each to lead Mississippi Southern to a 30-0 football victory over Louisiana Tech tonight.

Jarrel hit Waters with an 8-yard scoring pass and threw 31 to Pepper for a score. Pepper got his second touchdown on a 15-yard end run, and Waters scored again on a 12-yard pass from quarterback Jim Davenport.

Mississippi Southern	0	7	14	9	—30

Mrs. Ed Shaver beat Mrs. Jim Shamblin, 2 and 1, to reach the finals of second flight consolation. Mrs. Shaver's opponent will be the winner of today's match between Mrs. J. E. Wheeler and Mrs. Frank Davis.

Mrs. C. C. Boardman and Mrs. Allen Barham are in the third flight finals. Mrs. Boardman won over Mrs. W. L. Bendel, Jr., 1 up, and Mrs. Barham beat Mrs. L. M. Ray, 2 up. There is no consolation play in the third flight.

Newellton Falls As Ferriday Gets 26 To 0 Victory

NEWELLTON, La., Nov. 14. (Special)—The Ferriday Bulldogs, held to six points during the first half, came back strong in the second half to down the Newellton Bears, 26-0, before a capacity crowd in Newellton Friday night.

The Bears threatened early in the first period when Ronnie Doyle passed to Buddy Palmer down to the 28. But the Bulldogs defensive back, Clyde Webber, intercepted a Bear pass and stopped the threat. In the second period, after taking a fourth down Bear punt on the Bulldog 18, Bobby Glen Harmon went all the way behind some fine blocking for the first Bulldog score. Attempt to convert was no good.

In the third period after blocking a Bear punt on the Bear 22, the Bulldogs scored Harmon again again from the six. Attempt for conversion was no good.

On the third play of the fourth period the Bulldogs scored again, sending Guy Hill around end from the 13. Harmon ran the point after. Later in the fourth period after a Bear fumble, an interception by Ronnie Doyle and another Bear fumble, the Bulldogs sent Don Horton around end for the last score from the eight. Max Fugler kicked the point after.

Late in the last period the Bears rolled again with Terry Head passing to Jerry Head down to the Bulldog 37. Then Ronnie Doyle threw to Jerry Head to the Bulldog 22. Another pass, Terry Head to Buddy Palmer, was good down to the 20. But here the Bulldogs tightened and held for downs as the game ended.

Black Rascal First In Bay Meadows Run

SAN MATEO, Calif., Nov. 14. (AP)—Black Rascal, a 3-year-old owned by Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McDaniel, Arcadia, Calif., sloshed to a three-length win today in the $15,000 added handicap feature at Bay Meadows race track.

The nation's leading jockey, Willie Shoemaker, was shut out from the winner's circle. Shoemaker, who already has set a new seasonal record of 440 wins, had one place and three show horses on today's card.

Black Rascal ran as an entry with the Marteek stable's History Book, which was the pre-race favorite. History Book finished seventh.

Black Rascal with Rogelio Trejos up, was timed at 1:46 and returned $3.90, $3 and $2.80. Country Coz paid $4.80 and $4.40 for place, and Roman Arrow $3.60 to show.

Louisiana College Noses Out Northeast

Paul Martin Looks 'Em Over

You can just about count on our membership in the Cotton States Baseball League for 1954 as a concentrated drive has brought baseball fans flocking to the rescue to save the franchise for Monroe, and (some lukewarm Twin City fans may be a little shamed-faced) many of the subscribers in pro baseball stock here come from the surrounding towns, as far away as Natchitoches, El Dorado, and Tallulah, and even the Bahama Islands.

The baseball leaders meet again here tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at Hotel Virginia to recount the applications for stock. With the total well over $15,000, we can expect a call almost anytime, probably tomorrow, for a stockholders' meeting within the next few days to elect a board of directors and officers.

Monroe will host the Louisiana Junior Chamber of Commerce Junior Golf Tournament next year, we have been informed by Tom Hyland of the Jaycee sports committee here. The date hasn't been set. While on the Jaycee junior golf subject, some concern is being shown in this area about the golfing future of Don Sims, the Bastrop youth who won the northeast district Jaycee title here last year. Sims suffered a severe knee injury recently in an automobile accident.

Pro football is claiming a victory by winning only one point in its fight against the government's anti-trust suit regarding radio and television of football games. The one point permits restriction of TV when a team is playing at home. But radio and TV people are claiming victory on other points that permit no restriction whatever on radio and allow competitive TV at home when a team is on the road. The puzzler about Judge Alan K. Grim's decision in federal court at Philadelphia is how he came to such a decision in differing between radio and TV. If radio can't be restricted under any circumstances, then neither should TV. If video can be restricted during home games, then the same should apply to radio if the home club wants. The fuss isn't over yet.

Duck hunters (the season opens Tuesday) will be interested in legal shooting hours which, according to Kirt Touchstone Jr., will be sponsored daily in this newspaper by his firm. The times provided by Touchstone's organization will be the actual hours for starting and stopping the daily firing, not sunrise and sunset times. The duck hunting times will be supplied in ad form similar to the solunar tables we carry.

By WILBUR MARTIN

WACO, Tex., Nov. 14 (AP)—Underdog University of Houston, shooting for a prestige victory, got it with a bruising 37-7 victory over Baylor's ninth ranked Bears today.

The thrice-beaten Missouri Valley team scored the first two times it got the ball and a hard charging line that chewed Baylor's forward wall to bits insured the upset over the Southwest Conefrence team.

There was never much doubt that Baylor, flat as the Texas prairie, after its undefeated record was ruined by a single point last week by Texas, was going to lose. The only thing the sparse crowd of 15,000 didn't know was the final score. That and trying to figure the strategy of Coach George Sauer as he played mostly second stringers two-third of the game, made the affair interesting.

Baylor had a first string tackle, Bob Knowles, and its whizz kid quarterback, Cotton Davidson, injured in the first quarter. Sauer may have decided not to gamble on any more injuries in a non-conference game, but at no time during the game did Baylor have what is generally considered its complete first string in the game.

After Don Hargrove scored from the five and Jack Patterson punched over from the two in the first period, Houston chalked up 10 points in the third and 14 more in the final period.

Verle Cray kicked a 10-yard field goal and S. M. Meeks went nine yards for a touchdown in the third. Patterson scored on a one-yard plunge and end Ben Wilson scampered 25 yards with a blocked punt in the fourth.

Baylor's only touchdown came on the opening play of the final period when Jerry Coody climaxed a 39-yard drive from the one.

Score by quarters:

Houston	13	0	10	14—	37
Baylor	0	0	0	7—	7

Baylor scoring: touchdown, Coody. Conversion, Dupre.

7 Teams Reach Quarter-Finals Of 4-Ball Play

Seven teams are ready for action in the quarter-final round of the Bayou DeSiard Four - Ball Handicap Tournament, and the other combination is due to be settled today in a match that sends C. B. McMahon and W. C. Crowell against Dr. T. A. Brulte and Ned Leigh.

The team of Curtis Cook and H. G. Prophit will meet the winners of the remaining match to decide a quarter - finalist.

Wildcats Battle From Behind For 21 to 19 Victory

The Northeast State College Indians suffered their eighth loss of the season here last night at Brown Stadium to the Louisiana College Wildcats, 21-19.

The Indians led at halftime, 19-7, but two sustained drives, of 85 and 80 yards respectively, accounted for two more Wildcat touchdowns in the final quarter, with Winnsboro's Eugene Southern hitting over from one and ten yards out to climax each drive. Quarterback Sonny Clark and halfback Wade Alexander, a hard-running offensive threat for the visitors all evening, sparked both drives with repeated short gains.

The first Louisiana College marker came in the first quarter on a 45-yard jaunt by Frank Mobley, who also kicked the extra point from placement. Both of Clark's last period placement kicks were perfect.

The Tribe gridders, who played inspired ball all during the first half, scored early in the initial period, when tackle Jimmy Berry blocked a Wildcat punt on the visitors' 28. A Mark Boatright to end Ronald Gunter aerial was complete to the one, from where Billy Joe Milstead plunged over. "Red" Nix's conversion kick split the uprights, and the Tribe had a 7-0 lead with the game not two minutes old.

With Northeast on its own 42 early in the second quarter, Milstead burst off tackle, headed for the east sideline, and went all the way for 58 yards to paydirt. Nix's placement attempt was wide, but the Indians had a 13-7 lead.

A few moments later, after Camille Detore had returned a Wildcat punt 20 yards to the Louisiana College 40, another Boatright to Gunter pass, plus a short gain by Boatright, carried for a first down to the 30, from where "Boat" heaved a long aerial to end Ted Jones in the end zone, for what proved to be the final Tribe tally. Again the conversion kick was wide.

It was all Louisiana College in the second half, with the first drive starting on their own 15, and ending with a touchdown five first downs later. The next Wildcat drive, beginning eight plays later from their 20, chalked up six first downs.

Gunter, Jim Knox, Francis Yocum, and Sammy Moore were the stalwarts of the Tribe defense, with the latter, from his line-backing slot, starting nearly every Indian tackle.

Crowville Nabs First Triumph; Thumps Gilbert

CROWVILLE, La., Nov. 14. (Special)— Joy reigned at Crowville today after the Crowville High Bulldogs, winless all season bounced back last night to smear the Gilbert Demons, 13 to 7, and send a Bulldog homecoming crowd home happy.

Darwin Southern, Crowville's out standing halfback, scampered across the Gilbert goal line to put the Bulldogs ahead in the second quarter, and early in the fourth period Huey Martin rifled a pass to Faye Riser for the second touchdown. Southern added Crowville's only conversion.

The Bulldogs, notching their first win, had lost seven straight before tying Mangham last week. Gilbert came here with a record of two wins, a tie, and six losses.

Kansas State Falls To Missouri, 16 To 6

COLUMBIA, Mo., Nov. 14. (AP)—The Missouri Tigers struck on the ground for a 16-6 victory today that spoiled Kansas State's chances of sewing up second place in the final Big Seven football standings.

Score by quarters:

Kansas State	0	0	6	0—	6
Missouri	6	0	3	7—	16

Kansas State scoring: touchdowns, Eaton, Scarbo. Field goal, Merrifield. Conversion, Merrifield.

SUTTON SPARKS FURMAN EVA

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Nov. 14 (AP)—Russ Sutton scored one touchdown and ran 82 yards to set up another as Furman's football team defeated Florida State University 14-7 today.

MARQUETTE WINS

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 14 (AP)—After yielding the home forces a touchdown in the opening period, Marquette's hard driving football team struck once in both the second and third periods today to defeat Holy Cross 13-7.

CLEMSON TRIUMPHS

CHARLESTON, S.C., Nov. 14 (AP)—Heavily favored Clemson ran into more than it bargained for today before subduing a fired-up Citadel team, 34-13.

Rice is the only football rival that Texas has played annually since 1915.

By MERCER BAILEY

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 14—Pass interceptions by Bobby Luna and Bill Stone started Alabama on two scoring drives today and the Crimson Tide upset Georgia Tech 13-6 in a game watched by Sugar and Gator Bowl officials.

It was the first time a Southeastern Conference team had beaten the fifth-ranked Yellow Jackets since the Tide's 54-19 victory three years ago.

The loss, Tech's second this year, didn't knock the Jackets out of the bowl picture, but it took away a lot of the luster and the victory kept 'Bama in the running for a New Year's Day date.

Sub quarterback Albert Elmore did a good job of filling in for the Tide's ailing Bart Starr and the return of fullback Lewis from the injured list gave Alabama a big hand toward its victory before 42,530 fans.

Tech couldn't handle the bigger Alabama line. The Tech runners—Leon Hardeman, Billy Teas and Glenn Turner—were held to 72 yards on the ground.

Luna intercepted a Wade Mitchell pass in the first quarter and returned it 33 yards to Tech's 21. Five plays later halfback Bill Oliver charged over from the 3. Luna converted to make it 7-0 late in the first quarter.

Given a boost by two 15-yard penalties, Tech drove 54 yards in 11 plays in the third period with Turner going over from the 3. Pepper Rodgers' conversion attempt was blocked by center Ralph Carrigan and for a while it looked as if that might be the difference.

But in the fourth sub fullback Stone stole another pass by Mitchell and returned to Tech's 48. With Luna and Lewis supplying the power, the Tide rolled over Tech's injury-riddled guard posts and scored in 11 plays. Elmore hit the middle for the last few inches.

End Bud Willis and tackle Sid Youngleman did a fine job of stopping Teas oon his favorite play, an end sweep, just as they did last year when Tech won 7-3. Guard Harry Lee and Carrigan also continually dumped Tech runners.

BOLAND SHINES

DAVIDSON, N. C., Nov. 14 (AP)—Joe Boland, 6-foot-1 junior halfback, scored four touchdowns that led George Washington to a 33-0 Southern Conference football victory over winless Davidson today.

In an ABC tournament in Chicago in 1944 Joe Fliger made 11 strikes in a row. He fouled on the 12th ball. He bowled 290.

'Buddy' Blair Wins Place On Athletic Council For L. S. U.

John Doles, Plain Dealing, was elected to the one seat open on the board of supervisors; and named to the alumni council were Mrs. Annie Boyd Grayson, Baton Rouge; Horace Wilkinson, III, Port Allen; Charles Farrell, Houston, Tex.; and Kenneth Toler, Jackson, Miss.

Maryland Might Slaps Ole Miss Into Submission

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Nov. 14 (AP)—Maryland's pent-up scoring power broke its fetters for three touchdowns and a field goal in the second quarter today for its ninth straight victory over supposedly dangerous Mississippi, 38-0.

The nation's second-ranked team was held at bay in the first quarter by the team which pulled the upset of 1952 on it.

But within less than six minutes of the second quarter, quarterback Bernie Faloney squeezed out one touchdown and fullback Ralph Felton railroaded 42 yards for another to relieve most of the 35,000 in Byrd Stadium.

Faloney skipped nine yards for a third touchdown and then substitute fullback Dick Bielski kicked a field goal on the last play of the half to wrap up a safe 24-0 lead.

Mississippi, ranked 11th in the country, got two yards away from a touchdown in the first quarter, but otherwise was frustrated at every turn by Maryland's defensive hawks. Maryland intercepted almost as many passes as Mississippi completed, getting in the way of six by the nation's fourth best aerial team which connected on only nine out of 30.

The Maryland substitutes then added two touchdowns for good measure in the last quarter to virtually cement Maryland's selection as representative of the Atlantic Coast Conference in the Orange Bowl.

Southerners Hang 30-0 Loss On Louisiana Tech

RUSTON, La., Nov. 14 (AP)—Quarterback Bill Jerrell threw two touchdown passes and end Hub Waters and halfback Laurin Pepper scored twice each to lead Mississippi Southern to a 30-0 football victory over Louisiana Tech tonight.

Jarrel hit Waters with an 8-yard scoring pass and threw 31 to Pepper for a score. Pepper got his second touchdown on a 15-yard end run, and Waters scored again on a 12-yard pass from quarterback Jim Davenport.

Mississippi Southern	0	7	14	9—	30

Newellton Falls As Ferriday Gets 26 To 0 Victory

NEWELLTON, La., Nov. 14. (Special)—The Ferriday Bulldogs, held to six points during the first half, came back strong in the second half to down the Newellton Bears, 26-0, before a capacity crowd in Newellton Friday night.

The Bears threatened early in the first period when Ronnie Doyle passed to Buddy Palmer down to the 28. But the Bulldogs defensive back, Clyde Webber, intercepted a Bear pass and stopped the threat. In the second period, after taking a fourth down Bear punt on the Bulldog 18, Bobby Glen Harmon went all the way behind some fine blocking for the first Bulldog score. Attempt to convert was no good.

In the third period after blocking a Bear punt on the Bear 22, the Bulldogs scored Harmon again again from the six. Attempt for conversion was no good.

On the third play of the fourth period the Bulldogs scored again, sending Guy Hill around end from the 13. Harmon ran the point after. Later in the fourth period after a Bear fumble, an interception by Ronnie Doyle and another Bear fumble, the Bulldogs sent Don Horton around end for the last score from the eight. Max Fugler kicked the point after.

Late in the last period the Bears rolled again with Terry Head passing to Jerry Head down to the Bulldog 37. Then Ronnie Doyle threw to Jerry Head to the Bulldog 22. Another pass, Terry Head to Buddy Palmer, was good down to the 20. But here the Bulldogs tightened and held for downs as the game ended.

Black Rascal First In Bay Meadows Run

SAN MATEO, Calif., Nov. 14. (AP)—Black Rascal, a 3-year-old owned by Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McDaniel, Arcadia, Calif., sloshed to a three-length win today in the $15,000 added handicap feature at Bay Meadows race track.

The nation's leading jockey, Willie Shoemaker, was shut out from the winner's circle. Shoemaker, who already has set a new seasonal record of 440 wins, had one place and three show horses on today's card.

Black Rascal ran as an entry with the Marteek stable's History Book, which was the pre-race favorite. History Book finished seventh.

Black Rascal with Rogelio Trejos up, was timed at 1:46 and returned $3.90, $3 and $2.80. Country Coz paid $4.80 and $4.40 for place, and Roman Arrow $8.60 to show.

Maroons Smash Tigers; Vandy Topples Green Wave

By HUGH A MULLIGAN

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 14 (AP)—Fragile Bobby Collins—taking over for Jackie Parker, injured Southeastern Conference top scorer—passed and ran Mississippi State to a 26-13 football victory over Louisiana State today.

Collins, 160-pound junior, stepped into the game after Parker received a crushed jawbone in the first half. Frail-looking but tough, Collins passed 27 yards for one touchdown and bulled his way the final inches for another to break a 13-13 half-time tie.

It was the L.S.U. homecoming and 33,000 fans watched Collins' superb substitution, yelling vain encouragement to L. S. U. players, who fumbled away the game. It was L. S. U.'s third straight loss.

Before he left the game, Parker jumped three yards through the middle for the Maroon's first touchdown and heaved a 32-yard pass to halfback Arthur Davis to set up another.

Injured two plays after the spectacular pass play, the blond whiz kid stayed in the game long enough to hand off to fullback George Suda who blasted the middle of the line for eight yards and a score.

L.S.U. managed to turn a Mississippi State fumble into their only other score. Guard Sammy Leaks scrabbled up the ball for L.S.U. to start a 45-yard drive. Substitute halfback Chico Gonzales ripped over from the two-yard line after Marchand and Levi Johns moved the ball downfield by taking advantage of State's weak spots in the line.

Iowa Runs Wild To Jar Gophers With 27-0 Loss

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Nov. 14 (AP)—Iowa struck All-America Paul Giel and his Minnesota mates with almost unbelievable fury today to trounce the Gophers 27-0 as Iowa's biggest football crowd of 53,355 rejoiced in the ultimate of glee.

Not since 1921 has an Iowa team humiliated a Gopher team by such a margin. The Hawks of 1921 did it at Minneapolis, 41-7. To many of the tremendous gathering today the score was legendary and they stood up this modern conquest so enthusiastically they didn't stir from their seats until many minutes after the final horn.

Rayville Aims At Oakdale

Tickets Go On Sale Tomorrow For Two Big Prep Grid Tilts

Advanced sale of tickets for the Ouachita-West Monroe football game here at 2:15 o'clock Thanksgiving afternoon will begin tomorrow at Lockhart Sports Shop, Calvert's Drugs, and the high schools, it was announced last night by Mrs. Elizabeth Manhein.

Tickets for the Ouachita-Neville game here Friday night also go on sale tomorrow, Neville offering its share at Neville High, and Ouachita, its tickets already claimed in mail orders, placing the pasteboards for those who ordered at three pick-up stations, Lockhart's, Calvert's and O. P. H. S.

Ducats for both games are priced the same—$2 for a box seat, $1.50 for reserved, $1 for general, and 50 cents for students.

RAYVILLE, La., Nov. 14. (Special)—The Rayville Hornets, with the northeast Louisiana Class A championship safely tucked away, are making ready to meet the Oakdale Warriors, champions of district five, in the first of the state's inter - district playoff games next weekend.

Coach "Red" Campbell's Hornets, bringing Rayville its first championship team of any kind since the Class B days here of around twenty years ago, clinched the district three title last night by whipping the Oak Grove Tigers, 49 to 0, at Oak Grove.

Rayville representatives will meet Sunday afternoon with Oakdale school officials at Alexandria to decide where their playoff game will be played. If Rayville wins the right to decide on the site, the game may be played here or at Brown Field on the campus of Northeast Louisiana State College at Monroe.

Winner of the Rayville - Oak Grove game will meet the winner of a playoff between Ruston, district two champs, and Springhill, kingpins of district one and defending state champs, on December 11.

Rayville actually had been conceded its district title with the 18-0 defeat of Jena two weeks ago as Oak Grove, last conference for for the Hornets, was given little chance of stopping the Richland Parish lads.

The parade of Rayville touchdowns last night saw Emmett Brown and Keith Amos score three apiece, "Red" Hendricks and John Brech count one apiece, and Amos also added the lone extra point.

Vols Use Field Goal To Defeat Florida, 9 To 7

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Nov. 14. (AP)—Roger Rotroff, Tennessee end who stands only 5 foot 10 playing a position usually marked for big men only, stole the ball from Florida in the opening minutes to set up a touchdown and caught a 54-yard pass in the closing minutes to set up a field goal that gave the favored Vols a 9-7 victory today.

In between those two key plays, Florida's line easily pushed Tennessee around and repeatedly moved into Vol territory. Though completely dominating statistics, only once could the Gators turn their threats to a touchdown, that on a 50-yard drive with Tommy Haddock doing most of the running and Fred Robinson scoring on a quarterback sneak.

Harry Speers converted for a 7-6 Florida lead. But Jimmy Wade, Tennessee tailback who had scored his team's touchdown, heaved a long one with just over five minutes left in the game and Rotroff grabbed it for the lone Tennessee pass completion. Then Pat Shires kicked the field goal from the Florida two when Florida's line stopped the Vol runners.

Score by quarters:

Tennessee	6	0	0	3—9
Florida	0	7	0	0—7

Tennessee scoring: touchdown, Wade. Field goal, Shires.

Florida scoring: touchdown, Robinson. Conversion, Speers.

Longhorns Battle From Behind To Drop Christians

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 14. (AP)—Bunny Andrews, a team captain who wasn't good enough to be a starter, threw a 49-yard fourth quarter touchdown pass today and started Texas on its way to a 13-3 win over Texas Christian.

Frustrated by fumbles and incomplete passes and harrassed by T. C. U.'s great Ray McKown most of the afternoon, Texas made its second touchdown on a one-yard plunge by fullback Dougal Cameron with 37 seconds left to play.

Texas	0	0	0	13—13

Texas scoring: Touchdowns, Schriewer, Cameron. Conversions, Jones.

T. C. U. scoring: Field goal, McKown.

Buckeyes Fight From Behind To Trounce Purdue

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 14 (AP)—Ohio state came from behind for the fifth time this season to defeat Purdue's undermanned Boilermakers 21-6 today in a Western Conference contest before a crowd of 77, 465.

The Bucks marched 72 yards in nine plays in the second period with quarterback John Borton passing 24 yards to end Tom Hague for the tying touchdown, and 194-pound Tad Weed's conversion put the Bucks out front to stay.

In the fourth period Ohio went 74 yards in 15 plays with quarterback Dave Leggett sneaking a yard for the clinching touchdown. Howard (Hopalong) Cassady put it on ice midway in the final session with a 12 yard romp over tackle to climax nine play 64 yard drive.

Oregon Spoils Bowl Hopes Of California By Tying Bears, 0-0

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 14. (AP)—Oregon and the California Bears battled to a scoreless tie here today in their Pacific Coast Conference football game before 24,000. The deadlock eliminated California from its already slim chance to go to the Rose Bowl.

California got one foot from the Oregon goal, in an 86-yard drive in the final quarter but also yielded the ball on downs.

The Bears now have lost two conference games and have a tie as against two victories.

At least ten are considered strong possibilities to win as Gibsland, Weston, Eros, Calhoun, Athens, Jonesboro-Hodge, Friendship, Ruston, Neville and Simsboro are considered potential champions. West Monroe, a new school is listed as a darkhorse along with Arcadia which will be opening its season in the tournament play, and Lisbon, Dubach, Choudrant, and Quitman.

The tourney begins Thursday night and follows with afternoon and night sessions Friday, and all-day play Saturday.

Competent officials, approved by the Louisiana High School Athletic Association, have been secured to handle the tournament.

Mustang Passes Master Porkers By 13 To 7 Edge

DALLAS, Nov. 14. (AP)—Duane Nutt pulled Southern Methodist over battling Arkansas today with bullseye passing that brought a 13-7 victory and kept the Methodists in the fight for the Southwest Conference football championship.

The versatile quarterback's throwing set up one touchdown and brought a second as S. M. U. came from behind to dominate the game the last three quarters.

Doyle Nix, the pass - catching S. M. U., end, scored both of the touchdowns, one on a pass from southpaw Hal O'Brien and the other on a toss from Nutt.

Lamar McHan, the blond bomber - runner of Arkansas, shoved the Razorbacks out in front in the opening period with his passing and dashing and he was a threat to the Methodist all the way.

Preston Carpenter made the Arkansas touchdown and McHan kicked the extra point. Sam Stollenwerck converted for S. M. U.

Army Tags Penn For 21-14 Edge On Vann Passes

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14. (AP)—Quarterback Pete Vann passed Army to the top of the eastern football rankings today with a 21-14 victory over Pennsylvania, which had been favored by one touchdown.

With the score tied 14-14 in the final period, Army took a Penn kickoff and moved 75 yards in ten plays for the deciding touchdown, Vann passing twice for big chunks of yardage. He hit Tom Bell for a 19-yard advance to Penn's 45, and two plays later found the same target for a 27-yard gain to the 15. At that point the Cadet running attack took over and Pat Uebel went the final nine yards on an off tackle slant.

Joe Varaitis scored both the Penn touchdowns.

Score by quarters:

Army	7	7	0	7—24
Penn	0	7	0	7—14

Oregon State Scores Upset On New Field

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 14 (AP)—Oregon State moved into its new stadium today and celebrated the occasion with a 7-0 upset victory over Washington State.

Apparently inspired by the acquisition of a new concrete bowl, presently seating 22,000, Oregon State turned back three early thrusts by Washington State, and then punched over the only touchdown of the game.

This came late in the second quarter with Oregon State moving 63 yards in six plays, Halfback Chuck Brackett lunged into the end zone on the next play, and Edigar converted.

Tulane Defeated On 2 Last Period Passes, 21 To 7

By JAMES SAGGUS

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14. (AP)—Substitute quarterback Billy Holmes threw two touchdown passes to end Charlie Hawkins late in the fourth period today to give Vanderbilt a 21-7 football victory over favored Tulane.

Holmes connected to Hawkins with a 7-yard pass with five minutes left. With less than two minutes remaining, he added a 6-yard touchdown pass after a fumble recovery on the Tulane six.

Guard Bobby Goodall added both conversions.

It was a ragged game throughout with spluttering offensives and erring defensives, but it provided Vanderbilt its first Southeastern Conference victory of the season.

Holmes, who took over for injured regular Jim Looney in the third quarter, took advantage of an erratic Tulane pass defense to score the upset over Tulane, a two touchdown favorite.

Fullback Bill Krietemeyer plowed six yards for Vandy's first period touchdown and converted.

Tulane scored in the third on a 3-yard pass from quarterback Pete Clement to halfback Max McGee, with Clement converting.

Score by quarters:

Duck, Deer Seasons Open In Louisiana This Week

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 14 (Special)—Duck shooting in Louisiana becomes legal at noon on Tuesday, according to a reminder from L. D. Young, Jr., director of the Louisiana Wild Life and Fisheries Commissoin. The season on waterfowl will end January 10, and the limits are as follows: Ducks—four per day or eight in possession (including not more than one wood duck); geese—five per day or in possession (including not more than two Canadas or speckle-bellies); and coots (poule-d'Eau)—10 per day or in possession.

All hunters are cautioned that they must have a valid Louisiana hunting license regardless of age. In addition, a duck stamp is necessary for all duck and goose shooters over the age of 16. This stamp may be purchased from your local post office. Waterfowl may be taken with shotgun not larger than 10 gauge or with bow and arrow. Shotgun used must NOT be capable of holding more than three shells in magazine and chamber combined. It is illegal to take waterfowl with rifle or pistol. Shooting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset, except that on opening day shooting begins at noon.

Deer hunting in the following parishes becomes legal on Wednesday: Ascension, Assumption, Avoyelles, Beauregard, East Baton Rouge, East Feliciana, Evangeline, Iberia, Iberville, Jefferson, Lafayette, Lafourche, Livingston, Plaquemines, Pointe Coupee, St. Bernard, St. Charles, St. Helena, St. James, St. John, St. Landry, St. Martin, St. Mary, St. Tammany, Tangipahoa, Terrebonne, Union (open in that portion of parish east of the Missouri Pacific Railroad from the Arkansas line via Litroe, Dean, Halle, Spencer and Sterlington), Vermilion, Washington and West Baton Rouge. The season in Evangeline parish will end on November 23, but that in the other parishes listed will end on January 1. A legal deer is a buck deer with antlers at least three inches long. Deer bag limits are one per day and two per season.

Maroons Smash Tigers; Vandy Topples Green Wave

By HUGH A MULLIGAN

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 14 (AP)—Fragile Bobby Collins—taking over for Jackie Parker, injured Southeastern Conference top scorer—passed and ran Mississippi State to a 26-13 football victory over Louisiana State today.

Collins, 160-pound junior, stepped into the game after Parker received a crushed jawbone in the first half. Frail-looking but tough, Collins passed 27 yards for one touchdown and bulled his way the final inches for another to break a 13-13 half-time tie.

It was the L.S.U. homecoming and 32,000 fans watched Collins' superb substitution, yelling vain encouragement to L. S. U. players, who fumbled away the game. It was L. S. U.'s third straight loss.

Before he left the game, Parker dumped three yards through the middle for the Maroon's first touchdown and heaved a 32-yard pass to halfback Arthur Davis to set up another.

Injured two plays after the spectacular pass play, the blond whizkid stayed in the game long enough to hand off to fullback George Suda who blasted the middle of the line for eight yards and a score.

L.S.U. managed to turn a Mississippi State fumble into their only other score. Guard Sammy Leake dobbled up the ball for L.S.U. to start a 45-yard drive. Substitute halfback Chico Gonzales ripped over from the two-yard line after Marchand and Levi Johns moved the ball downfield by taking advantage of State's weak spots in the line.

Score by quarters:

Miss. State	6	7	7	6—26
L. S. U.	0	13	0	0—13

Mississippi State scoring: touchdowns, Parker Suda, Davis, Collins. Conversions, Glasgow 2.

Iowa Runs Wild To Jar Gophers With 27-0 Loss

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Nov. 14 (AP)—Iowa struck All-America Paul Giel and his Minnesota mates with almost unbelievable fury today to trounce the Gophers 27-0 as Iowa's biggest football crowd of 53,355 received in the ultimate of glee.

Not since 1921 has an Iowa team humiliated a Gopher team by such a margin. The Hawks of 1921 did it at Minneapolis, 41-7. To many of the tremendous gathering today it's score was legendary and they rod up this modern conquest so enthusiastically they didn't stir from their seats until many minutes after the final horn.

Score by quarters:

Rayville Aims At Oakdale

Tickets Go On Sale Tomorrow For Two Big Prep Grid Tilts

Advanced sale of tickets for the Ouachita-West Monroe football game here at 2:15 o'clock Thanksgiving afternoon will begin tomorrow at Lockhart Sports Shop, Calvert's Drugs, and the high schools, it was announced last night by Mrs. Elizabeth Manhein.

Tickets for the Ouachita-Neville game here Friday night also go on sale tomorrow, Neville offering its share at Neville High, and Ouachita, its tickets already claimed in mail orders, placing the pasteboards for those who ordered at three pick-up stations, Lockhart's, Calvert's and O. P. H. S.

Ducats for both games are priced the same—$2 for a box seat, $1.50 for reserved, $1 for general, and 50 cents for students.

RAYVILLE, La., Nov. 14. (Special)—The Rayville Hornets, with the northeast Louisiana Class A championship safely tucked away, are making ready to meet the Oakdale Warriors, champions of district five, in the first of the state's inter - district playoff games next weekend.

Coach "Red" Campbell's Hornets, bringing Rayville its first championship team of any kind since the Class B days here of around twenty years ago, clinched the district three title last night by whipping the Oak Grove Tigers, 49 to 0, at Oak Grove.

Rayville representatives will meet Sunday afternoon with Oakdale school officials at Alexandria to decide where their playoff game will be played. If Rayville wins the right to decide on the site, the game may be played here or at Brown Field on the campus of Northeast Louisiana State College at Monroe.

Winner of the Rayville - Oak Grove game will meet the winner of a playoff between Ruston, district two champs, and Springhill, kingpins of district one and defending state champs, on December 11.

Rayville actually had been conceded its district title with the 18-0 defeat of Jena two weeks ago as Oak Grove, last conference for for the Hornets, was given little chance of stopping the Richland Parish lads.

The parade of Rayville touchdowns last night saw Emmett Brown and Keith Amos score three apiece, "Red" Hendricks and John Brech count one apiece, and Amos also added the lone extra point.

Vols Use Field Goal To Defeat Florida, 9 To 7

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Nov. 14. (AP)—Roger Rotroff, Tennessee end who stands only 5 foot 10 playing a position usually marked for big men only, stole the ball from Florida in the opening minutes to set up a touchdown and caught a 54-yard pass in the closing minutes to set up a field goal that gave the favored Vols a 9-7 victory today.

In between those two key plays, Florida's line easily pushed Tennessee around and repeatedly moved into Vol territory. Though completely dominating statistics, only once could the Gators turn their threats to a touchdown, that on a 50-yard drive with Tommy Haddock doing most of the running and Fred Robinson scoring on a quarterback sneak.

Harry Speers converted for a 7-6 Florida lead. But Jimmy Wade, Tennessee tailback who had scored his team's touchdown, heaved a long one with just over five minutes left in the game and Rotroff grabbed it for the lone Tennessee pass completion. Then Pat Shires kicked the field goal from the Florida two when Florida's line stopped the Vol runners.

Score by quarters:

Tennessee	6	0	0	3—9
Florida	0	7	0	0—7

Tennessee scoring: touchdown, Wade. Field goal, Shires.

Florida scoring: touchdown, Robinson. Conversion, Speers.

Longhorns Battle From Behind To Drop Christians

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 14. (AP)—Bunny Andrews, a team captain who wasn't good enough to be a starter, threw a 49-yard fourth quarter touchdown pass today and started Texas on its way to a 13-3 win over Texas Christian.

Frustrated by fumbles and incomplete passes and harrassed by T. C. U.'s great Ray McKown most of the afternoon, Texas made its second touchdown on a one-yard plunge by fullback Dougal Cameron with 37 seconds left to play.

Texas	0	0	0	13—13

Texas scoring: Touchdowns, Schriewer, Cameron. Conversions, Jones.

T. C. U. scoring: Field goal, McKown.

Buckeyes Fight From Behind To Trounce Purdue

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 14 (AP)—Ohio state came from behind for the fifth time this season to defeat Purdue's undermanned Boilermakers 21-6 today in a Western Conference contest before a crowd of 77, 465.

The Bucks marched 72 yards in nine plays in the second period with quarterback John Borton passing 24 yards to end Tom Hague for the tying touchdown, and 134-pound Tad Weed's conversion put the Bucks out front to stay.

In the fourth period Ohio went 74 yards in 15 plays with quarterback Dave Leggett sneaking a yard for the clinching touchdown. Howard (Hopalong) Cassady put it on ice midway in the final session with a 12 yard romp over tackle to climax nine play 64 yard drive.

Oregon Spoils Bowl Hopes Of California By Tying Bears, 0-0

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 14. (AP)—Oregon and the California Bears battled to a scoreless tie here today in their Pacific Coast Conference football game before 24,000. The deadlock eliminated California from its already slim chance to go to the Rose Bowl.

California got one foot from the Oregon goal, in an 86-yard drive in the final quarter but also yielded the ball on downs.

The Bears now have lost two conference games and have a tie as against two victories.

Simsboro Offers Three-Day Cage Meet This Week

SIMSBORO, La., Nov. 14 (Special)Simsboro High School is sponsoring its first annual invitational basketball tournament here Thursday, Friday and Saturday with promise of an outstanding tourney for a first-year production.

Sixteen boys' teams and ten girls' teams have entered with a good cross section offered of the better teams in all classes in this area.

The 16 boys combines represent Gibsland, Dubach, Choudrant, Weston, West Monroe, Eros, Quitman, Calhoun, Aracadia, Athens, Lisbon, Jonesboro-Hodge, Friendship, Ruston, Neville of Monroe, and Simsboro. At least ten are considered strong possibilities to win as Gibsland, Weston, Eros, Calhoun, Athens, Jonesboro-Hodge, Friendship, Ruston, Neville and Simsboro are considered potential champions. West Monroe, a new school is listed as a darkhorse along with Arcadia which will be opening its season in the tournament play, and Lisbon, Dubach, Choudrant, and Quitman.

The tourney begins Thursday night and follows with afternoon and night sessions Friday, and all-day play Saturday.

Competent officials, approved by the Louisiana High School Athletic Association, have been secured to handle the tournament.

Duck, Deer Seasons Open In Louisiana This Week

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 14 (Special)—Duck shooting in Louisiana becomes legal at noon on Tuesday, according to a reminder from L. D. Young, Jr., director of the Louisiana Wild Life and Fisheries Commissoin. The season on waterfowl will end January 10, and the limits are as follows: Ducks—four per day or eight in possession (including not more than one wood duck); geese—five per day or in possession (including not more than two Canadas or speckle-bellies); and coots (poule-d'Eau)—10 per day or in possession.

All hunters are cautioned that they must have a valid Louisiana hunting license regardless of age. In addition, a duck stamp is necessary for all duck and goose shooters over the age of 16. This stamp may be purchased from your local post office. Waterfowl may be taken with shotgun not larger than 10 gauge or with bow and arrow. Shotgun used must NOT be capable of holding more than three shells in magazine and chamber combined. It is illegal to take waterfowl with rifle or pistol. Shooting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset, except that on opening day shooting begins at noon.

Deer hunting in the following parishes becomes legal on Wednesday: Ascension, Assumption, Avoyelles, Beauregard, East Baton Rouge, East Feliciana, Evangeline, Iberia, Iberville, Jefferson, Lafayette, Lafourche, Livingston, Plaquemines, Pointe Coupee, St. Bernard, St. Charles, St. Helena, St. James, St. John, St. Landry, St. Martin, St. Mary, St. Tammany, Tangipahoa, Terrebonne, Union (open in that portion of parish east of the Missouri Pacific Railroad from the Arkansas line via Litroe, Dean, Haile, Spencer and Sterlington), Vermilion, Washington and West Baton Rouge. The season in Evangeline parish will end on November 23, but that in the other parishes listed will end on January 1. A legal deer is a buck deer with antlers at least three inches long. Deer bag limits are one per day and two per season.

Start's Sextet Plays Mangham Cagers Monday

START, La., Nov. 14. (Special)—The Start High School girls' basketball team will visit Mangham High Monday night to offer Mangham a practice - game chance at revenge for the loss taken here last Monday, 45-23.

Start's forwards Kathie Jan Fleischmann, LaJuana Flint and Mary Joyce Fuller proved too much for their opponents in the last game while Emma Jo Watts, Joyce Garland, Pat Fuller, and Fay Trisler turned in fine guard work for Start's sextet.

Coach L. E. Traxler's Start boys' team has started practice but is not yet ready to take on opponents.

Badgers Upset Illini; Gamecocks Halt Mountaineers

By CHRIST EDMONDS

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 14 (AP)—Wisconsin spotted Illinois a first period touchdown then turned loose a terrific ground attack to upset the nation's third ranking football team, 34-7.

An all-time record Camp Randall Stadium crowd of 52,887 went wild as the Badgers, cranked up to fever pitch, put the clamps on the Illini's J. C. Caroline and Mickey Bates for the first time this year, and took control of the game completely after Illinois' opening score.

The loss dropped Illinois from the undefeated class and left the Illini and Wisconsin tied for second with 4-1 records. Michigan State finished conference play today with a 14-6 victory over Michigan and a 5-1 slate. But Wisconsin meets Minnesota and Illinois faces Northwestern in 1953 wrapups next week.

Victories for Illinois and Wisconsin would leave all three as co-champions.

Sophomore quarterback Jimmy Miller and senior halfbacks Harland Carl, Jerry Witt and Bob Lamphere racked up the Badger touchdowns. Young Miller cashed in for two. However, Big Alan (The Horse) Ameche was the ground-gaining powerhouse off the fullback post, with 145 yards. Tackle Bill Miller placekicked four conversions but Wendy Gulseth missed the last. It made no difference.

Illinois' lone touchdown was by Ken Miller, who plunged from the one to cap a 66-yard drive midway in the first quarter. Miller also kicked the point.

Score by quarters:

Illinois	7	0	0	0—7

Illinois scoring: touchdown K. Miller. Conversion K. Miller.

Johnson Guides Rice In Victory Over Ags, 34-7

HOUSTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—David (Kosse) Johnson, a hard-charging, ground-gaining fullback, added blocking and pass catching to his specialties today to pull the Rice Owls together after a shaky start and lead them to a 34-7 victory over Texas A. and M.

Johnson took key roles in a pair of second quarter Rice touchdowns after the Aggies had jumped into an early 7-0 lead in a game Rice had to win to stay in the Southwest Conference championship scramble.

Score by quarters:

Texas A&M	7	0	0	0—7

Texas A & M scoring: touchdown, Magouirk. Conversion, Kettler.

Rice scoring: touchdowns, K. Johnson, Nesrsta, Rucka, Kellogg, Bridges. Conversions, Fenstemaker 2, K. Johnson, Moegle.

Bobbles Almost Send Kentucky Down To Defeat

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 14. (AP)—Kentucky's supposed romp against Memphis State turned into a fumbling nightmare and it took a last half spurt for the Wildcats to gain a tough 20-7 football victory today.

The crowd of 20,000 saw Kentucky fumble away the ball six times in what was scheduled as a prep for next week's finale against Tennessee.

Score by quarters:

Memphis State	0	0	0	7—	7

Memphis State scoring: touchdown, Clayton. Conversion, Keller.

Double-Main Grapple Event Tuesday Night

A double - main event wrestling card is slated for Gus Kallio's Arena Tuesday night; with crowd-pleaser Al Massey vs. Jack "Stinger" Steele, and Rex Mobley facing Danny Dusek. Both bouts will be two - of - three falls to win, with a 75-minute time limit. Bill Barney will referee.

Massey and Mobley were defeated last week by the Steele-Dusek team in a tag match, but claim they got a raw deal, so are out for revenge in individual matches this week.

Steele says he can "sting" anybody, and will show Massey this without doubt Tuesday, and Dusek, the "holler" guy, says both Mobley and Massey are crybabies, that he is one of the famous Duseks, and can handle Rex any week.

Tuesday night will be a bad night for the hair - pulling, choking, trunk-grabbing villains, for Kallio says he will fine anybody for such tactics $1 for each offense, including gouging, kicking, and throwing an opponent out of the ring. A foul judge will rule at ringside to keep tally on the offenders, with the total sum to be donated to the Good Fellows Christmas Fund.

The promoter's reasoning is that there is some good in everyone—even mean wrestlers, so when they commit some illegal trick on the mat, they will actually be doing some good, for they will be donating to the Fund.

Kallio states Wrestling Commissioner Dave Silverstein is 100 per cent behind the "New Deal Rules," and is of the opinion that anything is worth a try for cleaner matches.

GRUNT AND GROAN specialist, Danny Dusek, (above) who grunted and groaned plenty in his local match last week. Tuesday night he faces Rex Mobley in one-half of a double-main event; while Al Massey goes against Jack "Stinger" Steele in the other half.

Uclans Trounce Huskies To Tie For League Lead

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14 (AP)—Backfield stars Paul Cameron and little Pete Dailey ran the Washington Huskies into the mud of Memorial Coliseum today as U. C. L. A. rolled to a 22-6 victory and a tie with Stanford in the close Pacific Coast Conference Rose Bowl race.

The game started in a driving rain and only 13,302 fans, plus King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece, were brave enough to turn out for the contest.

Washington was stubborn for one quarter but Dailey, at 168 pounds one of the lightest fullbacks on a major team in the nation, broke down the Husky defense with a 45-yard run to the enemy 28.

Left halfback Cameron applied the clincher with successive runs of 17 and the final eight yards for the first touchdown. That was the first of his two touchdowns for the dreary afternoon, and gave U. C. L. A. a 7-0 halftime lead.

U. C. L. A. scored 15 points in the third period on Cameron's 20-yard run for one touchdown, a 46-yard pass from his alternate, Primo Villanueva, to halfback Bill Stits, and a safety. This sent U. C. L. A. into a 22-0 lead going into the final quarter.

Score by quarters:

Washington	0	0	0	6—	6
UCLA	0	7	15	0—	22

Washington scoring: Touchdown: Houston.

West Virginia's Bowl Hopes Fade With 20-14 Loss

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 14. (AP)—Quarterback Johnny Gramling scored twice and passed for a third touchdown here today to lead South Carolina to a 20-14 victory probably dimming West Virginia's hopes for a bowl bid and snapping the nation's longest winning streak at 13.

The Gamecocks put on a display of ground power which outshone the West Virginians' much-publicized game which had seen it through victories over Pitt and Penn State earlier in the season.

The game was played before 31,000 fans, most of whom had come with the hope of seeing West Virginia gain a bid for one of the major bowls.

But South Carolina squelched the hope in a thrilling contest, marred by two crucial Mountaineer fumbles which set up two Gamecock scores.

West Virginia flexed its muscles after taking the opening kickoff and working the ball from its 27 to the South Carolina seven. But there Joe Marconi, on a pitchout from Freddy Wyant, let the ball squirt out of his hands and Blackie Kincaid, an invader from Ansted, W. Va., fell on the ball for S. C.'s first big break.

Score by quarters:

South Carolina	7	6	7	0—20
West Virginia	0	7	7	0—14

South Carolina scoring: touchdowns, Gramling 2, G. Wilson. Conversions, Jarrett, Kincaid.

HARVARD BARELY WINS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 14 (AP)—Harvard built a three touchdown lead against Brown and then staved off the aroused Bruins—who scored twice in the fourth quarter—for a 27-20 triumph today before 20,500 fans in Harvard Stadium.

Notre Dame Puts Crusher On North Carolina, 34 To 14

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Nov. 14 (AP)—Fullback Neil Worden was the main blockbuster of Notre Dame's savage wrecking crew today as the nation's No. 1 college football team crushed North Carolina for its seventh straight victory of the season. The score was 34-14.

Following the usual "grind-em-out" tactics, the Fighting Irish scored in every period on bone-rocking drives of 69, 71, 80, 81, and 57 yards.

Worden, a thick-legged senior from Milwaukee, shot 15 yards with a pitchout for Notre Dame's first score in the opening minutes and broke away on a 52-yard touchdown run in the third period.

The fired-up Carolinians, losers of their last four games, gave a crowd of 43,000 some exciting moments by marching 63 yards to a touchdown in the second period on the fine passing of sophomore Marshall Newman, and by going 57 yards for another touchdown in the final quarter.

Notre Dame	7	14	7	6—	34

Michigan State Socks Michigan By 14-6 Margin

EAST LANSING, Mich., Nov. 14 (AP)—Michigan State, fighting for a trip to the Rose Bowl, smashed into first place and won at least a share of the Big Ten conference championship today by grinding out a 14-6 victory over rival Michigan.

Playing unspectacular but steady football, the Spartans downed Michigan with touchdown marches of 89 and 66 yards.

It shot them past Illinois into conference leadership with a 5-1 record. Unbeaten Illinois was upset by Wisconsin today and fell into a second-place tie with the Badgers, each with a 4-1 mark.

Michigan State, in its first season in the Big Ten, has completed its conference schedule. Illinois and Wisconsin each have one game to go, but the Badgers are ineligible for the Rose Bowl since they played there last New Year's Day.

Passes, oddly enough, capped both drives. In the second quarter, Earl Morrall hit Jimmy Ellis with a five-yard touchdown strike. In the third period, Bert Zagers connected with end Ellis Duckett on a four-yard score.

Michigan	0	0	0	6—	6

Michigan scoring: Touchdown, Baldacci.

Prairie View Downs Grambling, 32 to 0

PRAIRIE VIEW, Tex., Nov. 14 (AP)—The Prairie View Panthers won their eighth straight game today, beating Grambling of Louisiana 32-0 before a homecoming crowd of 10,000.

Prairie View, which plays two more games—with Langston and Southern—before appearing in the Prairie View Bowl game at Houston against Texas Southern, scored in the first three minutes when John Payton climaxed a 72-yard drive with a 41-yard touchdown run.

Columbia Limits Favored Middies To 14-6 Triumph

NEW YORK, Nov. 14. (AP)—Navy finished its pre-Army schedule by beating stubborn Columbia, 14-6 today on a 69-yard punt runback by Bob Craig and George Welsh's 14-yard scoring pass to Bill Monahan.

Dick Carr, Columbia's 60-minute man playing his eighth successive complete game, threw a 28-yard pass to fleet Bob Mercier for the Lions' lone score. Six Columbia men, five lineman and Carr, went the entire route.

While 20,000 fans watched in the chill, damp air at Baker Field, tackles Ben Hoffman and John Casella of Columbia, guards Fred Bucci and Neil Opdyke, center Jerry Hampton and end Phil Bonanno checked Navy's ground game. Steve Eisenhauer, Navy's All - American guard of 1952, played his best game of the year to hog defensive honors for the Middies.

Istrouma Looms Larger On Twin-A Title Scene

By ED TUNSTALL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Istrouma of Baton Rouge loomed today as a formidable challenger for Louisiana's double-A football crown after posting a convincing 16-7 decision over powerful Terrebonne of Houma and clinching at least a tie for the southeast district title.

Istrouma reigned as district and state champion in 1950 and 1951 and as district champion in 1952. If Coach Fuzzy Brown's charges get past arch-rival Baton Rouge on Nov. 20, they will again hold the district championship and qualify for a berth in the state playoffs.

A supercharged offense led by quarterback Ronnie Riley and halfback Johnny Yaun powered its way past Terrebonne before 15,000 homecoming fans at Baton Rouge. The loss was the first for Terrebonne in district play.

Other games Friday night saw halfback Irma Bertrand's spectacular running leading Jennings to a 29-14 surprise victory over New Iberia; quarterback Ty Clark's passing and Jimmy LaCava's running sparked St. Aloysius to a 20-0 New Orleans triumph over Nicholls; J. W. Broadnax accounted for all of Bastrop's points in its 19-13 decision over Haynesville; Ike McMullen's scoring spree powered Ouachita to a 27-0 victory over Bossier City; and McDonogh dropped St. Stanislaus of Bay St. Louis, Miss., 18-12.

Broadnax, second highest scorer in double-A football, was the whole show as Bastrop downed Haynesville. He scored on runs of six and ten yards and returned a Haynesville punt 80 yards for another score in the third quarter. He also kicked the only conversion. Jere Bice and Rodney Shaw tallied the Haynesville touchdowns.

McMullen scored three touchdowns and kicked three conversions to dominate the offense in Ouachita's decision over Bossier City. Included in his touchdown runs was a 40-yard punt return. Halfback Billy Smith dashed 20 yards for the other Ouachita score.

Oklahoma Easily Claims Big Seven Conference Title

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 14. (AP)—Oklahoma easily won its sixth straight Big Seven Conference football championship and a trip to the Orange Bowl today by pounding Iowa State 47-0 before 44,000 fans.

The Big Seven title carries an automatic invitation to the Orange Bowl at Miami, Fla., for a New Year's Day game against the Atlantic Coast Conference champion.

The victory was the Sooners' fifth straight in Big Seven competition this year. They got a clear-cut hold on the pennant when Missouri stopped Kansas State 16-6. Oklahoma has yet to be beaten in 40 straight loop games and it was its 22nd consecutive victory over the Cyclones, the league's cellar club.

Only in the second quarter were the Sooners held scoreless. In both the first and third Oklahoma made two touchdowns and substitutes picked up three more in the final period.

Score by quarters:

Oklahoma	13	0	14	20—	47

Oklahoma scoring: touchdowns, Grigg, 2 Calame, Herndon, Green, Arms, Cross. Conversions, Leak3, 2, Ging 2, O'Neal.

Gavilan Enters Challenge For Middle Throne

CHICAGO, Nov. 14 (AP)—Angel Lopez, shrewd little manager of Kid Gavilan, insisted today that his fighter meet Bobo Olson next for the middleweight title.

"We no want welterweight fight again—all we want is Olson ever if we have to wait until spring to get it," he declared. "We have plenty time to wait. The kid had harder time making 147-pound weight last night than many people think."

And then Senor Lopez tossed the blockbuster.

"The kid have such hard time sweating down to limit he was too weak to knock that Bratton out.

It's true that Gavilan did everything but floor Johnny Bratton as he pounded the challenger unmercifully into a pulp to retain his welterweight championship with a lopsided 15-round decision. But he couldn't knock him down.

"That Bratton has no glass jaw (the one that was broken three times in the past)", Gavilan said in his Chicago Stadium dressing room after the fight. "It's a rubber jaw—you could break it eight times and never knock him out."

Uclans Trounce Huskies To Tie For League Lead

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14 (AP)—Backfield stars Paul Cameron and little Pete Dailey ran the Washington Huskies into the mud of Memorial Coliseum today as U. C. L. A. rolled to a 22-6 victory and a tie with Stanford in the close Pacific Coast Conference Rose Bowl race.

The game started in a driving rain and only 13,302 fans, plus King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece, were brave enough to turn out for the contest.

Washington was stubborn for one quarter but Dailey, at 168 pounds one of the lightest fullbacks on a major team in the nation, broke down the Husky defense with a 45-yard run to the enemy 28.

Left halfback Cameron applied the clincher with successive runs of 17 and the final eight yards for the first touchdown. That was the first of his two touchdowns for the dreary afternoon, and gave U. C. L. A. a 7-0 halftime lead.

U. C. L. A. scored 15 points in the third period on Cameron's 20-yard run for one touchdown, a 46-yard pass from his alternate, Primo Villanueva, to halfback Bill Stits, and a safety. This sent U. C. L. A. into a 22-0 lead going into the final quarter.

Score by quarters:

Washington	0	0	0	6—6
UCLA	0	7	15	0—22

Washington scoring: Touchdown: Houston.

SUGGS' TEAM LOSES

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 14 (AP)—Louise Suggs of Atlanta and Argentina's Ida Gordon Davies lost an 18-hole four-ball best-ball exhibition match today 4 and 3 to Fay Brocker of Uruguay and Argentina's Carmen Conen.

Notre Dame Puts Crusher On North Carolina, 34 To 14

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Nov. 14 (AP)—Fullback Neil Worden was the main blockbuster of Notre Dame's savage wrecking crew today as the nation's No. 1 college football team crushed North Carolina for its seventh straight victory of the season. The score was 34-14.

Following the usual "grind-em-out" tactics, the Fighting Irish scored in every period on bone-rocking drives of 69, 71, 80, 81, and 57 yards.

Worden, a thick-legged senior from Milwaukee, shot 15 yards with a pitchout for Notre Dame's first score in the opening minutes and broke away on a 52-yard touchdown run in the third period.

The fired-up Carolinians, losers of their last four games, gave a crowd of 43,000 some exciting moments by marching 63 yards to a touchdown in the second period on the fine passing of sophomore Marshall Newman, and by going 57 yards for another touchdown in the final quarter.

Notre Dame	7	14	7	6—34

Michigan State Socks Michigan By 14-6 Margin

EAST LANSING, Mich., Nov. 14 (AP)—Michigan State, fighting for a trip to the Rose Bowl, smashed into first place and won at least a share of the Big Ten conference championship today by grinding out a 14-6 victory over rival Michigan.

Playing unspectacular but steady football, the Spartans downed Michigan with touchdown marches of 89 and 66 yards.

It shot them past Illinois into conference leadership with a 5-1 record. Unbeaten Illinois was upset by Wisconsin today and fell into a second-place tie with the Badgers, each with a 4-1 mark.

Michigan State, in its first season in the Big Ten, has completed its conference schedule. Illinois and Wisconsin each have one game to go, but the Badgers are ineligible for the Rose Bowl since they played there last New Year's Day.

Passes, oddly enough, capped both drives. In the second quarter, Earl Morrall hit Jimmy Ellis with a five-yard touchdown strike. In the third period, Bert Zagers connected with end Ellis Duckett on a four-yard score.

Michigan	0	0	0	6—6

Michigan State scoring: Touchdowns, Ellis, Duckett. Conversions, Slonac 2.

Prairie View Downs Grambling, 32 to 0

PRAIRIE VIEW, Tex., Nov. 14 (AP)—The Prairie View Panthers won their eighth straight game today, beating Grambling of Louisiana 32-0 before a homecoming crowd of 10,000.

Prairie View, which plays two more games—with Langston and Southern—before appearing in the Prairie View Bowl game at Houston against Texas Southern, scored in the first three minutes when John Payton climaxed a 72-yard drive with a 41-yard touchdown run.

West Virginia's Bowl Hopes Fade With 20-14 Loss

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 14. (AP)—Quarterback Johnny Gramling scored twice and passed for a third touchdown here today to lead South Carolina to a 20-14 victory probably dimming West Virginia's hopes for a bowl bid and snapping the nation's longest winning streak at 13.

The Gamecocks put on a display of ground power which outshone the West Virginians' much-publicized game which had seen it through victories over Pitt and Penn State earlier in the season.

The game was played before 31,000 fans, most of whom had come with the hope of seeing West Virginia gain a bid for one of the major bowls.

But South Carolina squelched the hope in a thrilling contest, marred by two crucial Mountaineer fumbles which set up two Gamecock scores.

West Virginia flexed its muscles after taking the opening kickoff and working the ball from its 27 to the South Carolina seven. But there Joe Marconi, on a pitchout from Freddy Wyant, let the ball squirt out of his hands and Blackie Kincaid, an invader from Ansted, W. Va., fell on the ball for S. C.'s first big break.

Score by quarters:

South Carolina	7	6	7	0—20
West Virginia	0	7	7	0—14

South Carolina scoring: touchdowns, Gramling 2, G. Wilson. Conversions, Jarrett, Kincaid.

HARVARD BARELY WINS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 14 (AP)—Harvard built a three touchdown lead against Brown and then staved off the aroused Bruins—who scored twice in the fourth quarter—for a 27-20 triumph today before 20,500 fans in Harvard Stadium.

Columbia Limits Favored Middies To 14-6 Triumph

NEW YORK, Nov. 14. (AP)—Navy finished its pre-Army schedule by beating stubborn Columbia, 14-6 today on a 69-yard punt runback by Bob Craig and George Welsh's 14-yard scoring pass to Bill Monahan.

Dick Carr, Columbia's 60-minute man playing his eighth successive complete game, threw a 28-yard pass to fleet Bob Mercier for the Lions' lone score. Six Columbia men, five lineman and Carr, went the entire route.

While 20,000 fans watched in the chill, damp air at Baker Field, tackles Ben Hoffman and John Casella of Columbia, guards Fred Bucci and Neil Opdyke, center Jerry Hampton and end Phil Bonanno checked Navy's ground game. Steve Eisenhauer, Navy's All - American guard of 1952, played his best game of the year to hog defensive honors for the Middies.

Istrouma Looms Larger On Twin-A Title Scene

By ED TUNSTALL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Istrouma of Baton Rouge loomed today as a formidable challenger for Louisiana's double-A football crown after posting a convincing 16-7 decision over powerful Terrebonne of Houma and clinching at least a tie for the southeast district title.

Istrouma reigned as district and state champion in 1950 and 1951 and as district champion in 1952. If Coach Fuzzy Brown's charges get past arch-rival Baton Rouge on Nov. 20, they will again hold the district championship and qualify for a berth in the state playoffs.

A supercharged offense led by quarterback Ronnie Riley and halfback Johnny Yaun powered its way past Terrebonne before 15,000 homecoming fans at Baton Rouge. The loss was the first for Terrebonne in district play.

Other games Friday night saw halfback Irma Bertrand's spectacular running leading Jennings to a 29-14 surprise victory over New Iberia; quarterback Ty Clark's passing and Jimmy LaCava's running sparked St. Aloysius to a 20-0 New Orleans triumph over Nicholls; J. W. Broadnax accounted for all of Bastrop's points in its 19-13 decision over Haynesville; Ike McMullen's scoring spree powered Ouachita to a 27-0 victory over Bossier City; and McDonogh dropped St. Stanislaus of Bay St. Louis, Miss., 18-12.

Broadnax, second highest scorer in double-A football, was the whole show as Bastrop downed Haynesville. He scored on runs of six and ten yards and returned a Haynesville punt 80 yards for another score in the third quarter. He also kicked the only conversion. Jere Bice and Rodney Shaw tallied the Haynesville touchdowns.

McMullen scored three touchdowns and kicked three conversions to dominate the offense in Ouachita's decision over Bossier City. Included in his touchdown runs was a 40-yard punt return. Halfback Billy Smith dashed 20 yards for the other Ouachita score.

Oklahoma Easily Claims Big Seven Conference Title

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 14. (AP)—Oklahoma easily won its sixth straight Big Seven Conference football championship and a trip to the Orange Bowl today by pounding Iowa State 47-0 before 44,000 fans.

The Big Seven title carries an automatic invitation to the Orange Bowl at Miami, Fla., for a New Year's Day game against the Atlantic Coast Conference champion.

The victory was the Sooners' fifth straight in Big Seven competition this year. They got a clear-cut hold on the pennant when Missouri stopped Kansas State 16-6. Oklahoma has yet to be beaten in 40 straight loop games and it was its 22nd consecutive victory over the Cyclones, the league's cellar club.

Only in the second quarter were the Sooners held scoreless. In both the first and third Oklahoma made two touchdowns and substitutes picked up three more in the final period.

Score by quarters:

Oklahoma scoring: touchdowns, Grigg, 2 Calame, Herndon, Green, Arms, Cross. Conversions, Leak3, 2, Ging 2, O'Neal.

Gavilan Enters Challenge For Middle Throne

CHICAGO, Nov. 14 (AP)—Angel Lopez, shrewd little manager of Kid Gavilan, insisted today that his fighter meet Bobo Olson next for the middleweight title.

"We no want welterweight fight again—all we want is Olson even if we have to wait until spring to get it," he declared. "We have plenty time to wait. The kid has harder time making 147-pound weight last night than many people think."

And then Senor Lopez tossed the blockbuster.

"The kid have such hard time sweating down to limit he was too weak to knock that Bratton out."

It's true that Gavilan did everything but floor Johnny Bratton as he pounded the challenger unmercifully into a pulp to retain his welterweight championship with a lopsided 15-round decision. But he couldn't knock him down.

"That Bratton has no glass jaw (the one that was broken three times in the past)", Gavilan said in his Chicago Stadium dressing room after the fight. "It's a rubber jaw—you could break it eight times and never knock him out."

RAMS CLUB OWLS

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—Fordham's football Rams ripped off two quick touchdowns in the opening period and went on to roll over a badly outmanned Temple team 27-0 today.

Mississippi School Equalization Bill In Danger

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — House leader supporting Mississippi's proposed program to equalize and strengthen Negro and white schools said today if the bill creating a strong education finance commission dies in the Senate, the program dies with it.

Rep. Ney Gore of Quitman County, secretary of the 18-man recess committee that wrote the program now before a special session of the Legislature, declared:

"Regardless of how much money we spend, we will not have a program that will maintain segregation without consolidating our many small school districts.

"The only way we can have consolidation is to set it up in an independent agency adequately staffed. That is what this finance commission is designed to be.

"If the finance commission fails it would be tantamount to emasculating the whole program."

At the moment the finance commission bill hangs precariously by a thread in the Senate. Before adjoining for the weekend the senators voted 25-19 to send the bill to the Senate Finance Committee for further study.

Sen. Earl Evans of Canton, chairman of the Finance Committee, is against the finance commission bill and urged that its work be placed in the hands of the state Building Commission, an existing agency that holds the purse strings for all state public building including hospitals, schools, and colleges.

Evans argued that there are too many state commissions already that it would be a waste of money to create another.

The commission envisioned by the authors of the program would have control of all state money for school construction. It could withhold money from counties that did not conform to the policy of mass consolidation to get better schools.

The authors of the program said they recommended creating the finance commission because the building commission, appointed by the governor, would not have the freedom and independence of action afforded the new agency.

This was no slur on Gov. Hugh White since his term of office would expire before the program got rolling.

Following Gov. White, no one governor would ever name a majority of the finance commission because their terms would be staggered over six years, freeing it, the authors said, from executive control.

After the Senate action late Thursday there was a widespread

Brown Paper Mill Workers Increase Chest Donations

J. G. Hicks, general chairman of the Community Chest fund raising campaign expressed his appreciation to employees of the Brown Paper Mill yesterday for their support of the red feather drive. Contributions by mill employees show an increase of nearly $500 over last year's donation.

Paper mill employees are credited with contributing $1,386 to the Community Chest this year. Last year's contribution was $926.

Hicks also urged that those who have not already done so make their donations as soon as possible, so the drive may be closed by December 1.

Bootleggers In Winnsboro Get Stern Warning

WINNSBORO, Nov. 14 (Special) —In a move to protect lawful liquor sales in Winnsboro's five drug stores and to stop all illegal sale of alcohol in Winnsboro, Mayor Robert F. Mulhearn and City Marshal George B. Ferrington, have issued the following signed statement.

"To Whom it may concern:

"It has been brought to the attention of the undersigned officials of the Town of Winnsboro, Louisiana, that there are certain establishments and persons in Winnsboro, which have been dispensing alcoholic beverages, without first having complied with the law, as enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana, and the ordinances of the town of Winnsboro, which said law provided:

"The sale of alcoholic or intoxicating liquors, including beer, is prohibited in the town of Winnsboro, Louisiana except by a duly licensed and qualified druggists, when prescribed by a licensed physician as a medicine."

"It is the intention of the undersigned to enforce this law, as was voted by a majority of the people of Winnsboro, Louisiana, and we believe that those concerned will give us their full cooperation.'

The notice was signed by Mulhearn and Ferrington.

All-State Band To Be Directed By Joe Mullins

Joe Barry Mullins, Northeast State band director, will be guest conductor of the all - state band which will be featured at the annual convention of the Louisiana Education Association in Lafayette November 23-25.

One hundred high school musicians will convene on November 21 on the Southwestern Louisiana Institute campus for daily rehearsals until Tuesday November 24, when the group will present a concert at the S. L. I. coliseum before the LEA's general session.

Band personnel will represent 40 or 50 high schools, with one or more students selected from a list of recommendations submitted by band directors from the different schools. Final decisions are to be made by a special committee from the band division of the Louisiana Music Education Association, meeting in conjunction with the LEA.

Representing the schools of the Twin Cities will be four students from each of three high schools, Neville, Ouachita and West Monroe.

Mullins is well known throughout Louisiana and surrounding states for his extensive instrumental judging and guest conducting in music festivals and clinics.

Music chosen by Mullins for the all - state band concert comprises the following numbers: Choral Prelude ("We All Believe in One God") by J. S. Bach; "The Force of Destiny" by G. Verdi; "Chanson for Band" by Eloy Fominaya of the Northeast music faculty; "Joyous Interlude" by Dai-Keong Lee, "Fairest of the Fair," a John Phillip Sousa march.

Previous conductors of the all-state band have included Gerald Prescott of the University of Minnesota and L. Bruce Jones of Louisiana State University.

Jet Plane Breaks Speed Of Sound; Also Windows

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—An Air Force-F86 jet plane broke the sound barrier over Miami today and a number of windows along with it.

Newspaper switchboards were swamped with calls asking about "the big explosion" as the plane cracked the 700-odd-mile-an-hour sonic barrier which varies at different altitudes and temperatures.

Some callers said windows in their homes had shatterred with the noise, pictures danced on walls and the earth shook.

Copeland Slated For Observation

Henry Copeland, Ouachita parish Negro, indicted for murder, will be taken to the East Louisiana state hospital for the criminally insane for observation, Chief Criminal Deputy Sheriff Frank Kirby stated Saturday morning.

Gains Toward Job Equality Cited

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 —Secretary of Labor Mitchell said today the Eisenhower administration has made "significant advances toward our goal" of equal job opportunity regardless of race, color or creed.

Mitchell told the National Council of Negro Women that Negroes have been appointed to 22 "important federal posts" and that President Eisenhower has worked to eliminate segregation in the armed forces and on federal contract work.

Newly Renovated Clark Elementary Sets Open House

The Clark Elementary school, formerly known as the Monroe Colored High School, 1202 Breard street, has been completely renovated within and will hold an open house beginning at 2:30 p.m. today, B. D. Robinson, principal, stated Saturday. All friends of the city school system and especially the graduates of the school are being invited to attend the special event.

Built in the early twenties, the building stood without major repairs of any kind until the present school board undertook the job of bringing all standing buildings up to date, and building new ones. When the Negro high school was transferred from the present Clark school to the new, completely modern Carroll High, the work of renovating this building began. The job was finished recently and accepted by the board, headed by President T. H. Scott, and Superintendent of City School System Van Odom.

The outside of the building was not renovated, since the main construction of the edifice was sound and safe. It was felt by those working on the plans of renovation that a complete repair job on the inside would place the school in good shape.

All rooms of the building have been painted in pastel colors, which are approved by modern school plans, since, it is felt, the softer shades do not give off glare. The newest in lighting was placed in all of the room as well as the halls and offices.

Robinson was made principal of the school on January 1 of this year after the transposition of the building from high to grammar school was complete. He has a staff of 28 teachers and instructors for the 1,037 pupils ranging from the first to the sixth grades.

The outer buildings for the school compose classrooms for the first and fourth grades and are made of barracks buildings, converted for this use. The buildings also house the art classes.

The name J. S. Clark was selected as a tribute to the first president of Southern University, the leading Negro college in the state.

20-Year-Old To Be Fifth Brother In Armed Forces

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14—UP—Twenty-year old Edwin S. Allemand of Houma becaue the fifth Allemand brother to serve in the armed forces when he enlisted in the Army here for a three-year hitch.

SFC Roland D. Allemand, 25, recently repatriated prisoner of war in Korea for 33 months, proudly watched as his kid brother was sworn into the Army.

Two other brothers, PFC A. J. Allemand, 27, of the 4th Quartermaster Bn., and Cpl. Herbert Allemand, 23, of the 24th Tank Bn., are presently serving in Korea.

Another brother, Euma Allemand, 28, of Houma, was a corporal with the First Marine Division in the Pacific during World War II.

"I think I'm going to like the Army, but I'm not going to be a 30-year man like Roland," Edwin said following his induction.

"I had 948 hours of diesel engineering study at Terrebonne Trade School at home. I think three years in the Engineer Corps will be that much more experience for me before I go to college," he said.

Treasury Official To Speak On Taxes

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14—UP—Elbert P. Tuttle, general counsel of the U.S. Treasury Department, will speak on the outlook for federal taxes and expenditures at the third annual Tulane Tax Institute to be held next Wednesday and Thursday.

Tuttle will be among 30 national tax specialists to serve as speakers.

The institute is sponsored by the schools of law and business administration of Tulane University.

Four major areas of taxation will be discussed at the conference, including legal problems and procedure in the tax field, business management tax problems, oil and gas tax and estate and gift taxation.

Negro Who Saved Child Gets Award

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 14—UP—An aged Negro man who saved an eight-months old white baby from a blazing home and attempted to rescue two other children will be awarded a gold medal and $35 for "outstanding heroism" by the Pearl Men's Civic Club, it was announced Saturday.

Lige Johnson, 65, pulled Marie Wilmoth from her blazing home in Rankin county and started back for two other children, only to be driven back by the flames.

Evans argued that there are too many state commissions already that it would be a waste of money to create another.

The commission envisioned by the authors of the program would have control of all state money for school construction. It could withhold money from counties that did not conform to the policy of mass consolidation to get better schools.

The authors of the program said they recommended creating the finance commission because the building commission, appointed by the governor, would not have the freedom and independence of action afforded the new agency.

This was no slur on Gov. Hugh White since his term of office would expire before the program got rolling.

Following Gov. White, no one governor would ever name a majority of the finance commission because their terms would be staggered over six years, freeing it, the authors said, from executive control.

After the Senate action late Thursday there was a widespread

Brown Paper Mill Workers Increase Chest Donations

J. G. Hicks, general chairman of the Community Chest fund raising campaign expressed his appreciation to employees of the Brown Paper Mill yesterday for their support of the red feather drive. Contributions by mill employees show an increase of nearly $500 over last year's donation.

Paper mill employees are credited with contributing $1,386 to the Community Chest this year. Last year's contribution was $926.

Hicks also urged that those who have not already done so make their donations as soon as possible, so the drive may be closed by December 1.

Bootleggers In Winnsboro Get Stern Warning

WINNSBORO, Nov. 14 (Special) —In a move to protect lawful liquor sales in Winnsboro's five drug stores and to stop all illegal sale of alcohol in Winnsboro, Mayor Robert F. Mulhearn and City Marshal George B. Ferrington, have issued the following signed statement.

"To Whom it may concern:

"It has been brought to the attention of the undersigned officials of the Town of Winnsboro, Louisiana, that there are certain establishments and persons in Winnsboro, which have been dispensing alcoholic beverages, without first having complied with the law, as enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana, and the ordinances of the town of Winnsboro, which said law provided:

"The sale of alcoholic or intoxicating liquors, including beer, is prohibited in the town of Winnsboro, Louisiana except by a duly licensed and qualified druggists, when prescribed by a licensed physician as a medicine."

"It is the intention of the undersigned to enforce this law, as was voted by a majority of the people of Winnsboro, Louisiana, and we believe that those concerned will give us their full cooperation.'

The notice was signed by Mulhearn and Ferrington.

Newly Renovated Clark Elementary Sets Open House

The Clark Elementary school, formerly known as the Monroe Colored High School, 1202 Breard street, has been completely renovated within and will hold an open house beginning at 2:30 p.m. today, B. D. Robinson, principal, stated Saturday. All friends of the city school system and especially the graduates of the school are being invited to attend the special event.

Built in the early twenties, the building stood without major repairs of any kind until the present school board undertook the job of bringing all standing buildings up to date, and building new ones. When the Negro high school was transferred from the present Clark school to the new, completely modern Carroll High, the work of renovating this building began. The job was finished recently and accepted by the board, headed by President T. H. Scott, and Superintendent of City School System Van Odom.

The outside of the building was not renovated, since the main construction of the edifice was sound and safe. It was felt by those working on the plans of renovation that a complete repair job on the inside would place the school in good shape.

All rooms of the building have been painted in pastel colors, which are approved by modern school plans, since, it is felt, the softer shades do not give off glare. The newest in lighting was placed in all of the room as well as the halls and offices.

Robinson was made principal of the school on January 1 of this year after the transposition of the building from high to grammar school was complete. He has a staff of 28 teachers and instructors for the 1,037 pupils ranging from the first to the sixth grades.

The outer buildings for the school compose classrooms for the first and fourth grades and are made of barracks buildings, converted for this use. The buildings also house the art classes.

The name J. S. Clark was selected as a tribute to the first president of Southern University, the leading Negro college in the state.

Treasury Official To Speak On Taxes

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14—UP—Elbert P. Tuttle, general counsel of the U.S. Treasury Department, will speak on the outlook for federal taxes and expenditures at the third annual Tulane Tax Institute to be held next Wednesday and Thursday.

Tuttle will be among 30 national tax specialists to serve as speakers.

The institute is sponsored by the schools of law and business administration of Tulane University.

Four major areas of taxation will be discussed at the conference, including legal problems and procedure in the tax field, business management tax problems, oil and gas tax and estate and gift taxation.

Negro Who Saved Child Gets Award

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 14—UP—An aged Negro man who saved an eight-months old white baby from a blazing home and attempted to rescue two other children will be awarded a gold medal and $35 for "outstanding heroism" by the Pearl Men's Civic Club, it was announced Saturday.

Lige Johnson, 65, pulled Marie Wilmoth from her blazing home in Rankin county and started back for two other children, only to be driven back by the flames.

All-State Band To Be Directed By Joe Mullins

Joe Barry Mullins, Northeast State band director, will be guest conductor of the all - state band which will be featured at the annual convention of the Louisiana Education Association in Lafayette November 23-25.

One hundred high school musicians will convene on November 21 on the Southwestern Louisiana Institute campus for daily rehearsals until Tuesday November 24, when the group will present a concert at the S. L. I. coliseum before the LEA's general session.

Band personnel will represent 40 or 50 high schools, with one or more students selected from a list of recommendations submitted by band directors from the different schools. Final decisions are to be made by a special committee from the band division of the Louisiana Music Education Association, meeting in conjunction with the LEA.

Representing the schools of the Twin Cities will be four students from each of three high schools, Neville, Ouachita and West Monroe.

Mullins is well known throughout Louisiana and surrounding states for his extensive instrumental judging and guest conducting in music festivals and clinics.

Music chosen by Mullins for the all - state band concert comprises the following numbers: Choral Prelude ("We All Believe in One God") by J. S. Bach; "The Force of Destiny" by G. Verdi; "Chanson for Band" by Eloy Fominaya of the Northeast music faculty; "Joyous Interlude" by Dai-Keong Lee; "Fairest of the Fair," a John Phillip Sousa march.

Previous conductors of the all-state band have included Gerald Prescott of the University of Minnesota and L. Bruce Jones of Louisiana State University.

Jet Plane Breaks Speed Of Sound; Also Windows

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—An Air Force F86 jet plane broke the sound barrier over Miami today and a number of windows along with it.

Newspaper switchboards were swamped with calls asking about "the big explosion" as the plane cracked the 700-odd-mile-an-hour sonic barrier which varies at different altitudes and temperatures.

Some callers said windows in their homes had shatterred with the noise, pictures danced on walls and the earth shook.

Copeland Slated For Observation

Henry Copeland, Ouachita parish Negro, indicted for murder, will be taken to the East Louisiana state hospital for the criminally insane for observation, Chief Criminal Deputy Sheriff Frank Kirby stated Saturday morning.

Gains Toward Job Equality Cited

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 —Secretary of Labor Mitchell said today the Eisenhower administration has made "significant advances toward our goal" of equal job opportunity regardless of race, color or creed.

Mitchell told the National Council of Negro Women that Negroes have been appointed to 22 "important federal posts" and that President Eisenhower has worked to eliminate segregation in the armed forces and on federal contract work.

20-Year-Old To Be Fifth Brother In Armed Forces

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14—UP—Twenty-year old Edwin S. Allemand of Houma becaue the fifth Allemand brother to serve in the armed forces when he enlisted in the Army here for a three-year hitch.

SFC Roland D. Allemand, 25, recently repatriated prisoner of war in Korea for 33 months, proudly watched as his kid brother was sworn into the Army.

Two other brothers, PFC A. J. Allemand, 27, of the 4th Quartermaster Bn., and Cpl. Herbert Allemand, 23, of the 24th Tank Bn., are presently serving in Korea.

Another brother, Euma Allemand, 28, of Houma, was a corporal with the First Marine Division in the Pacific during World War II.

"I think I'm going to like the Army, but I'm not going to be a 30-year man like Roland," Edwin said following his induction.

"I had 948 hours of diesel engineering study at Terrebonne Trade School at home. I think three years in the Engineer Corps will be that much more experience for me before I go to college," he said.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Houses (73)

CLASSIFICATION SEVENTY THREE VR
On TV Today!
WANTA TRADE?
IT'S POSSIBLE that your equity in your old home will more than make the down payment in this new 3 bedroom, 2 tile bath home on LEXINGTON IN MARIE PLACE! It's a home richly endowed with a host of livable features, such as: central heat; hardwood block floors; pine paneled kitchen with built-in breakfast nook; built-in dressing table in one bath; natural wood work and 42" attic fan. It's priced at $13,900 ($1000 less than FHA appraisal) and requires only $2000 down. Let us show you today!

IT'LL THRILL 'YA
AND HOW! We've got a brand new listing at 1408 CEDAR in SUNSHINE HEIGHTS that will almost take your breath at first glance. And for good reasons . . . for it's only a year young on a well shaded 100x150' lot with these delightful characteristics: 2 bedrooms and a paneled den; separate living and dining room; 2 floor furnaces; hardwood floors; walk-in closet in one bedroom plus a pine-paneled carport with storage. It's already financed with monthly payments of $68. Wanta' see it?

40,000 BRICKS
I DIDN'T COUNT 'EM . . but the gentleman who built it should know, for he's a brick mason! If you're the type that says modern construction is flimsy you should see this one. It's solid brick with two spacious bedrooms and a den, central heat, white crushed marble roof, glistening pine-paneled dinette, wall-to-wall carpet in living room, masonry walls, Roman brick fireplace and chimney, a captivating bath of blue tile and an enclosed garage! You couldn't have it built for $22,000, but the price is only $16,795. It's located on SANDEL DRIVE and we'd be "tickled pink" to show you today.

A SAD THING
HAS HAPPENED to me . . . I'm a precious 4½ room home at 1301 S. 1st! I'm refreshing, I'm distinctive, I'm unblemished, I'm graceful AND I'm VACANT . . So, won't you pay the small down payment ($700), move in and enjoy my attic fan, my floor furnace, my side screened porch, my radiant kitchen, and my 57½x150 ft. lot? PLEASE!

IT'S YOUR MOVE...
AND IT'S MADE easy when only $1250 down is all it takes to buy this faultless home at 1309 COLLEGE AVE. with more that it's share of livable features. The White's have treated this one like a baby from the day they built it . . . and it shows. It has 4½ rooms, sparkling pecan floors, an artistic living room, side screened porch, spacious dining area, garage with store room and metal door and the lot is 55x175. For a treat, have a peek!

100% G. I.
HERE'S TRUE value for a qualified veteran in a 5-room home at 309 RIVERBEND IN WEST MONROE. It's just been completely re-papered and painted. . . . Both bedrooms are 14x14 with windows galore . . . has separate dining room . . . roomy living room . . . and a garage. It will also FHA for only $850 down, including closing costs. See it today . . . won't last long! The price: $8,000.

If You Cherish . . .
A LOCATION on Bayou DeSiard . . . a brick home, the search is ended! We've a spacious (2300 sq. feet) new brick home on LAKESHORE DRIVE that fairly breathes elegance. There are 3 bedrooms, all with sliding door closets; 2 tile baths, (both with colored fixtures); central heat; mahogany paneled den and living room; separate dining area, double carport and the kitchen? Well . . . the "little woman" planned it and that's enough said! It's already financed and will require $12,000 to handle it. For a treat, let us show you!

FOB
FULL OF BEAUTY and then some! It's a distinctive, solid brick home on a 200 foot lot with features that can only be appreciated by a discriminating buyer. For it possesses: 3 cavernous bedrooms (with double closets); a tremendous Roman brick fireplace in living room; a becoming den; double garage; central heat; gutters & downspouts; life-time roof; kitchen has tile counters and splashboards. It's located on BROADMOOR BLVD. AND can be bought for only $6,000 down.

Given To You!
WELL . . . ALMOST anyway! For where else can you buy a 5-room home on a 75x245 foot lot with all conveniences for only $7250? The FHA valued it at $7500. . . . But quick action buys it for less. Here is a home at 309 CIRCLE DRIVE in West Monroe with 2 roomy bedrooms, separate living and dining room, hardwood floors and 3 nice shade trees. $1250 down is all it takes!

Eat Off The Floor
YOU COULD, for this family home is clean enough, but why do that when it has a separate dining room? This inspiring home at 604 D'Arbonne has had livin' care in all 6 rooms! It has 3 bedrooms and a 12x24 den . . . flowing kitchen . . . 2 floor furnaces . . . 42" attic fan . . . detached garage . . . and a 60x150' lot. It's priced at only $11,604 and already financed!

GROWING PAINS?
IF THAT'S YOUR problem . . . we've a refined home at 306 HILTON that will completely solve it! This modern home has 6 rooms, 3 bedrooms (all with built-ins), separate living & dining room, roomy kitchen with plenty cabinet space, a breezeway on the back of the home. There's also a separate laundry room, imagine, with space for a deep freeze, too! The garage is enclosed and the attic is floored for storage. It's only 2 blocks to high school and 4 to grammar school. Here's true value and only $4,-600 down buys it!

CORNER LOT
AND THAT ain't all . . . for occupying this lot is a new brick home built and lived in by the owner. There are six rooms . . . 2 bedrooms and den . . . separate dining area . . . ingenious kitchen with all the work space in one end. . . . breezeway on the back . . . carport and store room. There's also a utility room with built-in storage drawers . . . colored fixtures in the bath and a host of other distinguished features. The price is $12,954 and located at 4200 Lee Ave. Will show anytime.

CLASSIFICATION SEVENTY THREE VR
On TV Today!

WANTA TRADE?
IT'S POSSIBLE that your equity in your old home will more than make the down payment in this new 3 bedroom, 2 tile bath home on LEXINGTON IN MARIE PLACE! It's a home richly endowed with a host of livable features, such as: central heat; hardwood block floors; pine paneled kitchen with built-in breakfast nook; built-in dressing table in one bath; natural wood work and 42" attic fan. It's priced at $13,900 ($1000 less than FHA appraisal) and requires only $2000 down. Let us show you today!

IT'LL THRILL 'YA
AND HOW! We've got a brand new listing at 1408 CEDAR in SUNSHINE HEIGHTS that will almost take your breath at first glance. And for good reasons . . . for it's only a year young on a well shaded 100x150' lot with these delightful characteristics: 2 bedrooms and a paneled den; separate living and dining room; 2 floor furnaces; hardwood floors; walk-in closet in one bedroom plus a pine-paneled carport with storage. It's already financed with monthly payments of $68. Wanta' see it?

40,000 BRICKS
I DIDN'T COUNT 'EM . . but the gentleman who built it should know, for he's a brick mason! If you're the type that says modern construction is flimsy . . . you should see this one. It's solid brick with two spacious bedrooms and a den, central heat, white crushed marble roof, glistening pine-paneled dinette, wall-to-wall carpet in living room, masonry walls, Roman brick fireplace and chimney, a captivating bath of blue tile and an enclosed garage! You couldn't have it built for $22,000, but the price is only $16,795. It's located on SANDEL DRIVE and we'd be "tickled pink" to show you today.

A SAD THING
HAS HAPPENED to me . . . I'm a precious 4½ room home at 1301 S. 1st! I'm refreshing, I'm distinctive, I'm unblemished, I'm graceful AND I'm VACANT . . . So, won't you pay the small down payment ($700), move in and enjoy my attic fan, my floor furnace, my side screened porch, my radiant kitchen, and my 57½x150 ft. lot? PLEASE!

IT'S YOUR MOVE...
AND IT'S MADE easy when only $1250 down is all it takes to buy this faultless home at 1309 COLLEGE AVE. with more that it's share of livable features. The White's have treated this one like a baby from the day they built it . . . and it shows. It has 4½ rooms, sparkling pecan floors, an artistic living room, side screened porch, spacious dining area, garage with store room and metal door and the lot is 55x175. For a treat, have a peek!

100% G. I.
HERE'S TRUE value for a qualified veteran in a 5-room home at 309 RIVERBEND IN WEST MONROE. It's just been completely re-papered and painted. Both bedrooms are 14x14 with windows galore . . . has separate dining room . . . roomy living room . . . and a garage. It will also FHA for only $850 down, including closing costs. See it today . . . won't last long! The price: $8,000.

If You Cherish . . .
A LOCATION on Bayou DeSiard . . . a brick home, the search is ended! We've a spacious (2300 sq. feet) new brick home on LAKESHORE DRIVE that fairly breathes elegance. There are 3 bedrooms, all with sliding door closets; 2 tile baths, (both with colored fixtures); central heat; mahogany paneled den and living room; separate dining area, double carport and the kitchen? Well . . . the "little woman" planned it and that's enough said! It's already financed and will require $12,000 to handle it. For a treat, let us show you!

FOB
FULL OF BEAUTY and then some! It's a distinctive, solid brick home on a 200 foot lot with features that can only be appreciated by a discriminating buyer. For it possesses: 3 cavernous bedrooms (with double closets); a tremendous Roman brick fireplace in living room; a becoming den; double garage; central heat; gutters & downspouts; life-time roof; kitchen has tile counters and splashboards. It's located on BROADMOOR BLVD. AND can be bought for only $6,000 down.

Given To You!
WELL . . . ALMOST anyway! For where else can you buy a 5-room home on a 75x245 foot lot with all conveniences for only $7250? The FHA valued it at $7500. . . . But quick action buys it for less. Here is a home at 209 CIRCLE DRIVE in West Monroe with 2 roomy bedrooms, separate living and dining room, hardwood floors and 3 nice shade trees. $1250 down is all it takes!

Eat Off The Floor
YOU COULD, for this family home is clean enough, but why do that when it has a separate dining room? This inspiring home at 508 D'Arbonne has had livin' care in all 6 rooms! It has 2 bedrooms and a 12x24 den . . . flowing kitchen . . . 2 floor furnaces . . . 42" attic fan . . . detached garage . . . and a 60x150' lot. It's priced at only $11,604 and already financed!

GROWING PAINS?
IF THAT'S YOUR problem . . . we've a refined home at 306 HILTON that will completely solve it! This modern home has 6 rooms, 3 bedrooms (all with built-ins), separate living & dining room, roomy kitchen with plenty cabinet space, a breezeway on the back of the home. There's also a separate laundry room, imagine, with space for a deep freeze, too! The garage is enclosed and the attic is floored for storage. It's only 2 blocks to high school and 4 to grammar school. Here's true value and only $4,000 down buys it!

CORNER LOT
AND THAT ain't all . . . for occupying this lot is a new brick home built and lived in by the owner. There are six rooms . . . 2 bedrooms and den . . . separate dining area . . . ingenious kitchen with all the work space in one end. . . . breezeway on the back . . . carport and store room. There's also a utility room with built-in storage drawers . . . colored fixtures in the bath and a host of other distinguished features. The price is $12,984 and located at 4208 Lee Ave. Will show anytime.

NOTICE
This does not in any way affect any of the Burial Contracts now in force.

This is EXTRAORDINARY "Good News" to thousands of our many, many Old Faithful Policyholders, who stuck with us "thraugh thick and thin" when our firm was very young. It is these fine old Policyholders who have expressed their desire for Cash Life Insurance and Larger Funeral Benefits. We are confident that we have created an aidful answer.

Cash With Funeral Insurance

The purpose of the New Hall Life Insurance Company is to provide Top Premium Merchandise on the Funeral Benefit . . . also Cash benefit which is to be paid Direct to the beneficiary as a "Clean Up" or "Final Expense" Fund. Our Goal is to Pay All Cash Benefits within two (2) hours after the OFFICIAL CLAIM FORMS have been executed, and if possible the Cash Benefit is to be taken out in the hearse by our Funeral Director and Paid Direct to the beneficiary even before the remains are removed to the Funeral Home. That is when the family needs is the most—That is when they should have it.

Other Advantages

- $300.00 TO $1,250.00 All Cash or All Burial or Both Together.
- INSURANCE on Every Member of the family including the baby and no medical examinations up to the age of 80.
- THE ENTIRE FUNERAL BENEFIT AUTOMATICALLY converted to Cash Life Insurance after 10th year and beginning the 11th year.
- ADDITIONAL CASH for loss of limb, Limbs or Sight, through Injury by Accidental Means occurring after age 10 and before age 60.
- AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOAN: After premiums have been paid for 3 years then in case of Inability to pay Premiums for any reason the policy will remain in force for several months by reason of this Automatic Premium Loan Provision.

Try Sweaters That Can Take Tubbing Often

The big, bulky sweaters that until now have been reserved for the ski slopes are swooping into the fall fashion scene. They achieve the important three - dimensional look with the liberal use of the cable and nub knits, the beehive, hand-pebbled and Shaker stitches.

You'll be wise to select your 3-D sweater carefully. Invest in a good wool that will take easily to soap and water and you will have a well-shaped sweater for innumerable wearings.

When washing the sweater you want plenty of room to squeeze the suds through thoroughly. So if the sweater is very bulky and the basin small, use the bath tub.

Before submerging the sweater, rub badly soiled spots with a sudsy soft brush or soapy fingers. To guard against stretching and sagging, keep the wool cupped in your hands while washing and rinsing. Use lukewarm suds and rinse at the same temperature.

After you have rinsed away all signs of soap, blot the sweater with a towel and then insert it in a drying frame, laying flat to dry.

If the wool is treated to resist shrinkage it will not be necessary to use a frame. In any case, do not dry near a radiator. If you are in a hurry, put the sweater near a fan.

Keep Clothes Season-Right

It would seem that there have been some misinterpretations of these happenings. For it is not unusual today to see women strolling about in apparel held over from previous season.

It is hoped you teen-agers will not follow the lead of these misguided women.

In bringing a note of spring time to winter, fashion designers have hoped to give a lift to weary season. They have not implied that one could henceforth forget seasonal garb.

There is nothing more forlorn looking than summer shoes worn with a fall suit. Or a spring suit with a winter coat. Or a heavy woolen dress in spring.

Try Sweaters That Can Take Tubbing Often

The big, bulky sweaters that until now have been reserved for the ski slopes are swooping into the fall fashion scene. They achieve the important three - dimensional look with the liberal use of the cable and nub knits, the beehive, hand-pebbled and Shaker stitches.

You'll be wise to select your 3-D sweater carefully. Invest in a good wool that will take easily to soap and water and you will have a well-shaped sweater for innumerable wearings.

When washing the sweater you want plenty of room to squeeze the suds through thoroughly. So if the sweater is very bulky and the basin small, use the bath tub.

Before submerging the sweater, rub badly soiled spots with a sudsy soft brush or soapy fingers. To guard against stretching and sagging, keep the wool cupped in your hands while washing and rinsing. Use lukewarm suds and rinse at the same temperature.

After you have rinsed away all signs of soap, blot the sweater with a towel and then insert it in a drying frame, laying flat to dry.

If the wool is treated to resist shrinkage it will not be necessary to use a frame. In any case, do not dry near a radiator. If you are in a hurry, put the sweater near a fan.

Keep Clothes Season-Right

During recent years some rather startling innovations have appeared on the fashion scene. Prints and flowered hats blossom in January. Patent leather is on the go the year-round. Pastels peek from under winter furs.

It would seem that there have been some misinterpretations of these happenings. For it is not unusual today to see women strolling about in apparel held over from a previous season.

It is hoped you teen-agers will not follow the lead of these misguided women.

In bringing a note of spring time to winter, fashion designers have hoped to give a lift to a weary season. They have not implied that one could henceforth forget seasonal garb.

There is nothing more forlorn looking than summer shoes worn with a fall suit. Or a spring suit with a winter coat. Or a heavy woolen dress in spring.

Jean Doncer, Arthur Vancil Say Vows In Baptist Church

The First Baptist Church was the setting of the Marriage of Jean Doncer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Doncer of this city, to Arthur C. Vancil son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Vancil of Jacksonville, Arkansas.

They exchanged their wedding vows at 5:30 o'clock in a double ring ceremony at which Reverend James T. Horton officiated. White chrysanthemums in baskets were placed on either side of the chancel and were flanked by seven-branched candelabra holding burning tapers. Miss Carolyn Futrell at the organ rendered a program of nuptial music and accompanied Miss Sara Cloud when she sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of chantilly lace with fitted lace bodice with the sleeves coming to petal points over the hands. The waltz length skirt of lace over bridal satin was scalloped and was accented by panels of tulle. Her finger tip veil of illusion was held in place by a cap of lace over satin. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and tuberoses tied with satin ribbons.

Mrs. H. P. Stein, the brides only attendant wore a waltz length gown of yellow tulle and carried a bouquet of orchid chrysanthemums. Miss Barbara Goodwin and Miss Betty Case, wearing similar gowns of green tulle, with wrist corsages, lighted the candles.

The reception was held at the brides home, 1206 Cole Ave., immediately following the ceremony. White flowers in silver vases were placed throughout the house. The brides table was covered with a lace cloth over green satin. An arrangement of yellow dahlias centered the table and white candles were placed diagonally across the table. The three tiered wedding cake was at one end of the table while at the other was a crystal punch bowl holding golden punch.

The bride is a senior at Ouachita Parish High School and the bridegroom is a graduate of the Jacksonville High School.

After a short wedding trip they are at home 2609½ Gordon Ave.

Out of town guests for the wedding were; Mrs. Laura Allen, the great grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Vassie Bostic, her aunt of Emerson, Ark. Mrs. A. F. Vancil, Jacksonville, Ark., mother of the bridegroom.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. L. W. McNaughton, of Minden. Other guests from Minden were Mrs. Walter Lyons and sons Bobby and Charles, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Blake and two children and Mrs. Travis Lanier and granddaughter of Winnsboro.

Rehearsal Supper

Following the rehearsal of the wedding the bride and bridegroom were guests of honor at a supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Doncer, parents of the bride, at the La Casa Tea Room. The table in the dining room at which the bridal couple were seated, was decorated with an arrangement of pink roses also the gifts for the wedding party were tied with pink ribbons.

Place cards held the names of Mrs. A. F. Vancil, Reverend J. T. Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Wilson, Paul Fleming, Bill Norris, Mrs. H. P. Stein, Miss Betty Case, Miss Barbara Goodwin, Miss Sara Cloud and the honorees.

For neckline accents, choker necklaces, long earrings, scarves tied closely around the neck are fine for the woman with a long, thin neck. But if you have a broad face and short neck, forget them. They just accentuate these features.

Cashmere sweaters are a bit expensive for the budget, but for the fashion-wise, they're invaluable. With care, a cashmere will have a long life.

Miss Waggoner Is Fiancee Of Bobby Albritton

DOWNSVILLE — The announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Waggoner of Downsville of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Alice Joan, to Bobby G. Albritton, son of Mr. A. W. Albritton and the late Mrs. Albritton of Farmerville.

The wedding will take place in the Downsville Baptist Church on Sunday, December 6, at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Ardis Smith, pastor, will officiate.

Miss Waggoner is a graduate of Downsville High School and the Mississippi Baptist Hospital School of Nursing, Jackson, Miss. She is now employed by Dr. W. C. Terral in the Farmerville clinic-hospital.

Mr. Albritton is a graduate of Farmerville High School. He is now employed by the Commercial Solvents Corporation of Sterlington.

This medium is used to invite friends and relatives to attend the wedding.

Gloves this season are more decorative — and decorated — than in a long time. They are embellished with embroidery and beads, French knots, and almost anything a designer's ingenuity can conjure up.

YWCA Activities

On Thursday morning the YWCA Board of Directors met with Mrs. B. L. Mulhern, President, presiding. The devotional was given by Reverend W. H. McFadden, Pastor of First Presbyterian Church. Reverend McFadden used Job as an example of one who had great faith and trust in God even in Job's time of affliction, suffering and loss, and several verses from the book of Job were read by Reverend McFadden. How do we react to the things that happen to us? . . .do we have faith and trust in God? . . .are we victims of life or are we victors over life? This very inspiring and helpful devotional meant much to each member present at this meeting. A Financial Report was given by Mrs. H. G. Thompson, Treasurer of Board and by Mrs. Ruth Hundley, House Mother. Mrs. B. E. McWilliams and Mrs. E. A. Bishop gave a report on the activities, projects, and programs planned for the Y-ves' Club and announced that Mrs. B. E. McWilliams is the new President of Y-ves'. Miss Sharp gave a report on the programs and activities of the Business Girls' Club and on the Y-Teens. The Business Girls are assisting with the project of dressing dolls for the Salvation Army, have sent two "kits" to Korea and contributed to the World Fellowship Fund, are contributing a box for the Red Cross project of "packages for the soldiers on high seas" at Christmas, and are to sponsor a party for less priviledged children at Christmas. The Y-Teens have been having ministers from various churches to speak to the individual clubs on the Y-Teen theme: "For This We Live"; clubs have been organized at Ouachita Parish High School, Ouachita Parish Grammar School, Selman School, Lenwil School, Crosley School, and West Monroe High School; each club group has purchased a "friendship scarf" to be sent to a foreign country: Korea, England, Germany, Mexico, and the Philippines and are contributing to the World Fellowship Fund to be used for Y-Teen Work in these countries. Miss Sharp had the scarfs to display. A report on the Ouachita Parish Health Council and the organization of the Lousiana Society for Mental Health was given to the Board, and Mrs. A. T. White was asked to represent the YWCA at the Civilian Defense meeting on Tuesday afternoon Mrs. J. C. Liner was elected as a new Board Member. Officers for 1953-54 YWCA are President: Mrs. B. L. Mulhern; Vice President: Mrs. N. W. McHenry, Recording Secretary: Mrs. Jack Howard; Corresponding Secretary: Mrs. L. N. Copes; Treasurer. Ms. H. G. Thompson. Members of the Board for 1953 - 54 are: Mrs. Metris Bell, Mrs. Milling Bernstein, Mrs. E. A. Bishop, Mrs. E. P. Cudd, Mrs. L. N. Copes, Mrs. D. X. Ellett, Mrs. E. B. Music Guild Presents An Open Program Wednesday

The Music Guild will present an open program Wednesday afternoon, November the eighteenth at four thirty in the Ballroom of the Virginia Hotel. This group of talented musicians is a member of the State and National Federation Of Music Clubs. On this program, the Music Guild has invited two guest artists of outstanding talent and ability to appear.

Mrs. Ann Whitsit Eubanks, pupil of Mrs. Estelle Sanders, will sing a group of arias and Mr. Eloy Fominaya of the musical faculty of Northeast State College, will play violin selections.

The Choral Ensemble of the Music Guild, directed by Mrs. Wilbur Bullock and accompanied by Mrs. Willys Hopkins, will sing compositions by the American Composer E. A. MacDowell.

The National Federation of Music Clubs, consistently and intelligently has had at heart the good of the American composer and the promotion of American Music. One of the projects of this organization is to assist in sponsoring the MacDowell Colony at Peterboro, New Hampshire.

Artists in all fields of music, art and literature are invited to spend the summers at this colony where they may work undisturbed in peaceful surroundings. The fulfillment of the MacDowell Colony is best seen in the high character of the works that have been produced there.

At the close of the program guests are invited to remain for refreshments. There will be an opportunity given for those who wish to contribute to the MacDowell Fund. All members of all clubs are invited to enjoy this entertaining program of music. Mrs. Cecil Hill is president of the Music Guild. Mrs. Wilbur Bullock and Mrs. J. Norman Coon have arranged the program.

SOMETIME soon — like this week — you ought to try a Buick with Twin-Turbine Dynaflow.*
You ought to try it just to be familiar with the great advance in this fully automatic transmission that Buick engineers have accomplished.
You ought to try it just for the fun of bossing a drive where you don't do a blessed thing but steer and press the gas or the brake pedal as you go.
But, pure and simple, you ought to try it for thrills.
We mean the thrill of instant getaway response—with two turbines doing the job that one did before.
We mean the thrill of whisper-quiet acceleration — where you barely hear the sound of power build-up, or of flowing oil at work.
And, most emphatically, we mean the thrill of perfect and sublime smoothness from start to stop — the thrill of moving from standstill to and through all travel ranges in one, progressive, infinitely smooth forward "carry" without a gear ever shifting or a clutch-pedal pushed—the thrill, rarely found elsewhere, of silky smoothness in deceleration, too.
Will you be our guest at a sampling of a Buick with TT Dynaflow?
Will you try the sweetest, the smoothest and the simplest-to-operate automatic transmission yet devised — and powered by the highest-compression engines in Buick history, including the world's newest V8 in SUPER and ROADMASTER models?
Drop in on us this week and we'll be happy to accommodate you.

MISS MARILYN HARPER'S engagement and approaching marriage to George Sartor, son of Mrs. F. B. Sartor and the late Mr. Sartor, is announced today by her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Harper of Mangham. The wedding will take place at 5 o'clock in the afternoon of Thursday, November 26 at the Mangham Baptist Church, immediately followed by a reception in the home of the bride's parents. Friends are invited.

MISS RUTH ELLA WARLICK'S engagement and approaching marriage to Mr. Bennie Edgar Oakes, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Oakes of Durant, Miss., is announced today by her parents, Rev. and Mrs. William C. Warlick, Sr. The wedding will be solemnized at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, December 6, at the Emmanuel Baptist Church.

YWCA Activities

On Thursday morning the YWCA Board of Directors met with Mrs. B. L. Mulhern, President, presiding. The devotional was given by Reverend W. H. McFadden, Pastor of First Presbyterian Church. Reverend McFadden used Job as an example of one who had great faith and trust in God even in Job's time of affliction, suffering and loss, and several verses from the book of Job were read by Reverend McFadden. How do we react to the things that happen to us? . . .do we have faith and trust in God? . . .are we victims of life or are we victors over life? This very inspiring and helpful devotional meant much to each member present at this meeting. A Financial Report was given by Mrs. H. G. Thompson, Treasurer of Board and by Mrs. Ruth Hundley, House Mother. Mrs. B. E. McWilliams and Mrs. E. A. Bishop gave a report on the activities, projects, and programs planned for the Y-ves' Club and announced that Mrs. B. E. McWilliams is the new President of Y-ves'. Miss Sharp gave a report on the programs and activities of the Business Girls' Club and on the Y-Teens. The Business Girls are assisting with the project of dressing dolls for the Salvation Army, have sent two "kits" to Korea and contributed to the World Fellowship Fund, are contributing a box for the Red Cross project of "packages for the soldiers on high seas" at Christmas, and are to sponsor a party for less priviledged children at Christmas. The Y-Teens have been having ministers from various churches to speak to the individual clubs on the Y-Teen theme: "For This We Live"; clubs have been organized at Ouachita Parish High School, Ouachita Parish Grammar School, Selman School, Lenwil School, Crosley School, and West Monroe High School; each club group has purchased a "friendship scarf" to be sent to a foreign country: Korea, England, Germany, Mexico, and the Philippines and are contributing to the World Fellowship Fund to be used for Y-Teen Work in these countries. Miss Sharp had the scarfs to display. A report on the Ouachita Parish Health Council and the organization of the Lousiana Society for Mental Health was given to the Board, and Mrs. A. T. White was asked to represent the YWCA at the Civilian Defense meeting on Tuesday afternoon Mrs. J. C. Liner was elected as a new Board Member. Officers for 1953-54 YWCA are President: Mrs. B. L. Mulhern; Vice President: Mrs. N. W. McHenry, Recording Secretary: Mrs. Jack Howard; Corresponding Secretary: Mrs. L. N. Copes; Treasurer. Ms. H. G. Thompson. Members of the Board for 1953 - 54 are: Mrs. Metris Bell, Mrs. Milling Bernstein, Mrs. E. A. Bishop, Mrs. E. P. Cudd, Mrs. L. N. Copes, Mrs. D. X. Ellett, Mrs. E. B. Ellison, Mrs. Francis Faulk, Mrs. Jack Howard, Mrs. J. C. Liner, Mrs. H. A. McDonald, Mrs. N. W. McHenry, Mrs. B. E. McWilliams, Miss Nona Martin, Mrs. B. L. Mulhern, Mrs. A. D. Read, Mrs. C. L. Taylor, Mrs. H. G. Thompson, Mrs. E. Elliot Thompson, Mrs. A. D. Tisdale, Mrs. H. K. Touchstone, Sr., Mrs. J. E. Walsworth, Mrs. A. T. White. YWCA World Fellowship Week is November 8th-15th. The report of the Building Committee announced to the Board and the YWCA the gift of the wonderful sign for the YWCA by Miss Juanita Porter and the gift of the linoleum for the kitchen und hall floor by the Y-ves' Club of the YWCA. The meeting was adjourned.

MISS GERALDINE WEIR'S engagement to Lt. Ralph Marionneaux, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Marionneaux of Monroe, is announced today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Weir of West Monroe. The wedding will be an event of December.

Music Guild Presents An Open Program Wednesday

The Music Guild will present an open program Wednesday afternoon, November the eighteenth at four thirty in the Ballroom of the Virginia Hotel. This group of talented musicians is a member of the State and National Federation Of Music Clubs. On this program, the Music Guild has invited two guest artists of outstanding talent and ability to appear.

Mrs. Ann Whitsit Eubanks, pupil of Mrs. Estelle Sanders, will sing a group of arias and Mr. Eloy Fominaya of the musical faculty of Northeast State College, will play violin selections.

The Choral Ensemble of the Music Guild, directed by Mrs. Wilbur Bullock and accompanied by Mrs. Willys Hopkins, will sing compositions by the American Composer E. A. MacDowell.

The National Federation of Music Clubs, consistently and intelligently has had at heart the good of the American composer and the promotion of American Music. One of the projects of this organization is to assist in sponsoring the MacDowell Colony at Peterboro, New Hampshire.

Artists in all fields of music, art and literature are invited to spend the summers at this colony where they may work undisturbed in peaceful surroundings. The fulfillment of the MacDowell Colony is best seen in the high character of the works that have been produced there.

At the close of the program guests are invited to remain for refreshments. There will be an opportunity given for those who wish to contribute to the MacDowell Fund. All members of all clubs are invited to enjoy this entertaining program of music. Mrs. Cecil Hill is president of the Music Guild. Mrs. Wilbur Bullock and Mrs. J. Norman Coon have arranged the program.

Morning Ceremony Unites Couple

EPPS — Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Laird announce the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Irene Chamberlain of Shreveport, to Mr. J. Lindsey Herndon, son of Mrs. David Allen Herndon and the late D. A. Herndon of Shreveport. The marriage vows was spoken on Oct. 24, in the Broadmoor Methodist Church parlor at 11 a.m. Officiating was the Rev. George W. Harbuck.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Ray Byargeon of Shreveport, and the bridegroom's attendant was his brother, David, also of Shreveport. After the ceremony a luncheon was held for all the guests at the Washington Youree Hotel.

Out of town guests included were: Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Chamberlain of Auburn, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stowers of Little Rock, Ark.; Mrs. S. H. Walker, of Jackson, Miss.; Billy Wray Hillman and Miss Connie Scanlan of New Orleans.

"Reading Is Fun" Theme For Book Week Nov. 15-21

Today begins the thirty-fifth annual celebration of Book Week, which will be observed by schools, libraries and book-stores all over this nation. First observed in 1919 with the purpose of increasing interest in books for children, it has had a wonderful influence upon the production of books written especially for children. When the first book week was observed back in 1919, there were very few attractive books for children published each year. Now the volume which comes from the presses annually is enormous. In addition to quantity, the quality of the books has also improved beyond the dream of the far-seeing men and women, who knew in 1919 that children deserved better books than they were getting.

At the branches of the Ouachita Parish Public Library, preparations for book week have been going on for at least a month. Many new titles to appeal to every type of reader have been added to the library collection and today I want to tell you about them.

Let's start with books for teen-agers. Within the past few years a whole body of literature has appeared, written especially to catch the interest to teen-age readers. In each branch of the library we have a section devoted especially to teen-age books. Both boys and girls know just where to find them when they come to the library. "Golden Slippers' by Lee Wyndham is a story of the work and the interesting events in the life of a ballet troupe. It is a story written especially for older girls and they will love it. "The Wavering Flame" by Erick Berry has for its setting Connecticut at the time of the American Revolution. The central character is Jason Reeves, a young printer and the girl Keziah, whom he loved. The interest is establishing independence for the colonies makes a stirring story. The third teen-age book is "Bright Gold" by Jessica Lyon, who has written other books which were very popular with teen-agers. This is the story of a young marriage, which almost failed because of a difference in attitude toward money. It deals with a problem which confronts many young couples and is a sensitive and intelligent junior novel.

For boys and girls not quite ready for the teen-age level, there are three titles which will prove interesting. "Freedom River" by Marjorie Stoneman Douglas is a story of Florida in the colonial period. It is also the story of three boys. It is well written and exciting. "Treasure Beyond Red Mesa" by H. R. Langdale is a really stunning adventure story of three boys from Connecticut who went to New Mexico to search for Uranium. It will hold your interest from the beginning to the end. "Burma Boy" by Willis Lindquist is a story of a young Burmese boy, who alone of all his village was not afraid to attempt to recapture the mighty elephant, that had run wild and escaped into the jungle. This is a book which can be compared with some of Kipling's stories and should be widely read and appreciated.

One field in which the writers of children's books have made rapid strides in the past few years is that of biography. Children like them very much and read them eagerly and no wonder for they are so attractive. Among the new books are several most interesting looking ones. "Henry Wadsworth Longfellow" by Catherine O. Peare is a beautifully written account of the poet who knew and loved children. "Pike of Pike's Peak" by Nina Brown Baker is the story of the intrepid explorer who discovered and scaled Pike's Peak, which bears his name. "Lee, the Gallant General" by Jeanette Eaton is a biography of this noble southerner written for younger children. "The Jacksons of Tennessee" by Marguerite Vance is the story of a fighter, a statesmen and a devoted husband. It is also the story of his charming wife. "Seven Brave Companions" by Adele Gutman Nathan is an account of the brave French explorers who came down from Canada searching for the mouth of the Mississippi River. It is especially timely during this year of the Louisiana Purchase.

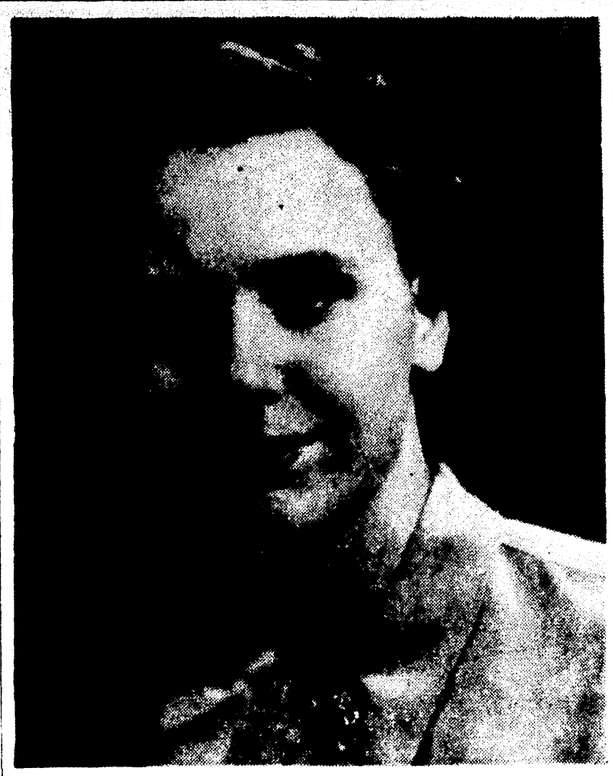

Children like books which deal with facts. They like to know more about the world in which they live. Many of our newest children's books contain factual information and their titles are almost self-explanatory. Julia Forsyth Batchelor has written a book called "Communication From Cave Writing to Television." Herbert S. Zim has a new book called "Parrakeets." Which is a complete manual on the care and raising of Parrakeets. Margaret and Stuart Otto have written a book for young children called "The Tractor Book" which will win the heart of any young boy.

Boys of today are vastly interested in the subject of space travel. "Your Trip Into Space" by Lynn Poole is a fascinating accurate account of the possibilities of space travel. "The Young Traveler in Holland" by Liesje Van Somerен" is a wonderful book for children about that interesting little country. Munro Leaf has written a title that is certainly appropriate for book week called "Reading Can Be Fun" is illustrated with his usual clever illustrations. "All About Dinosaurs" by Roy Chapman Andrews is a book of fascinating information written by a man who really knows his subject. "Jingle Jangle" by Zhenya Gay is a beautiful book of poems for children. "All Bout the Sea" by Ferdinand C. Lane is an attractive book filled with information.

Last but not least, there are several most attractive books for pre-school and beginning readers. "The Steadfast Tin Soldier" by Hans Christian Andersen has been reprinted in a most interesting picture book. "The Little Shepherd" by Bill and Bernard Martin is a beautiful and reverent story of the birth of Christ. "The Christmas Bunny" by Nicholas Mordinoff and William Lipkin is a wonderful fantasy for the very young child. "The Wonderful Fashion Doll" by Laura Bannon is a book to delight the heart of any little girl. In fact it will delight big ones as well. As soon as I saw it, I had to read it myself. "Mr. Grumpy and the Kitten' is a delightful story of how a small black kitten changed the life a very grumpy school janitor. "The Quiet Mother and the Noisy Little Boy' is one that almost any mother could have written and last but certainly not least is "Mr. Revere and I" by Robert Lawson, one of the most attractive books to appear in recent years.

In spite of the two television stations which have recently opened in our city and which certainly take up some of the reading time of children as well as adults, the Ouachita Parish Public Library circulated more books during the month of October than we did in October of 1952. Remember that there is nothing that can take the place of a good book and that "reading really is fun."

MISS ZUELLA ABSHER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Absher of Girard, will wed Mr. Aubrey R. Trisler, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Trisler of Start at five thirty o'clock November 25 at the Start Baptist church.

Young Couple To Wed In Start Baptist Church

At five thirty o'clock Wednesday, November 25, Miss Zuella Absher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Absher of Girard, will become the bride of Mr. Aubrey R. Trisler, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Trisler of Start.

The ceremony, the first wedding in the new Start Baptist Church, will be performed by the Rev. J.S. Deal, pastor.

Both Miss Absher and Mr. Trisler are graduates of Start High School. She attended the school of nursing at Mercy Hospital in Vicksburg. The prospective bridegroom is attending Northeast State College.

Friends of the couple are invited through this medium to the wedding the reception immediately after the ceremony.

Does anybody ever have too many glasses? There's certainly nothing that makes a nicer gift. The A & A PACKAGE STORE at 307 Louisville carries every type you'd want. There are hollow stemmed champagne glasses, several types for beer, as well as the beautiful imported steins they keep on hand. A nice gift would be a set of eight 'slenderized' glasses that come in pastel colors.

Try this grand corn pudding recipe: 3 cups drained whole kernel corn, 2 eggs beaten, 1 tablesp. melted shortening, 1½ cups FOREMOST MILK, ¼ teasp. salt, pepper to taste. Mix corn, eggs, shortening, and FOREMOST MILK. Season with salt and pepper. Pour into greased baking dish and set in a pan of hot water. Bake in moderate oven (350 F) 50 to 60 minutes. Serves 4.

Langdale is a really stunning adventure story of three boys from Connecticut who went to New Mexico to search for Uranium. It will hold your interest from the beginning to the end. "Burma Boy" by Willis Lindquist is a story of a young Burmese boy, who alone of all his village was not afraid to attempt to recapture the mighty elephant, that had run wild and escaped into the jungle. This is a book which can be compared with some of Kipling's stories and should be widely read and appreciated.

One field in which the writers of children's books have made rapid strides in the past few years is that of biography. Children like them very much and read them eagerly and no wonder for they are so attractive. Among the new books are several most interesting looking ones. "Henry Wadsworth Longfellow" by Catherine O. Peare is a beautifully written account of the poet who knew and loved children. "Pike of Pike's Peak" by Nina Brown Baker is the story of the intrepid explorer who discovered and scaled Pike's Peak, which bears his name. "Lee, the Gallant General" by Jeanette Eaton is a biography of this noble southerner written for younger children. "The Jacksons of Tennessee" by Marguerite Vance is the story of a fighter, a statesmen and a devoted husband. It is also the story of his charming wife. "Seven Brave Companions" by Adele Gutman Nathan is an account of the brave French explorers who came down from Canada searching for the mouth of the Mississippi River. It is especially timely during this year of the Louisiana Purchase.

Children like books which deal with facts. They like to know more about the world in which they live. Many of our newest children's books contain factual information and their titles are almost self-explanatory. Julia Forsyth Batchelor has written a book called "Communication From Cave Writing to Television." Herbert S. Zim has a new book called "Parrakeets." Which is a complete manual on the care and raising of Parrakeets. Margaret and Stuart Otto have written a book for young children called "The Tractor Book" which will win the heart of any young boy.

Boys of today are vastly interested in the subject of space travel. "Your Trip Into Space" by Lynn Poole is a fascinating accurate account of the possibilities of space travel. "The Young Traveler in Holland" by Liesje Van Somerен" is a wonderful book for children about that interesting little country. Munro Leaf has written a title that is certainly appropriate for book week called "Reading Can Be Fun" is illustrated with his usual clever illustrations. "All About Dinosaurs" by Roy Chapman Andrews is a book of fascinating information written by a man who really knows his subject. "Jingle Jangle" by Zhenya Gay is a beautiful book of poems for children. "All Bout the Sea" by Ferdinand C. Lane is an attractive book filled with information.

Last but not least, there are several most attractive books for pre-school and beginning readers. "The Steadfast Tin Soldier" by Hans Christian Andersen has been reprinted in a most interesting picture book. "The Little Shepherd" by Bill and Bernard Martin is a beautiful and reverent story of the birth of Christ. "The Christmas Bunny" by Nicholas Mordinoff and William Lipkin is a wonderful fantasy for the very young child. "The Wonderful Fashion Doll" by Laura Bannon is a book to delight the heart of any little girl. In fact it will delight big ones as well. As soon as I saw it, I had to read it myself. "Mr. Grumpy and the Kitten' is a delightful story of how a small black kitten changed the life a very grumpy school janitor. "The Quiet Mother and the Noisy Little Boy' is one that almost any mother could have written and last but certainly not least is "Mr. Revere and I" by Robert Lawson, one of the most attractive books to appear in recent years.

In spite of the two television stations which have recently opened in our city and which certainly take up some of the reading time of children as well as adults, the Ouachita Parish Public Library circulated more books during the month of October than we did in October of 1952. Remember that there is nothing that can take the place of a good book and that "reading really is fun."

A black or gray costume, sparked with a flash of bright color, is a sophisticated grooming technique. Before choosing your color, observe what color is currently most popular. Then decide on another.

It's a wise shopper who does her Christmas buying early. If you're looking for presents now you'd love the fine Italian pottery to be found at the GIFT SHOP at ARON'S PHARMACY, 500 N. 3rd St. It's so delicate in workmanship I referred to it as china until Mr. Aron corrected me. It comes in a variety of pieces and is reasonably priced. Stop in and see it.

Does anybody ever have too many glasses? There's certainly nothing that makes a nicer gift. The A & A PACKAGE STORE at 307 Louisville carries every type you'd want. There are hollow stemmed champagne glasses, several types for beer, as well as the beautiful imported steins they keep on hand. A nice gift would be a set of eight 'slenderized' glasses that come in pastel colors.

Try this grand corn pudding recipe: 3 cups drained whole kernel corn, 2 eggs beaten, 1 tablesp. melted shortening, 1½ cups FOREMOST MILK, ¼ teasp. salt, pepper to taste. Mix corn, eggs, shortening, and FOREMOST MILK. Season with salt and pepper. Pour into greased baking dish and set in a pan of hot water. Bake in moderate oven (350 F) 50 to 60 minutes. Serves 4.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH ROGER SAUCIER

Couple Pledge Troth In Chapel At Camp Polk

The marriage of Miss Yvonne Ewing and Joseph Roger Saucier was solemnized at 6:30 o'clock in the chapel at Camp Polk in Leesville, with the Chaplain, Denis Anderson, officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ewing Jr., 217 Hoover St., West Monroe and Mr. Saucier's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Victor Saucier of Howland, Maine.

The chapel was decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums, white galdioli, and burning tapers in wrought iron candelabra. Woodwardia fern and palms were used in the background.

Larry Pender, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bridal gown of white tulle, waltz length, over satin. The satin shaped into petal daintiness over the bodice and bouffant skirt. The sleeves of satin tapered to a point over the hands. A sweetheart cap edged with heirloom lace and seed pearls held the shoulder length veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet fashioned of white orchids and white carnations. A single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom was her only ornament.

Matron of honor, Mrs. John P. Mays of Camp Polk wore a gown of pink misty nylon net over satin. Her bouquet was a nosegay of pink carnations. She wore a band of split carnations in her hair.

Nickoles Karolides served the bridegroom as best man and Billy Ewing and Dick Soignier were groomsmen.

The reception was held in the reception room of the civilian billet. On the bride's table a reflector, surrounded with green ferns held a tiered wedding cake. Mrs. J. G. Ballard, aunt of the bride served the cake with Miss Helen Warren serving the punch. Others assisting were Mrs. Rose Akers, and Mrs. Beverly Adams. Miss Lottie Mae Ewing, sister of the bride, presided over the bride's book.

The bride is a graduate of Ouachita High School and attended Northwestern State College. She is a member of Alpha Beta Alpha social sorority.

The bridegroom graduated from Howland High School and upon discharge from the army will re-enter the University of Maine.

Out - of - town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ballard, Mrs. P. L. Hendricks, Miss Lottie Mae Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ewing, Jimmy Ewing, Dicky Soignier and Billy Ewing of West Monroe and Miss Betty Gray of Monroe.

With the "Frost on the Pumpkin" we realize that the holiday season is near. We will be drawing from our files our favorite fruit cake, pumpkin pie, etc. recipes. Several members have requested a booklet of recipes from our club members. It will be impossible to compile very many of these this year, but more will be added to this group next year. Maybe you have one you'd like to contribute to this collection. I hope to have these available next week.

Green Tomatoes

Don't let those green tomatoes go to waste. Here is an excellent sandwich spread you can make with some of them. One pint green tomatoes, ground (firm when measuring), 4 bell peppers—2 red, 2 green, 6 medium sweet cucumber pickles, 1 cup sugar, 2 cups flour, 2 tablespoons dry mustard, ½ cup vinegar, 1 cup sour cream, 3 eggs. Salt to taste. Grind tomatoes and peppers. Press out juice by squeezing. Mix all together except cream and eggs—cook together over a low fire until tender, then add cream and last the eggs. Cook only enough after eggs are added to cook them. Put in sterilized jars and seal while hot.

Reorganization of Clubs

November is the month for the reorganization of the 22 Home Demonstration Clubs. Enrollment of members will be made this month, also. Only members who are at November meeting will be enrolled. Those absent will be re-enrolled when they attend a club meeting. So if you want to be a club member in 1954 get re-enrolled by being present at your club meeting. (If for any good reason you have to be absent, call your president and tell her you want to be re-enrolled.)

Council Meeting

November 21 is Ouachita Home Demonstration Council meeting — 10:00 a.m. at the Agricultural Building in West Monroe. The best club for 1953 will be announced by Mr. Tyner, who gives the award for this winning. Is it your club?

Dark clothes are essentials in our wardrobes during winter. These dark clothes require daily care. Get you a bottle of carbon tetrachloride and use it to remove powder from the collar of coats, blouses and dresses. You can also remove many of those small grease spots on ties and from blouses. Carbon tetrachloride is safe as far as fire is concerned, but it should not be used in a closed room on account of fumes.

Fair Committee

The women who are employed by the Ouachita Valley Fair had a one-dish dinner November 6th and only six workers were absent. This was truly a fellowship meeting and this group's expression of appreciation to their Home Demonstration Agent was a happy surprise to her. It is with humility she shall continue to cooperate and work with this splendid group of women. With their assistance, she believes there's not a problem of the Ouachita Valley Fair can't be solved. Thanks again to each of you.

See you next Sunday.

One pint green tomatoes, ground (firm when measuring), 4 bell peppers—2 red, 2 green, 6 medium sweet cucumber pickles, 1 cup sugar, 2 cups flour, 2 tablespoons dry mustard, ½ cup vinegar, 1 cup sour cream, 3 eggs, Salt to taste. Grind tomatoes and peppers. Press out juice by squeezing. Mix all together except cream and eggs—cook together over a low fire until tender, then add cream and last the eggs. Cook only enough after eggs are added to cook them. Put in sterilized jars and seal while hot.

Reorganization of Clubs

November is the month for the reorganization of the 22 Home Demonstration Clubs. Enrollment of members will be made this month, also. Only members who are at November meeting will be enrolled. Those absent will be re-enrolled when they attend a club meeting. So if you want to be a club member in 1954 get re-enrolled by being present at your club meeting. (If for any good reason you have to be absent, call your president and tell her you want to be re-enrolled.)

Council Meeting

November 21 is Ouachita Home Demonstration Council meeting — 10:00 a.m. at the Agricultural Building in West Monroe. The best club for 1953 will be announced by Mr. Tyner, who gives the award for this winning. Is it your club?

Dark clothes are essentials in our wardrobes during winter. These dark clothes require daily care. Get you a bottle of carbon tetrachloride and use it to remove powder from the collar of coats, blouses and dresses. You can also remove many of those small grease spots on ties and from blouses. Carbon tetrachloride is safe as far as fire is concerned, but it should not be used in a closed room on account of fumes.

Fair Committee

The women who are employed by the Ouachita Valley Fair had a one-dish dinner November 6th and only six workers were absent. This was truly a fellowship meeting and this group's expression of appreciation to their Home Demonstration Agent was a happy surprise to her. It is with humility she shall continue to cooperate and work with this splendid group of women. With their assistance, she believes there's not a problem of the Ouachita Valley Fair can't be solved. Thanks again to each of you.

See you next Sunday.

Saving money

Selling more goods this way makes mass production possible—which means lower production costs, lower selling costs, lower prices. Yes, advertising is a low-cost selling method that helps keep your living costs down.

DOLLS FOR THE SALVATION ARMY— Mrs. George Reitze, president of the Current Literary Book Club and Mrs. H. W. Tolson, standing, with some of the dolls the members have dressed to be given to the Salvation Army at Christmas time.

Mrs. C. T. Pifer Is Hostess To Literary Club

An enjoyable luncheon was held Wednesday in the home of Mrs. C. T. Pifer for members of the Monroe Literary Club.

The club's project for the year, sponsorship of a drive during the current weeks of November 9 through the 16 for new memberships in the two Sears Book Clubs, was discussed.

It was pointed out that there will be club representatives in the Sears store each day during the next two weeks.

Mrs. Hardy Whitehead was a guest of the club.

The following members enjoyed the occasion: Mrs. J. E. Baugh, Mrs. C. E. Coe, Mrs. A. B. Colmer, Mrs. J. H. Drake, Mrs. Guy Dupriest, Mrs. J. E. Shannon, Mrs. D. A. Attick, Mrs. C. T. Pifer.

Used, empty salt boxes with metal pouring spouts need not be thrown away. Just brush on a coat of latex-base paint, use a funnel to fill the containers, label them, and they'll be valuable pantry additions.

The temperature of birds is higher than that of mammals.

Shampooing time is perfect for experimenting with new hairdos. While the hair is foamy, the fingers can press it into any style.

If you plan installation of fluorescent lights in your home, bear in mind that this type of lighting has a tendency to make pastel colors—bleached and grayed.

Can This Marriage Be Saved?

She: "Fred talks incessantly about the duties of wives and the privileges of husbands, and insists on being absolute master in our lives. I almost hate him." He: "It is my right to make all family decisions. I cannot grant my love to Ivy unless she acknowledges my full authority as her husband." Read the solution to this problem in the popular Journal series. Don't miss the November Ladies' Home Journal—now on sale at your newsstands.

Miss Beth West Is Honored At Dinner Party

Miss Beth West, bride-elect, was honored at a dinner party given by Mrs. James G. Henry and Mrs. Joe Coleman Tuesday night at the La Casa Tea Room.

The table was centered with yellow and bronze mums interspersed with greenery. Crystal candelholders with yellow candles surrounded by greenery also adorned the table. Place cards with a bride and groom bearing the engaged couple's names and wedding date marked places for the guests.

The honoree was wearing a trousseau model of blue faille with navy accessories with a corsage of bronze mums. Mrs. Henry chose a brown suit with matching brown and beige accessories. Mrs. Coleman wore a becoming black velvet dress.

Enjoying the occasion with the bride-to-be and hostesses were: Mrs. Alvie Wilkinson, Miss Betty Patterson, Miss Delores McClanahan, Mrs. D. E. West, Mrs. R. J. Goza.

Short Cut Is Still First

Everyone agrees there is no age limit on glamor. Any woman can achieve it. Only the approaches are different.

Today's styles, fortunately, are very easily adapted to the mature face. It is true that the Italian boy cut is not for the lady past 40. But then, according to Rene of Paschkes, a fashionable New York salon, "that style is well on the way out."

Short hair, however, continues popular. Rene offers two reasons for its long run in the fashion picture:

"Short hair can be arranged into a style becoming to any age. Then, of course, it is easy to care for. Any woman can keep her hair looking its best between visits to the hairdresser."

Girl Scout News

It's nicer when the sun shines, but Girl Scout camping goes on just the same. Troop 34 on Friday night and Troop 2 on Saturday night had fun regardless, but had to do their cooking inside and call off the proposed lashing project.

Games in front of the fireplace are almost as much fun as around an out of door fire, but not quite. A Girl Scout game, singing, popcorn, and dramatics made a gay evening. Bedtime found all twelve of Troop 34's hardy souls sleeping on the porch. Evidently it it wasn't too cold; they still look hardy.

The nice thing about a fireplace is that it serves for cooking, too, so no changes have to be made in troop plans. It was a new experience to cook breadtwists indoors, but the girls took particular pains to cook them to a golden brown and all went well. The rain just wouldn't let them cook outside even at noon, so their pioneer drumsticks turned into just hamburgers.

Active youngsters can't stay penned up in a building, so they went on a hike in the drizzle and the rain stopped for a while, allowing the girls to collect acorns and shells, swing on the grapevines and enjoy a part of the woods they had never seen before.

The girls who enjoyed the camping experience are: Marilyn Hewitt, Linda Keller, Judy Neal, Mary Jo Strausser, Stuart Miles, Sarah Womack, Dolores Calderone, Carol Haddad, Rita Van Fossen, Carolyn McCleary, Helen Jackson and Mary Jane Young.

Mrs. S. C. Strausser and Mrs. Tom Keller went along as leaders. Assisting them were Miss Lorraine Ragland and Mrs. Janet Andrews, who have just completed the out of door training course. According to Mrs. Keller and Mrs. Strausser they should graduate from the training course with honors.

Troop 2 hiked in the rain on Saturday, had fun with games and charades and dramatics in the evening, and were able to cook their Sunday morning breadtwists out of doors in the sunshine.

Accompanied by Mrs. Amos Hood and Mrs. A. J. Lester, the following girls participated: Linda Faye Atkins, Joyce Crosby, Barbara Neyland, Portia Gould, Louise Lester, Amy Hood, Linda McCormick, Charlotte Pankey, Frances Ruth Phillips, Carolyn Gallaspy, Jerrie Sue Fleming, and Bonnie Evans.

For most of these girls it was their first overnight, but they are looking forward to going back again in the spring.

Troop 2 has been quite busy lately. Besides taking part in the work day at camp and going on an overnight, they entered an attractive float in West Monroe's Armistice Day parade. "Peace through World Friendship" was the theme of the float with the girls of the troop appearing in the costumes of foreign countries.

Plum Street's first Brownie Scout troop held its investiture Wednesday with the following third graders receiving their pins: Gearldean Barham, Claudia Ann Carter, Patricia Ann Chambliss, Julie Clark, Carol Sue Crotwell, Daria Dunckelman, Harmon Louise Fisher, Adell Huckabee, Bobby Ann Martin, Melba Neighbors, and Martha Lucille Posey. Mrs. J. M. Neighbors, Mrs. C. E. Carter, and Mrs. Chambliss are leaders of the above troop, number 6.

With the unexpected holiday Friday we hope some of the troops took advantage of it to go to camp or to do some out-of-door activity.

You Can Wash Fancy Sweaters

Sweaters bedecked with rhinestones, metallic thread, beads and pearls are topping many of the most fashionable evening skirts this season.

Fragile as they may seem, these new tops will take to tubbing as well as your afternoon sweaters, if you just give them a little extra consideration.

Before submerging a jeweled sweater, remove all detachable parts. If it is a cardigan, button it to prevent stretching. If it has a wide neckline that is neither outlined with ribbon binding nor piping, run a basting thread along the edges to hold the shape.

Squeeze the suds through the jeweled parts first, letting the rest of the sweater fall to the bottom of the basin. There will be no strain or stretch on the fibers if you suds the decorated parts just at the surface of the water. And if you take care not to allow heavy jeweling to rest against the fibers, you will have no snags.

The jeweled parts fully washed, lay them on the bottom while you squeeze the suds through the rest of the sweater.

For woolen sweaters, use lukewarm water and rinses. Orlon will take medium hot water. After rinsing, roll the sweater in a towel to remove excess moisture. An orlon sweater needs no blocking; you need only spread it on a towel to dry.

However, if time is of the essence, put your orlon sweater on a regular woolen sweater frame and hang it outdoors to dry. The frame will allow air to blow through the sweater, speeding evaporation.

Brunson-Dew

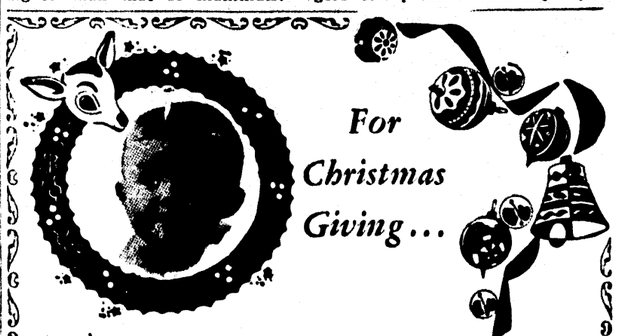

The Caddo Heights Methodist Church of Shreveport was the scene of the wedding of Miss Myrtis Dew and Clifford Brunson.

Reverend F. M. Freeman heard the marriage vows at 10 o'clock in the morning in the presence of the two families and a few friends.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brunson, the brother of the bridegroom.

Upon finishing the painting of your house, inside or out, attach a label to the remaining paint cans, tell where the paint was used. For samples of the paint to take on fabric-shopping expeditions, brush some on index cards.

Floyd-McDonald Vows Pledged

Miss Doris McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McDonald and Porter C. Floyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Floyd of Altas, Ark. were married Tuesday, November 3 in a quiet ceremony, with only family and a few friends in attendance in the home of the Reverend J. W. Buckner who read the marriage vows.

For her wedding the bride wore a navy suit with matching accessories.

Student Union Has Reception At Northeast

The president's home at Northeast State College was the setting for a beautifully appointed reception honoring the Rev. Udell Smith of Alexandria on Thursday between three and five o'clock. The Baptist Student Union was host on the occasion.

Receiving guests with Rev. Smith were Mrs. Lewis Slater, Miss Elaine Brothers, social chairman of the Baptist Student Union and Rev. Howard Williams, president of the Northeast Baptist Student Union.

Presiding at the coffee service was Miss Judy Warran. Assisting with the serving were Miss Nelda Reppond and Miss Jane Blanchard.

Kitchen Needs Glass Wardrobe

The bride would do well to learn a simple lesson in homemaking: No man enjoys using old jelly, jam or cheese jars as drinking glasses.

There is no economy in using these second-hand glasses when attractive ones may be found in dime and department stores for a pittance.

Glassware should be one of the interesting items in the cupboard. There will be wedding glasses, of course—but those will be the fancier types. Stock up on kitchen glassware before the wedding march, but make sure you get your money's worth by choosing double-duty types.

A good starter set includes four of the following (it is a good idea to have the foresight to select a pattern which may be open stock later on):

The 14 oz. tumblers may be used for iced drinks, milk and highballs. Then there are stemmed goblets useful for water; sherbet, which may double for champagne (on rare occasions); cocktail glasses to double for shrimp and fruit; small fruit juice glasses.

Your cooking glassware may include a square oven dish, a round oven dish with cover, a stove pot, and small custard glasses. Add to this a glass coffee pot, teapot and double boiler. The little custard glasses are good too for storing leftovers in the icebox or for serving gelatin soups or desserts.

Taking time to study yours in the mirror is not vanity; it good-grooming sense. Learn wh people see in you. Then acce the good points and eliminate disguise the bad. That's one w to self-confidence.

Here Is Help For Tired Feet

Don't let your feet go to your head. There is no reason to let tired feet sour your disposition when the irritation can be eliminated easily, and quickly.

After a tiring day, perk up your feet by bathing them in hot and cold water. First plunge them into a basin of very warm water; lather them with a lanolin-rich soap, massaging the aching muscles as you do. Then dip them into a basin of cool water. Switch from hot to cold a few more times.

This is a good procedure to follow for your weekly pedicure. After you have finished the alternating dips, file the toenails straight across with an emery board; this will help prevent hose snags. The nails should be kept long enough to protect the tips of the toes.

Next, push back the cuticles and clear the area around the nails with a cotton-wrapped orange stick. First dip the cotton in a solution of peroxide and ammonia made from one tablespoon of peroxide and one-half teaspoon ammonia.

Finally, polish the nails. Dampen one end of a large buffer and sprinkle on a bit of powdered pumice. After using this side a few moments, complete the buffing job with a few brisk swipes with the dry side.

Here Is Help For Tired Feet

Don't let your feet go to your head. There is no reason to let tired feet sour your disposition when the irritation can be eliminated easily, and quickly.

After a tiring day, perk up your feet by bathing them in hot and cold water. First plunge them into a basin of very warm water; lather them with a lanolin-rich soap, massaging the aching muscles as you do. Then dip them into a basin of cool water. Switch from hot to cold a few more times.

This is a good procedure to follow for your weekly pedicure. After you have finished the alternating dips, file the toenails straight across with an emery board; this will help prevent hose snags. The nails should be kept long enough to protect the tips of the toes.

Next, push back the cuticles and clear the area around the nails with a cotton-wrapped orange stick. First dip the cotton in a solution of peroxide and ammonia made from one tablespoon of peroxide and one-half teaspoon ammonia.

Finally, polish the nails. Dampen one end of a large buffer and sprinkle on a bit of powdered pumice. After using this side a few moments, complete the buffing job with a few brisk swipes with the dry side.

Sow In Fall All Flower Seed That Stand Freezing

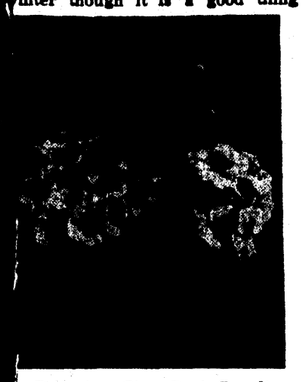

Many flowers, both annual and perennial, can be grown from seed sown in the fall. This method will produce annual flowers next summer earlier than any other, except sowing in a green-house or hotbed. Perennials sown now will usually bloom late next summer.

The safest way for an amateur to sow either annuals or perennials in the fall, is in a seed box. This is the most convenient way also. Not even a cold frame is needed to protect the box over winter though it is a good thing to have. The seed box can be put in a protected corner of the house, covered with leaves, and left until spring.

In a flat, the seeds will escape many of the winter hazards which seeds sown in the open garden will encounter. These hazards include drowning in surface water, washing away in heavy rains, or being uprooted by alternate thawing and freezing. Next to a flat, a raised bed surrounded by a wooden curb is a good place. Fill it with top soil and sow the seeds in rows, properly labeled so you can identify the plants.

A flat for fall sowing is prepared just as for spring sowing. Prepare a porous soil, mixing one-third peat moss, one-third sharp sand and one-third sifted top soil. Cut half an inch of sphagnum moss to top of the soil, sow the seed in rows, and cover with sphagnum lightly.

Any of the hardy perennials may be sown in this way, at any time before the freeze-up. Seeds will lie dormant until spring, and germinate long before you would be able to start a spring operation.

Primulas Give Best Results From Fall Sowing

Annuals which can be sown now are more limited in number. They must be hardy, and should be varieties which self-sow in your locality and are easy to handle. These are likely to include Cosmos, cynoglossum, centaureas, California poppies, snapdragons, calliopsis, the fragrant tobbaco, pansies, dianthus, candytuft, and petunias. Annual larkspur and Shirley poppies are exceptionally good subjects, but are usually sown direct in the garden, because they are not easily transplanted.

Some perennials must be sown in the fall. Examples are the perennial phlox and dictamnus, or gas plant. These require freezing before germination. Primulas also give best result when sown in the fall.

While pansies and violas are best sown in August, if you failed to start them then you can sow them now. Your seed will not produce spring plants as large as those from early sowing, but if you have a shady place to grow them you can have flowers all summer.

Do not try to keep your seed beds or boxes warm this winter. Let them freeze before you apply a protective mulch, which is intended to keep them frozen. Winter thaws do the damage rather than the cold. If you have a cold frame, fill it with dry leaves with your seed boxes underneath, and put the sash over it. In the spring the mulch can be removed and some time gained by promoting early growth from the warmth of the sun. If your seed boxes have spent the winter outdoors, do not remove the mulch until the deep frost is out of the ground, then place the boxes in the sun and water as needed. Germination will usually begin while nightly frost is still usual, but the hardy plants will not be injured.

Annual flowers grown from fall sown seed are more vigorous than those started under protection in the spring. They usually blossom almost as early, and reach full maturity more quickly.

Southern Gardener

By WILLIAM LANIER HUNT

It is now time to clean up the garden and grounds if you have not already done so. Some gardeners are fanatics on burning everything in sight, and some will not burn so much as a leaf. Most of the dead tops of perennials and annuals and certainly all the foliage from rose beds and other shrubs which are very subject to special diseases on their leaves should be buried or at least buried and composted in some way or other. In the commercial pecan orchards where raking and burning the leaves and twigs is not feasible, they plow them under each fall. Gardeners have the same choice because there are very few diseases indeed which will not be destroyed by composting leaves and twigs. You need not be afraid to use this material right on the flower beds after it has been in the compost heap a year or so.

As we have said before in the autumn, you can certainly get rid of a lot of leaves by piling them in shallow piles about knee high and then scattering some good soil over them. They will go down in nothing right before your eyes, and you can put on layer after layer in this way and wind up with a low slightly elevated pile where you can go and get excellent leaf soil even if you do not put one single thing on it to make decay. Of course, if you will put fertilizer over the top every month or so, it will break down faster and be a richer type of humus at the end of next summer. If you wish to remove this humus and use it, be sure that the pile is not under trees because they will surely beat you to it and fill it with a tangle of roots.

There is hardly a more effective way to feed your trees where there is little or no topsoil than by spreading the leaves over their roots and then sifting some rich soil and fertilizer over the whole area. If you will put on a light layer of leaves and then some soil and then more leaves again and do more sifting of soil, you will not pack the leaves too tightly into each layer. The trees will show the benefits of this feeding the second year after it is done, and you will soon find yourself carrying out a program of tree feeding on the whole place. Of course, this is a way to build soil for a lawn, too, and it does not take as many years as you might think. People who have large tree-covered areas could find this an inexpensive and sure way to buildup their soil.

Our summer drouths teach us how valuable a deep mulch of some kind is when the rains refuse to come down. To deliberately throw away a whole year's crop of leaves when we need them so desperately in the summer is the sheerest folly. Yet one sees the fire and smells the smoke every year when Fall comes around. Some towns will now haul away your leaves free of charge. They can then grind them or compost them and, if they wish, sell them back to the people from whose yards they were collected! Leaf grinders are extremely practical for institutions where large areas of grass are maintained under the trees. In some communities, you can hire the service of a leaf grinder which is small enough to go over your lawns. When grinder passes over the leaves, it chops them up into tiny bits and leaves them right where they were to be incorporated with the soil or to rot and serve as turf builder.

Many Southern rose lovers follow the practice of removing the mulch from their rose beds in the Fall. They either burn the whole mulch or incorporate it in the compost pile. When spring comes around again, they put on a new mulch. In this way, they hope to prevent the spread of diseases in their mulch by leaving the beds bare in winter.

Later, October and November flowers have been as fine this year as we have ever had in the south where gardeners were able to get through the severe drouth which visited parts of the country. There are several very dependable plants besides the dahlias, the Japanese anemones and the chrysanthemums which will make really a big show in the middle of the Autumn after almost everything else has stopped blooming or been killed by the frost. One of these is the South African bulb called Nerine bowdeni. The flowers look just like bright pink spider-lillies. They do not usually begin to open till middle October and withstand the cold spells well. We have reported on them before in the column, but they will bear another discussion because they are excellent plants which are here to stay. The foliage comes up and grows off and on during the year whenever the rainfall or garden watering and the outdoor temperature hits it—mostly in late spring and all summer. It usually dies down after two months of growth during some one of our drouths. Strangely enough, no two bulbs seems to have the same ideas about when to grow and when to go dormant, but they will all wind up by blooming at nearly the same time in October! All they need is the same conditions as daffodils. If you pick the blossoms, they will last several weeks in a vase in the house. Along with these pink nerines come the late flowering cimcifugas. You can find them in the perennial catalogues. They are listed as Cimicifuga racemosa Simplex and a variety of this plant called Armleuchter. Long fuzzy spikes of white flower arise from foliage that is beautiful all summer long. Our common form of this plant in the woods blooms in late summer, but the ones mentioned here are very late bloomers. They are plants for shade and leaf mold and like out of the way spots under the trees if you will be careful to feed them once or twice during the summer so the trees roots do not take all the food. Under trees, the frost does not spoil the white flowers of cimicifuga until way in November.

The Home Shift With Mildred Swift

Well, the frosts have come and when we get a few more rains we'll be ready for such garden jobs as shrub and tree planting. I know you're wanting to get that work done. I hope you'll be very kind to your shrubs, take plenty of time and plant them carefully.

I wished for everyone of you gardeners Monday when the Monroe Garden Club met for round - table discussion on camellias and azaleas. There was so much good information applicable to all plants and it was such down-to-earth talk.

So much was said about good humus which you can make in your yard from organic matter from the yard and kitchen waste. That compost heap I've said so much about is the answer. I know you're tired hearing that so on to another subject. The soil for planting is the same as recommended in our camellia bulletin which you can get by calling this office. Both plants need to be set high for proper drainage.

The speakers didn't say for new gardeners to wait a few years to start their camellias and azaleas, but what they did say added up to that. Mrs. Sholars stressed half shade and new gardens usually have no trees to give this. Both plants need acid soil. (Azaleas need much more acid than camellias.) You need a few years to build up your beds and soil to the pH of 4.5 to 5.5. It is not the acid itself that is important to the well being of the plants, but the effect of the acidity on the availability of essential elements.

Dr. Hamilton says more plants have been killed or set back by over fertilization than under fertilization. He recommended the regular mixed fertilizers on the market for these two shrubs, along with cotton seed meal. Aluminum sulphate which acidifies the soil quickly can cause serious damage and has been known to kill entire gardens of camellias. Build your acidity instead of resorting to quick methods.

The speakers stressed using builder's sand when needed in the soil, because the clay has been washed out. They also said to examine the soil in the ball when you purchase a balled plant. Sometimes this is stiff clay and some of it needs to be washed away so the good mixture can get close to the feeder roots. As you know, feeder roots don't go through hard, stiff clay.

Of course, mulch was said to be necessary. The American Year Book on Camellias gave pine bark first place for mulch. Others recommended were: pine straw, oak leaves, bagasse, saw dust and peat moss was given last place. Of course it has last place with most of us because it is so expensive.

This is a recommendation given by Mrs. Sholars that is good practice for any plant that is to be moved. Of course you'll move the shrub during the non - growing season. So — the summer before you plan to transplant take a sharp spade and cut the roots around the plant to encourage growth of many small feeder roots. Don't go all the way around the plant at one cutting. Go half way then wait about a month and cut the other half. Keep the plant watered during dry spells. I'll remind you of this root cutting next summer.

More good advice was — any plant that looks sick — cut it back. Then there's not such a drain on the root system.

Plant Bulbs

It's bulb planting time. Buy bulbs by dimension. The larger the bulb the more blooms you'll have. Don't transplant bulbs in your yard as the root system has already developed. You'll lose this year's blooms. Unless you pick up the entire clump with soil so they don't know they've been moved.

"To Sewers"

If you're interested in making bed spreads, you can now buy corduroy 50 inches wide. It's only $3 a yard, too. Being so wide you don't have to have a seam on the top. Corduroy makes attractive and durable bed spreads for winter.

Fruit Cake and Cooky Book

Your copy of my new fruit cake and cooky recipe book is ready for you. Call 3-2251 and we'll mail you a copy. You'll find all your old favorites along with some new ones plus cooky recipes. This is a compilation of recipes of Twin City housewives. I'll stay in the office tomorrow morning to take your calls.

Reminders

All garden club members who have completed as many as four flower show schools, including number 5, are eligible to take the reading examination to be held in the Agricultural Building at Louisiana Tech, in Ruston. The date is Tuesday, November 17. Mrs. Van Court Sappington, chairman of state flower show schools, says the questions will cover books on the list approved by the National Council of State Gardens.

Mr. C. L. Hill, specialist from Louisiana State University, will show housewives cuts of meat on my show Tuesday at 2:45 on KNOE-TV. You're invited to tune in.

Notes From The Garden Center

Congratulations to the Delhi Garden Club! The monthly cash award was presented to this club for high score in flower arranging and horticulture.

Many gardeners including those from Bastrop, Lake Providence and Marion enjoyed the consultations with Mr. Truman Quinton, plant doctor who held clinics in the center on Thursday and Friday

Those planning holiday tables will be interested in reviewing "Flowers and Table Settings" by Julia S. Berrall. This is a complete guide on how to arrange flowers and set the table.

The distinctive and original arrangements made by the Newellton Garden Club, Newellton and the Garden Study Club of Monroe were the object of much admiration. Awards to the Newellton club were as follows: first place, Mrs. J. W. Hogue, for a lovely crescent design in a brass bowl using sansevieria, phthos leaves and white dahlias; second place went to Mrs. Mary C. Chapman who arranged a green and white composition in a tall white container, using magnolia leaves, variegated pittosporum, and yucco foliage; third place was awarded to Mrs. O. R. Barnes for a dramatic design using maroon canna leaves and seed pods, red celosia and black leaves in a black container.

Garden Study Club awards were a blue ribbon to Mrs. Henson Coon for a crescent arrangement using pussywillow, Betty Prior roses and juniper foliage in a blue green container. Mrs. J. H. Scogin, Jr., also won a blue ribbon for a gold and green mass arrangement using small green watermelons, seed pods of the pittosporum and elaeagnus foliage. Another blue ribbon was presented Mrs. C. T. Johnson for a lovely composition using red radiance roses with self foliage in a dark green container. Mrs. J. F. Stone, Sr. was awarded blue ribbons for variegated Simsii azaleas (rhodendrom type), diakagura camellia and purple dawn camellia.

Judges were Mrs. Guy H. Kincaid, Winnsboro and Mrs. Norman Jardine of Monroe.

Mrs. John Devine of Tallulah will talk on Garden Trends at the center, Tuesday, November 17 at 11 a.m.

GROWING PAINS

By ALBERT S. FULLING

You don't have to have a back yard to be a gardener.

Your garden can be measured in square inches. The garden area can be in your living room or kitchen, whether you have a mansion or modest apartment.

Gardening indoors can be for beauty — or, even on a limited scale, for taste and nourishment.

Florists, who long ago borrowed a page from the book of Japanese miniature gardening, soon will be displaying dish gardens in great variety.

Although you can buy 'em ready made, it's fun to create your own. They give indoor beauty as easy as apple pie and, as with apple pie, you begin with a deep dish — preferably an attractive piece of pottery.

The makings can be bought in florist shops, nursery establishments, and even the dime stores in larger towns.

A friendly Green Thumb atmosphere pervades any place where you go for dish gardens or their ingredients. If you want to belong to the GT fraternity, you're in for just the asking.

But do a little window shopping first. Look over the professionally made dish gardens before choosing your plants. If you pick an off day and don't barge in while there's a big weekend rush, the businessmen will be happy to show you around their green lushness.

For a couple of bucks, you can come up with something real special and durable in the dish garden department. Roll your own and the reward will be the lift of doing it yourself.

Remember, Christmas is approaching fast. Dish gardens of your individual design, to fit the mood or decor of a friend's home, always are delightful gifts.

There are small plants to buy—those available in your area. You also need potting soil. It's solid in small bags, even in dime stores. A little white gravel to represent a garden path, some small ornaments to dress it up, some imagination — and you're gardening on the kitchen table.

You also can get utility out of a kitchen window box. It's too late to plant seeds for winter use, but there's still time in many areas to lift some plants of chives or parsley from the outdoors — or perhaps cajole them from a friend or friendly dealer.

All winter long you can have a few fresh greens for salad — or garnishing — or soups—plus green beauty while washing the dishes.

Bear in mind, though, when handling small plants for dish gardens, tap the little clay pots gently, keep the soil about the roots and place as you please about the dish. Sift potting soil loosely into crevices.

All they need is the same conditions as daffodils. If you pick the blossoms, they will last several weeks in a vase in the house. Along with these pink nerines come the late flowering cimcifugas. You can find them in the perennial catalogues. They are listed as Cimicifuga racemosa Simplex and a variety of this plant called Armleuchter. Long fuzzy spikes of white flower arise from foliage that is beautiful all summer long. Our common form of this plant in the woods blooms in late summer, but the ones mentioned here are very late bloomers. They are plants for shade and leaf mold and like out of the way spots under the trees if you will be careful to feed them once or twice during the summer so the trees roots do not take all the food. Under trees, the frost does not spoil the white flowers of cimicifuga until way in November.

The Home Shift With Mildred Swift

Well, the frosts have come and when we get a few more rains we'll be ready for such garden jobs as shrub and tree planting. I know you're wanting to get that work done. I hope you'll be very kind to your shrubs, take plenty of time and plant them carefully.

I wished for everyone of you gardeners Monday when the Monroe Garden Club met for round - table discussion on camellias and azaleas. There was so much good information applicable to all plants and it was such down-to-earth talk.

So much was said about good humus which you can make in your yard from organic matter from the yard and kitchen waste. That compost heap I've said so much about is the answer. I know you're tired hearing that so on to another subject. The soil for planting is the same as recommended in our camellia bulletin which you can get by calling this office. Both plants need to be set high for proper drainage.

The speakers didn't say for new gardeners to wait a few years to start their camellias and azaleas, but what they did say added up to that. Mrs. Sholars stressed half shade and new gardens usually have no trees to give this. Both plants need acid soil. (Azaleas need much more acid than camellias.) You need a few years to build up your beds and soil to the pH of 4.5 to 5.5. It is not the acid itself that is important to the well being of the plants, but the effect of the acidity on the availability of essential elements.

Dr. Hamilton says more plants have been killed or set back by over fertilization than under fertilization. He recommended the regular mixed fertilizers on the market for these two shrubs, along with cotton seed meal. Aluminum sulphate which acidifies the soil quickly can cause serious damage and has been known to kill entire gardens of camellias. Build your acidity instead of resorting to quick methods.

The speakers stressed using builder's sand when needed in the soil, because the clay has been washed out. They also said to examine the soil in the ball when you purchase a balled plant. Sometimes this is stiff clay and some of it needs to be washed away so the good mixture can get close to the feeder roots. As you know, feeder roots don't go through hard, stiff clay.

Of course, mulch was said to be necessary. The American Year Book on Camellias gave pine bark first place for mulch. Others recommended were: pine straw, oak leaves, bagasse, saw dust and peat moss was given last place. Of course it has last place with most of us because it is so expensive.

This is a recommendation given by Mrs. Sholars that is good practice for any plant that is to be moved. Of course you'll move the shrub during the non - growing season. So — the summer before you plan to transplant take a sharp spade and cut the roots around the plant to encourage growth of many small feeder roots. Don't go all the way around the plant at one cutting. Go half way then wait about a month and cut the other half. Keep the plant watered during dry spells. I'll remind you of this root cutting next summer.

More good advice was — any plant that looks sick — cut it back. Then there's not such a drain on the root system.

Plant Bulbs

It's bulb planting time. Buy bulbs by dimension. The larger the bulb the more blooms you'll have. Don't transplant bulbs in your yard as the root system has already developed. You'll lose this year's blooms. Unless you pick up the entire clump with soil so they don't know they've been moved.

"To Sewers"

If you're interested in making bed spreads, you can now buy corduroy 50 inches wide. It's only $3 a yard, too. Being so wide you don't have to have a seam on the top. Corduroy makes attractive and durable bed spreads for winter.

Fruit Cake and Cooky Book

Your copy of my new fruit cake and cooky recipe book is ready for you. Call 3-2251 and we'll mail you a copy. You'll find all your old favorites along with some new ones plus cooky recipes. This is a compilation of recipes of Twin City housewives. I'll stay in the office tomorrow morning to take your calls.

Reminders

All garden club members who have completed as many as four flower show schools, including number 5, are eligible to take the reading examination to be held in the Agricultural Building at Louisiana Tech, in Ruston. The date is Tuesday, November 17. Mrs. Van Court Sappington, chairman of state flower show schools, says the questions will cover books on the list approved by the National Council of State Gardens.

Mr. C. L. Hill, specialist from Louisiana State University, will show housewives cuts of meat on my show Tuesday at 2:45 on KNOE-TV. You're invited to tune in.

Notes From The Garden Center

Congratulations to the Delhi Garden Club! The monthly cash award was presented to this club for high score in flower arranging and horticulture.

Many gardeners including those from Bastrop, Lake Providence and Marion enjoyed the consultations with Mr. Truman Quinton, plant doctor who held clinics in the center on Thursday and Friday

Those planning holiday tables will be interested in reviewing "Flowers and Table Settings" by Julia S. Berrall. This is a complete guide on how to arrange flowers and set the table.

The distinctive and original arrangements made by the Newellton Garden Club, Newellton and the Garden Study Club of Monroe were the object of much admiration. Awards to the Newellton club were as follows: first place, Mrs. J. W. Hogue, for a lovely crescent design in a brass bowl using sansevieria, phthos leaves and white dahlias; second place went to Mrs. Mary C. Chapman who arranged a green and white composition in a tall white container, using magnolia leaves, varigated pittosporum, and yucco foliage; third place was awarded to Mrs. O. R. Barnes for a dramatic design using maroon canna leaves and seed pods, red celosia and black leaves in a black container.

Garden Study Club awards were a blue ribbon to Mrs. Henson Coon for a crescent arrangement using pussywillow, Betty Prior roses and juniper foliage in a blue green conltainer. Mrs. J. H. Scogin, Jr., also won a blue ribbon for a gold and green mass arrangement using small green watermelons, seed pods of the pittosporum and elaeagnus foliage. Another blue ribbon was presented Mrs. C. T. Johnson for a lovely composition using red radiance roses with self foliage in a dark green container. Mrs. J. F. Stone, Sr. was awarded blue ribbons for variegated Simsii azaleas (rhodendrom type), diakagura camellia and purple dawn camellia.

Judges were Mrs. Guy H. Kincaid, Winnsboro and Mrs. Norman Jardine of Monroe.

Mrs. John Devine of Tallulah will talk on Garden Trends at the center, Tuesday, November 17 at 11 a.m.

GROWING PAINS

By ALBERT S. PULLING

You don't have to have a back yard to be a gardener.

Your garden can be measured in square inches. The garden area can be in your living room or kitchen, whether you have a mansion or modest apartment.

Gardening indoors can be for beauty — or, even on a limited scale, for taste and nourishment.

Florists, who long ago borrowed a page from the book of Japanese miniature gardening, soon will be displaying dish gardens in great variety.

Although you can buy 'em ready made, it's fun to create your own. They give indoor beauty as easy as apple pie and, as with apple pie, you begin with a deep dish — preferably an attractive piece of pottery.

The makings can be bought in florist shops, nursery establishments, and even the dime stores in larger towns.

A friendly Green Thumb atmosphere pervades any place where you go for dish gardens or their ingredients. If you want to belong to the GT fraternity, you're in for just the asking.

But do a little window shopping first. Look over the professionally made dish gardens before choosing your plants. If you pick an off day and don't barge in while there's a big weekend rush, the businessmen will be happy to show you around their green lushness.

For a couple of bucks, you can come up with something real special and durable in the dish garden department. Roll your own and the reward will be the lift of doing it yourself.

Remember, Christmas is approaching fast. Dish gardens of your individual design, to fit the mood or decor of a friend's home, always are delightful gifts.

There are small plants to buy—those available in your area. You also need potting soil. It's solid in small bags, even in dime stores. A little white gravel to represent a garden path, some small ornaments to dress it up, some imagination — and you're gardening on the kitchen table.

You also can get utility out of a kitchen window box. It's too late to plant seeds for winter use, but there's still time in many areas to lift some plants of chives or parsley from the outdoors — or perhaps cajole them from a friend or friendly dealer.

All winter long you can have a few fresh greens for salad — or garnishing — or soups—plus green beauty while washing the dishes.

Bear in mind, though, when handling small plants for dish gardens, tap the little clay pots gently, keep the soil about the roots and place as you please about the dish. Sift potting soil loosely into crevices.

Evangelistic Campaign Starting In W. Monroe

Sunday marks the beginning of a gigantic evangelistic crusade in the First Baptist Church of West Monroe. According to the Rev. Jaroy Weber, pastor, Dr. Warren Walker of Corpus Christi, Tex., will direct the crusade that begins on Sunday, November 15 and continues through November 22.

Services will be conducted each morning from 7:15 to 7:45, Monday through Saturday and each evening at 7:30. Nurseries for youngsters through three years of age will be provided and parents are urged to attend all services while their children are cared for by competent attendants.

Dr. Walker is pastor of the Second Baptist Church of Corpus Christi. Before accepting this pastorate, Dr. Walker was an evangelist who preached in every state wherein the Southern Baptist Convention serves. He is no stranger in this section, having conducted revivals in Bastrop and Homer.

DR. WARREN WALKER

To climax the revival on November 22 gigantic plans are being formulated to reach a record number of 1300 in Sunday School and 700 in Training Union. A cordial invitation is extended to residents of the Twin Cities to attend each service during the revival.

Temple Baptists To See Film On 30 Silver Pieces

A twelve minute film "Thirty Pieces of Silver" will be shown at Training Union general assembly program Sunday, November 15, beginning at 6:30 p. m. This is the seventh in a series of films on The Living Bible being presented by Training Union at Temple Baptist Church. This series will run through November and December. All are urged to attend your Training Union and receive a blessing by seeing this series of films.

Following is a resume of film for Sunday night. At the Mount of Olives, Jesus tells His Disciples about the end, saying that there would be wars and rumors of wars, nations fighting against nations, and brothers and parents betraying each other. Jesus predicts His own death even as the temple rulers plot to destroy Him. At the house of Simon the leper, as Mary the sister of Simon anoints Jesus with a costly oil, Judas Iscariot decries this waste saying that it should be sold and the proceeds given to the poor. Jesus, knowing this to be a preparation of His body for burial, answers, "The poor you will always have with you, but you will not always have Me." Judas leaves the house of Simon and joins the plotting rulers in the temple who give him 30 pieces of silver, the price of a slave, to deliver Jesus into their hands.

Remember our big tent revival begins tonight at Temple Baptist Church, Rev. H. G. Buchanan from Shreveport, La., will conduct the services and J. W. Carraway The Singing Engineer will lead the music.

Dean Smith Of Centenary To Lecture Here

The First Methodist Church in Monroe announces a series of popular Bible lectures to be given by Dean R. E. Smith, of Centenary college in the church starting today and continuing through Thursday. The public is urged to attend.

Sunday, Nov. 15: 10:50 a.m., The Bible Before the Bible; 7:30 p.m., Revelation and Revolution.

Monday, Nov. 16: 7:30 p.m., The Price of Love — The Prince of Prophets.

Tuesday, Nov. 17: 7:30 p.m., The Country Punster — Two Sides of the Question.

Wednesday, Nov. 18: 6:00 p.m., Covered Dish Supper — Address: The Home and Church Working together, Mrs. R. E. Smith; 7:30 p.m., The Doubter Doubts His Doubts — Defying Kings and Priests.

Thursday, Nov. 19: 7:30 p.m., Losses and Gains of the Exile—The Failure of Success.

Friday, Nov. 20: 7:30 p.m., Pictures of Missions in Latin America —Rev. J. V. Reid.

It is said of Dean Smith that he makes the Bible more vivid than ever and throws a new light on the Scriptures. There is ever a lot of humor for the dean has an abundance of wit in his make-up. There are no books to buy and no assignments, simply the pure and undiluted Gospel is the mind that he delights to make live in a manner that is forceable and practicable.

Catholic Women In Ferriday To Meet In Homes

FERRIDAY (Special) — The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine meetings of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Vidalia, for study, are being held weekly in different homes, but a monthly business and social meeting of the Altar Society takes place once every month. The meeting Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Nathan Calhoun as co-hostess with her mother, Mrs. Clyde Falkenheiner, Mrs. C. J. Sullveh, and Mrs. William Clyde Falkenheiner, was interesting and pleasant, as to business and social aspects.

The usual rule of prayers, at the opening and close of the meeting, was followed, and there were reports from different committees, and the results of the recent successful spaghetti benefit and rummage sales, were given and proved most gratifying and another rummage sale for this Saturday was announced.

Old Time Tent Revival Is Plan, Temple Church

Temple Baptist Church, 601 Plum Street, will start an old time tent revival Sunday, November 15, 1953.

This is a great day for Temple Baptist, and all are looking forward to the greatest revival ever held at this church. Rev. H. G. Buchanan from Calvary Church in Shreveport, Louisiana, will be the evangelist and J. W. Carraway, The Singing Engineer will be music director and will furnish all special music.

Rev. Buchanan has been pastor of Calvary Church in Shreveport, Louisiana since October 1, 1940. At the time he accepted the call as pastor of this church the membership was 231 and during this thirteen years as pastor the church now has over 2500 members.

J. W. Carraway known by many throughout the south as "The Singing Engineer" has surrendered his life to gospel singing and personal soulwinning and in addition surrendered to the call of ministry in July of this year. At the present time he is pastor of West Side Baptist Church in Bastrop, Louisiana. He has recorded some of the finest and best loved hymns of all time.

The pastor and members of Temple Baptist Church urge all members to be present for all services Sunday. A goal of 250 in Sunday School and 125 in Training Union has been set. Extend a cordial invitation to all to come out and enjoy these few days of gospel preaching and gospel singing with us. Services will be held each day at 7:30, 9:30 and 7:30 p. m. Tune in to KMLB Sunday 1:15 to 1:30 p. m. for a special sermon by the pastor.

The ancient Druids believed that the dead atoned for their sins by residing in the bodies of animals.

Mrs. T. O. Wedel, Noted Church Leader, To Speak

Mrs. O. N. McNeil, president of the Woman's Auxiliary of Grace Episcopal Church, announces that on Tuesday, November 17, Mrs. Theodore O. Wedel of Washington, D. C., will be the guest of the auxiliary and will speak in Grace Church on Tuesday evening at 7:30. This hour has been set to allow the men the privilege of hearing her speech. The auxiliary is very fortunate to be able to present Mrs. Wedel as she is a noted speaker and nationally known in the whole life of the Episcopal Church. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. Wedel, graduate of Northwestern University, where she received two degrees, has done professional work in Episcopal church circles for a decade. Her husband is Dr. Theodore O. Wedel, Canon of Washington Cathedral, Warden of the College of Preachers, and author of several best selling books.

Mrs. Wedel was formerly president of the woman's auxiliary of the Episcopal Church, Diocese of Washington and served six years as a member of the national executive board of the woman's auxiliary of the Episcopal Church. She is also a member of the board of the department of United Church Women of the National Council of Churches. She is the representative of American church women on the World Council of Churches' Commission on the life and work of women in the church.

Mrs. Wedel is active in civic affairs, being one of the nine members of the board of public welfare of Washington, D. C., and chairman of its regulations committee, which deals with the problems of adoptions. She is a member and former chairman of the health section of United Community Services, which is the health council for the Washington area. She has been active in the Community Chest, and was for two years chairman of the women's division. She is also a member, and former chairman, of the board of the volunteer bureau of Washington.

Mrs. Wedel is also a volunteer consultant on the national staff of volunteer services of the American Red Cross, which involves volunteer work in the office, and a considerable amount of traveling and speaking for the Red Cross.

She is currently working for her Ph. D. degree in psychology at George Washington University.

Last Day Here In Attendance Church Contest

Today marks the last day of a national Sunday school contest that the Monroe Church of God, 800 Georgia street, Rev. T. M. McClendon pastor, has been participating. Much interest and a greater attendance have been shown through the contest.

This last day of the contest will be even more interesting and exciting than other days in which competition has been the rule. This day is called "Victory Day" and is under supervision of Rev. Horace Taylor.

It will be victory day only provided that all past records are shattered in the way of attendance.

Starting tonight this church will initiate a series of revival services with Evangelist Neal, Jackson, Miss., as leader.

The public is cordially invited to all meetings.

Rev. Carraway Named Pastor Of Emmanuel Baptist

The Emanuel Baptist Church, North Fifth and Breard streets, announced today that Rev. James W. Carraway has accepted the pastorship of the church.

Rev. Carraway, who is well known as the "Singing Engineer," has been engaged in evangelistic singing at revivals for the past several years and has held music director posts in the Twin Cities.

He has recently been pastor of the West Side Baptist Church in Bastrop.

For the past two years, Rev. Carraway has presented a program of sacred hymns heard over a local radio station every Sunday and has recently taken over a TV program. He has also recorded a large number of hymns.

New Light Church To Initiate Its Revival

Sunday night will mark the start of a revival at New Light Church on Prairie road. Rev. Wayne Carpenter, pastor of Loch Arbor Baptist Church will be the evangelist.

The public is cordially invited to attend all services. The night services are to start with a song service at 7:15 p.m. There will be a prayer meeting for all groups at 7 p.m.

Rev. J. C. Houston asks that all his members aid with their prayers.

Rev. Jack Bacum Gets License To Preach

DELHI, La. (Special) — Rev. Jack Bacum, well known in this area, has been licensed to preach and will be assigned in the ministry at Lamar Baptist Church of which Rev. Ralph Frasier is pastor.

He is a graduate of Central High School, Delhi, and has been active in church work, and director of the Training Union.

Fifty Millions Spent For Churches Planned

Methodist churches across America are engaged in raising $50,000,000 for new and remodelled church structures, reports Dr. Earl R. Brown, of New York, executive secretary of national missions in the Methodist Church's Board of Missions. Eighty annual conferences are engaged in this effort, and they will erect about 1,000 new churches and remodel as many more.

"While it is true that what we are doing in the way of erecting new churches seems small in comparison to the need," Dr. Brown said, "the fact remains that no other denomination is raising more funds for new churches than is Methodism. The history of Methodism in America has been that the first churches, built on the Atlantic seaboard, furnished the funds that extended the church into new communities as they sprang up in the middle west and the far west. Now it is up to these churches, thus helped in the begining, to help erect new structures in the needy and growing new communities rising everywhere across the continent."

In pointing out the need for new churches, Dr. Elliott Fisher, the Methodist Church's home missions authority, reported that more than ever in its history America is now a "nation on the move."

"More than 31,000,000 people moved from one community to another in 1950-51," he said, "and today there are more than 60,000,000 people living in areas not served by any church — Protestant, Catholic or Jewish."

In the rural but non-farm sections of America — the areas of small villages — Dr. Fisher added, the population has been growing faster than are the cities, making added problems for the churches, and making new village churches necessary. At the same time, he noted, there has been a new city "born" in the United States each day for the past 5 years.

"This shifting and growing population includes all races and minority groups in our nation — including those among whom Methodism carries on missionary service," said Dr. Fisher. "Actually there are today more Negroes in California than in Tennessee, and the shift of Negroes from the south is greatest to the northeast and to the west where they become engaged in industry more than in agriculture. For these people and for other minority groups such as the Americans of Mexican and Indian ancestry in the southwestern states, there is constant call for new churches and new ministries."

Across the nation, Dr. Brown reported, the Methodist church is building an average of two new churches each day, and also each day reopening a closed church or dividing a circuit into two parishes.

Welcome Branch Book Club Gives Time To Dolls

One of the numerous projects that Welcome Branch Book Club has been engaged in is that of dressing dolls for underprivileged children. These are to be distributed by the Salvation Army at Christmas time.

Mrs. R. H. Dollar, club president, states that eighteen dolls have been dressed. The women had a great time when it came to decide on whether one should be dressed as a bride, a baby or a boy doll. This club helps with many worthwhile projects.

COVENANT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Reverend Wayne W. Gray, Minister.
(Services in Brown Auditorium of Northeast Louisiana State College.)
Sunday School, 9:30 a.m., Mr. Frank V. Spivey, superintendent.
Morning Worship, 11:00 a.m. Sermon: "Woe to the Loafers in Zion."
Ease and loafing are dangerous for one can drift into disaster easily in such times. But the peril of loafing and being at ease reaches its height when Zion becomes the sphere of this indulgence. The name of Zion represents the things that belong to God, His dwelling place. The greatest evil that can befall a man is not some foe that strikes from without, but rather an unconcerned attitude towards God and the things pertaining to His Kingdom.
We are a friendly church with a Christian message and you are most cordially invited to worship with us.
The Pioneer Group will meet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hoy Anders, 1607 Emerson, this evening at six o'clock.
Senior High Fellowship Group will meet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Jones, 116 Pargoud Dr., this evening at six o'clock.

Bible Comment

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

Christian Responsibility

Recently I wrote of the need for better church members. It is a need that is by no means confined to the churches. We need better citizens, more intelligent voters, better politicians, better leaders in every sphere and walk of life—not disparaging the many who are already giving their best.

What is responsibility? It centers in the simpler word, duty. But it means and implies something more. Duty is chiefly related to one particular task or object. Responsibility is a whole-range attitude of which every particular duty is a part.

The nature and meaning of responsibility are often brought out more clearly by the lack of it. Think, for instance, of the vast number of officials and people in what should be responsible positions who, annually or oftener, enter upon their offices or positions with oaths to perform all that pertains to place and office honestly and to the best of their abilities.

Then contrast that with the graft, the self-seeking and the downright dishonesty with which so much of our public life is marred. Could such things be if oaths of office had the real meaning of swearing to God, and not only to one's fellowmen?

Long-term sentences have recently been given witnesses in court who have committed perjury. Miscreants in office have frequently been disgraced and sentenced to usually mild terms.

It is strange, as I have suggested in a previous article, that even in the realm of religion so many persons feel, or display, little responsibility. Nor is this just a matter of weakness, or a failure of good intentions.

They join churches without a real purpose of entering into the church's spiritual life, or even without any idea of giving regular attendance at its services. Perhaps they join for social or business reasons.

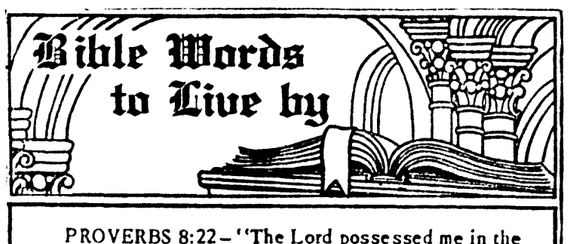

The church that is socially prominent in a community is bound to have its proportion of hangers-on. Of one such church I once heard it said with some truth that it comprised in its membership the greatest saints and the greatest rascals in the community. Fortunately it did have the greatest saints.

The responsibilities of a true Christian, as a matter of fact, are not alight. Few of us measure up to them in their entirety. But we feel responsibility, and to strive earnestly to fulfill it, is the test of our sincerity.

There is today much study and talk of stewardship, and many Christian laymen are taking an active part in seeking to promote and develop this sense of stewardship which is responsibility. In the minds of some it is related to money and gifts, and many are practicing tithing.

But stewardship goes beyond even the level of tithing, which few givers attain. Its nature and extent are clearly defined by Paul in II Corinthians 8:5. There he cites the example of the Christian disciples in Macedonia, who in their liberality, "first gave themselves to the Lord."

Bible Words to Live by

* * *

My favorite Bible passage? But how can one choose among such a wealth of treasures? Yet since I must, I select these too-largely neglected words of the Hebrew sage.

"Wisdom" which God "possessed" before creation, which was an aspect, an "attribute," of his own being, he built into the structure of the world, especially into the nature of man. And this pervasive divine quality now stands, so the writer tells us, where men congregate, where they are alone, wherever they may be, calling, pleading, directing our wayward steps toward those stern but high realities in which alone are found life's meaning and satisfaction. Here is the source of all we have ever achieved or dreamed; here is the clue to history and the perplexity of the present: God is at work in man, bringing about his serene purposes. Out with pessimism, away with groveling depravity! The blackness of man's heart none would deny, but this is less than half a truth. For in man dwells the wisdom of God, the seal and promise of his glorious being and destiny. Victory belongs to our God!

Evangelistic Campaign Starting In W. Monroe

Sunday marks the beginning of a gigantic evangelistic crusade in the First Baptist Church of West Monroe. According to the Rev. Jaroy Weber, pastor, Dr. Warren Walker of Corpus Christi, Tex., will direct the crusade that begins on Sunday, November 15 and continues through November 22.

Services will be conducted each morning from 7:15 to 7:45, Monday through Saturday and each evening at 7:30. Nurseries for youngsters through three years of age will be provided and parents are urged to attend all services while their children are cared for by competent attendants.

Dr. Walker is pastor of the Second Baptist Church of Corpus Christi. Before accepting this pastorate, Dr. Walker was an evangelist who preached in every state wherein the Southern Baptist Convention serves. He is no stranger in this section, having conducted revivals in Bastrop and Homer.

To climax the revival on November 22 gigantic plans are being formulated to reach a record number of 1300 in Sunday School and 700 in Training Union. A cordial invitation is extended to residents of the Twin Cities to attend each service during the revival.

Temple Baptists To See Film On 30 Silver Pieces

A twelve minute film "Thirty Pieces of Silver" will be shown at Training Union general assembly program Sunday, November 15, 1953, beginning at 6:30 p. m. This is the seventh in a series of films on The Living Bible being presented by Training Union at Temple Baptist Church. This series will run through November and December. All are urged to attend your Training Union and receive a blessing by seeing this series of films.

Following is a resume of film for Sunday night. At the Mount of Olives, Jesus tells His Disciples about the end, saying that there would be wars and rumors of wars, nations fighting against nations, and brothers and parents betraying each other. Jesus predicts His own death even as the temple rulers plot to destroy Him. At the house of Simon the leper, as Mary the sister of Simon anoints Jesus with a costly oil, Judas Iscariot decries this waste saying that it should be sold and the proceeds given to the poor. Jesus, knowing this to be a preparation of His body for burial, answers, "The poor you will always have with you, but you will not always have Me." Judas leaves the house of Simon and joins the plotting rulers in the temple who give him 30 pieces of silver, the price of a slave, to deliver Jesus into their hands.

Remember our big tent revival begins tonight at Temple Baptist Church, Rev. H. G. Buchanan from Shreveport, La., will conduct the services and J. W. Carraway The Singing Engineer will lead the music.

Dean Smith Of Centenary To Lecture Here

The First Methodist Church in Monroe announces a series of popular Bible lectures to be given by Dean R. E. Smith, of Centenary college in the church starting today and continuing through Thursday. The public is urged to attend.

Sunday, Nov. 15: 10:50 a.m., The Bible Before the Bible; 7:30 p.m., Revelation and Revolution.

Monday, Nov. 16: 7:30 p.m., The Price of Love — The Prince of Prophets.

Tuesday, Nov. 17: 7:30 p.m., The Country Punster — Two Sides of the Question.

Wednesday, Nov. 18: 6:00 p.m., Covered Dish Supper — Address: The Home and Church Working together, Mrs. R. E. Smith; 7:30 p.m., The Doubter Doubts His Doubts — Defying Kings and Priests.

Thursday, Nov. 19: 7:30 p.m., Losses and Gains of the Exile—The Failure of Success.

Friday, Nov. 20: 7:30 p.m., Pictures of Missions in Latin America —Rev. J. V. Reid.

It is said of Dean Smith that he makes the Bible more vivid than ever and throws a new light on the Scriptures. There is ever a lot of humor for the dean has an abundance of wit in his make-up. There are no books to buy and no assignments, simply the pure and undiluted Gospel is the mind that he delights to make live in a manner that is forceable and practicable.

Catholic Women In Ferriday To Meet In Homes

FERRIDAY (Special) — The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine meetings of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Vidalia, for study, are being held weekly in different homes, but a monthly business and social meeting of the Altar Society takes place once every month. The meeting Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Nathan Calhoun as co-hostess with her mother, Mrs. Clyde Falkenheiner, Mrs. C. J. Sullveh, and Mrs. William Clyde Falkenheiner, was interesting and pleasant, as to business and social aspects.

The usual rule of prayers, at the opening and close of the meeting, was followed, and there were reports from different committees, and the results of the recent successful spaghetti benefit and rummage sales, were given and proved most gratifying and another rummage sale for this Saturday was announced.

Old Time Tent Revival Is Plan, Temple Church

Temple Baptist Church, 601 Plum Street, will start an old time tent revival Sunday, November 15, 1953.

This is a great day for Temple Baptist, and all are looking forward to the greatest revival ever held at this church. Rev. H. G. Buchanan from Calvary Church in Shreveport, Louisiana, will be the evangelist and J. W. Carraway, The Singing Engineer will be music director and will furnish all special music.

Rev. Buchanan has been pastor of Calvary Church in Shreveport, Louisiana since October 1, 1940. At the time he accepted the call as pastor of this church the membership was 231 and during this thirteen years as pastor the church now has over 2500 members.

J. W. Carraway known by many throughout the south as "The Singing Engineer" has surrendered his life to gospel singing and personal soulwinning and in addition surrendered to the call of ministry in July of this year. At the present time he is pastor of West Side Baptist Church in Bastrop, Louisiana. He has recorded some of the finest and best loved hymns of all time.

The pastor and members of Temple Baptist Church urge all members to be present for all services Sunday. A goal of 250 in Sunday School and 125 in Training Union has been set. Extend a cordial invitation to all to come out and enjoy these few days of gospel preaching and gospel singing with us. Services will be held each day at 7:30, 9:30 and 7:30 p. m. Tune in to KMLB Sunday 1:15 to 1:30 p. m. for a special sermon by the pastor.

The ancient Druids believed that the dead atoned for their sins by residing in the bodies of animals.

Mrs. T. O. Wedel, Noted Church Leader, To Speak

Mrs. O. N. McNeil, president of the Woman's Auxiliary of Grace Episcopal Church, announces that on Tuesday, November 17, Mrs. Theodore O. Wedel of Washington, D. C., will be the guest of the auxiliary and will speak in Grace Church on Tuesday evening at 7:30. This hour has been set to allow the men the privilege of hearing her speech. The auxiliary is very fortunate to be able to present Mrs. Wedel as she is a noted speaker and nationally known in the whole life of the Episcopal Church. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. Wedel, graduate of Northwestern University, where she received two degrees, has done professional work in Episcopal church circles for a decade. Her husband is Dr. Theodore O. Wedel, Canon of Washington Cathedral, Warden of the College of Preachers, and author of several best selling books.

Mrs. Wedel was formerly president of the woman's auxiliary of the Episcopal Church, Diocese of Washington and served six years as a member of the national executive board of the woman's auxiliary of the Episcopal Church. She is also a member of the board of the department of United Church Women of the National Council of Churches. She is the representative of American church women on the World Council of Churches' Commission on the life and work of women in the church.

Mrs. Wedel is active in civic affairs, being one of the nine members of the board of public welfare of Washington, D. C., and chairman of its regulations committee, which deals with the problems of adoptions. She is a member and former chairman of the health section of United Community Services, which is the health council for the Washington area. She has been active in the Community Chest, and was for two years chairman of the women's division. She is also a member, and former chairman, of the board of the volunteer bureau of Washington.

Mrs. Wedel is also a volunteer consultant on the national staff of volunteer services of the American Red Cross, which involves volunteer work in the office, and a considerable amount of traveling and speaking for the Red Cross.

She is currently working for her Ph. D. degree in psychology at George Washington University.

Last Day Here In Attendance Church Contest

Today marks the last day of a national Sunday school contest that the Monroe Church of God, 800 Georgia street, Rev. T. M. McClendon pastor, has been participating. Much interest and a greater attendance have been shown through the contest.

This last day of the contest will be even more interesting and exciting than other days in which competition has been the rule. This day is called "Victory Day" and is under supervision of Rev. Horace Taylor.

It will be victory day only provided that all past records are shattered in the way of attendance.

Starting tonight this church will initiate a series of revival services with Evangelist Neal, Jackson, Miss., as leader.

The public is cordially invited to all meetings.

Rev. Carraway Named Pastor Of Emmanuel Baptist

The Emanuel Baptist Church, North Fifth and Breard streets, announced today that Rev. James W. Carraway has accepted the pastorship of the church.

Rev. Carraway, who is well known as the "Singing Engineer," has been engaged in evangelistic singing at revivals for the past several years and has held music director posts in the Twin Cities.

For the past two years, Rev. Carraway has presented a program of sacred hymns heard over a local radio station every Sunday and has recently taken over a TV program. He has also recorded a large number of hymns.

New Light Church To Initiate Its Revival

Sunday night will mark the start of a revival at New Light Church on Prairie road. Rev. Wayne Carpenter, pastor of Loch Arbor Baptist Church will be the evangelist.

The public is cordially invited to attend all services. The night services are to start with a song service at 7:15 p.m. There will be a prayer meeting for all groups at 7 p.m.

Rev. Jack Bacum Gets License To Preach

DELHI, La. (Special) — Rev. Jack Bacum, well known in this area, hs been licensed to preach and will be assigned in the ministry at Lamar Baptist Church of which Rev. Ralph Frasier is pastor.

He is a graduate of Central High School, Delhi, and has been active in church work, and director of the Training Union.

He is employed by the Sun Oil Company in Delhi.

Fifty Millions Spent For Churches Planned

Methodist churches across America are engaged in raising $50,000,000 for new and remodelled church structures, reports Dr. Earl R. Brown, of New York, executive secretary of national missions in the Methodist Church's Board of Missions. Eighty annual conferences are engaged in this effort, and they will erect about 1,000 new churches and remodel as many more.

"While it is true that what we are doing in the way of erecting new churches seems small in comparison to the need," Dr. Brown said, "the fact remains that no other denomination is raising more funds for new churches than is Methodism. The history of Methodism in America has been that the first churches, built on the Atlantic seaboard, furnished the funds that extended the church into new communities as they sprang up in the middle west and the far west. Now it is up to these churches, thus helped in the begining, to help erect new structures in the needy and growing new communities rising everywhere across the continent."

In pointing out the need for new churches, Dr. Elliott Fisher, the Methodist Church's home missions authority, reported that more than ever in its history America is now a "nation on the move."

"More than 31,000,000 people moved from one community to another in 1950-51," he said, "and today there are more than 60,000,000 people living in areas not served by any church — Protestant, Catholic or Jewish."

In the rural but non-farm sections of America — the areas of small villages — Dr. Fisher added, the population has been growing faster than are the cities, making added problems for the churches, and making new village churches necessary. At the same time, he noted, there has been a new city "born" in the United States each day for the past 5 years.

"This shifting and growing population includes all races and minority groups in our nation — including those among whom Methodism carries on missionary service," said Dr. Fisher. "Actually there are today more Negroes in California than in Tennessee, and the shift of Negroes from the south is greatest to the northeast and to the west where they become engaged in industry more than in agriculture. For these people and for other minority groups such as the Americans of Mexican and Indian ancestry in the southwestern states, there is constant call for new churches and new ministries."

Across the nation, Dr. Brown reported, the Methodist church is building an average of two new churches each day, and also each day reopening a closed church or dividing a circuit into two parishes.

Welcome Branch Book Club Gives Time To Dolls

One of the numerous projects that Welcome Branch Book Club has been engaged in is that of dressing dolls for underprivileged children. These are to be distributed by the Salvation Army at Christmas time.

Mrs. R. H. Dollar, club president, states that eighteen dolls have been dressed. The women had a great time when it came to decide on whether one should be dressed as a bride, a baby or a boy doll. This club helps with many worthwhile projects.

Gummed tape is very effective in removing lint from felt hats, jersey dresses and blouses, even rugs.

7:30 p. m. Evening worship. Sermon: "The Sin That Damns." This is the last of a series of sermons on sin. The public is invited to worship regularly in our church preaching an ancient gospel without apology in a modern community.

COVENANT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Reverend Wayne W. Gray, Minister.
(Services in Brown Auditorium of Northeast Louisiana State College.)
Sunday School, 9:30 a.m., Mr. Frank V. Spivey, superintendent.
Morning Worship, 11:00 a.m. Sermon: "Woe to the Loafers in Zion."
Ease and loafing are dangerous for one can drift into disaster easily in such times. But the peril of loafing and being at ease reaches its height when Zion becomes the sphere of this indulgence. The name of Zion represents the things that belong to God, His dwelling place. The greatest evil that can befall a man is not some foe that strikes from without, but rather an unconcerned attitude towards God and the things pertaining to His Kingdom.
We are a friendly church with a Christian message and you are most cordially invited to worship with us.
The Pioneer Group will meet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hoy Anders, 1807 Emerson, this evening at six o'clock.
Senior High Fellowship Group will meet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Jones, 116 Pargoud Dr., this evening at six o'clock.
The Young Adults will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pribble, 1800 Filholl Avenue, this evening at six o'clock.

Bible Comment

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

Christian Responsibility

Recently I wrote of the need for better church members. It is a need that is by no means confined to the churches. We need better citizens, more intelligent voters, better politicians, better leaders in every sphere and walk of life—not disparaging the many who are already giving their best.

What is responsibility? It centers in the simpler word, duty. But it means and implies something more. Duty is chiefly related to one particular task or object. Responsibility is a whole-range attitude of which every particular duty is a part.

The nature and meaning of responsibility are often brought out more clearly by the lack of it. Think, for instance, of the vast number of officials and people in what should be responsible positions who, annually or oftener, enter upon their offices or positions with oaths to perform all that pertains to place and office honestly and to the best of their abilities.

Then contrast that with the graft, the self - seeking and the downright dishonesty with which so much of our public life is marred. Could such things be if oaths of office had the real meaning of swearing to God, and not only to one's fellowmen?

Long-term sentences have recently been given witnesses in court who have committed perjury. Miscreants in office have frequently been disgraced and sentenced to usually mild terms.

Why have they not been indicted for the primary and basic offense of perjury?

It is strange, as I have suggested in a previous article, that even in the realm of religion so many persons feel, or display, little responsibility. Nor is this just a matter of weakness, or a failure of good intentions.

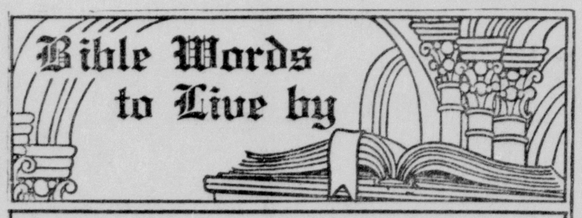

They join churches without a real purpose of entering into the church's spiritual life, or even without any idea of giving regular attendance at its services. Perhaps they join for social or business reasons.

The church that is socially prominent in a community is bound to have its proportion of hangers-on. Of one such church I once heard it said with some truth that it comprised in its membership the greatest saints and the greatest rascals in the community. Fortunately it did have the greatest saints.

The responsibilities of a true Christian, as a matter of fact, are not slight. Few of us measure up to them in their entirety. But to feel responsibility, and to strive earnestly to fulfill it, is the test of our sincerity.

There is today much study and talk of stewardship, and many Christian laymen are taking an active part in seeking to promote and develop this sense of stewardship which is responsibility. In the minds of some it is related to money and gifts, and many to practicing tithing.

But stewardship goes beyond even the level of tithing, which few givers attain. Its nature and extent are clearly defined by Paul in II Corinthians 8:5. There he cites the example of the Christian disciples in Macedonia, who in their liberality, "first gave themselves to the Lord."

* * *

My favorite Bible passage? But how can one choose among such a wealth of treasures? Yet since I must, I select these too-largely neglected words of the Hebrew sage.

"Wisdom" which God "possessed" before creation, which was an aspect, an "attribute," of his own being, he built into the structure of the world, especially into the nature of man. And this pervasive divine quality now stands, so the writer tells us, where men congregate, where they are alone, wherever they may be, calling, pleading, directing our wayward steps toward those stern but high realities in which alone are found life's meaning and satisfaction. Here is the source of all we have ever achieved or dreamed; here is the clue to history and the perplexity of the present: God is at work in man, bringing about his serene purposes. Out with pessimism, away with groveling depravity! The blackness of man's heart none would deny, but this is less than half a truth. For in man dwells the wisdom of God, the seal and promise of his glorious being and destiny. Victory belongs to our God!

Make the 5 minute Bendix TV test... before you buy any set!

☐ TUBES Every Bendix TV set has 21 to 24 tubes or more for clearer, sharper pictures . . . not 16 or 17 as in ordinary sets.

☐ UHF All Bendix TV sets have Cascode tuners. That means as easily as buttoning a shoe, you clip in a tuner and get the new UHF stations.

☐ DISTANCE Bendix TV has long been famous as the most powerful in bringing the finest TV picture to homes in far away, fringe areas.

☐ INTERFERENCE All Bendix TV sets have perfected what is known as a "suicide circuit for interference." Any electrical interference that could mar the sound or the picture is stopped before it starts!

Twin Cities To Benefit From Kaye Show

All proceeds derived from the appearance of Sammy Kaye and his orchestra here Wednesday night will go to further civic projects sponsored by the North Monroe Lions Club.

The local group of men have engaged in many activities to benefit the children of Monroe. From monies received last year, in sponsoring entertainment and selling articles, the club was able to purchase bicycle racks for many schools and playground equipment.

The concert of the nationally known artist will be held at 8 p. m. Wednesday. Tickets for the show are still available and those who plan to attend are urged to get their tickets immediately.

Persons who purchase tickets are assured of seeing a good show and will personally know that a portion of their money will go to a worthy cause.

The club has not decided what charity or civic project will receive the proceeds, but announced that after the show and a check for the proceeds the public would be advised of their selection.

SAFETY REMINDER—The "Drive Safely" sign shown above is one of many signs throughout the city of Monroe which the North Monroe Lions Club has placed to remind motorists of safety. The club bought the signs and had them erected as a portion of their civic activities.

MANY BICYCLES GO INTO RACKS — The bicycle racks, given to many schools in the city by North Monroe Lions Club, are filled to capacity each school day. Students above are shown sitting on their bicycles in the racks. (All Photos courtesy of Williams Studio.)

PLAYGROUND EQUIPMENT BENEFITS CHILDREN — Students at schools throughout Monroe are using playground equipment, such as the swings shown above, each day. The equipment was purchased by the North Monroe Lions Club from proceeds received from sponsorship of shows and selling of merchandise. The club engages in these activities to receive money for civic improvements.

Your Problems

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Mrs. Landers: You are wrong when you tell the girls that there is a man shortage. I am 29, have a successful law office and a car. For several years I have tried every conceivable place, including church, to find a girl friend but have had no luck. Many girls marry when they are about 20. They marry men with whom they grew up. Most of the other girls are going steady. I can't even meet young women who are not married or going steady!

I am not quite average looking but women have snubbed me for about 14 years. I now hate all American women and especially USO and Red Cross girls. USO girls snub any man who isn't handsome or doesn't meet their specifications. When Red Cross girls are not on duty they will have nothing to do with enlisted men and date only officers.

My hatred for women now is such that if I saw a woman dying I would not walk a step out of my way to help her. If I handle an eviction suit, a woman tenant can't get a break from me. When it is a collection case, if a woman doesn't pay immediately, I have her wages garnisheed even though I know she will lose her job. Why shouldn't I? It looks as though I will have to go to Europe to get a wife.— Homely.

Sour, sour grapes. Better see a psychiatrist, bub, or the little men in white coats will get you. Or go to Europe — who cares?

Dear Mrs. Landers: I am 19 and in love with a 28-year-old man. We are employed by the same company and work in the same department. We do not talk to one another during working hours in order to avoid gossip. Recently, we bumped into several of the office girls while out on a date together and now I feel them staring at me and talking about us. What do you think we should do?—Barbara C.

Well, well, a secret romance! Who in the world cares if you and your co-worker date if you are both free to do so& Bring the romance out of hiding, talk to one another like two human beings with the ability to talk and no one will have anything about which to stare, whisper, point or gossip!

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the News Star.)

WITH

Sammy Kaye

And His Orchestra

Sammy Kaye

Sammy Kaye with his "So You Want to Lead A Band" swing and sway will select four patrons, two male and two female from the audience. Sammy asks those who would like to lead a band to raise their hands and from these he selects the contestants.

The four contestants are called upon the stage and each one is interviewed, then handed a baton and invited to lead the band. The musicians follow every motion of the baton.

After the four contestants have had an opportunity to conduct the band, Sammy reintroduces each one and asks for audience reaction. The one who receives the most applause is adjudged the winner and receives a prize.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

Answer to Question No. 1

1. "The only thing worse than being talked about is not being talked about," said Oscar Wilde. A person not talked about either favorably or unfavorably is a nonentity. He doesn't do or say anything worth talking about. A study among high school students showed that those most talked about were mostly leaders, even when they were criticized for bossiness. The ones least talked about had the fewest friends. Of course many persons wish they weren't talked about, but at least they aren't "nobodies."

Answer to Question No. 2

2. Yes, gaining power over their parents— to get what they want. If the parents get at the seat of the trouble (with a hairbrush or open hand) the children soon learn it's the worst way. Grownup people who put on tantrums have merely returned to childhood and become emotional morons. They need our booklet, "How To Manage Your Feelings and Emotions." Sent at cost, 15 cents (coin only) plus self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Answer to Question No. 3

3. No. "The best reason for going to college is to learn to dispense with professors, ' says Dr. A. F. Blakeslee, an eminent scientist. He added that the aim of education is to teach young people to think for themselves, and not merely to absorb what some professor tells them. The student must do his own learning and, as soon as possible, throw the professors out of his mental window.

You can't control your feelings if you don't understand how your emotional machinery works. Learn what happens to your mind and body when your emotions conquer you. Find out what you can do about it by reading the booklet, HOW TO MANAGE YOUR FEELINGS AND EMOTIONS. For a copy, send 15 cents (coin only), plus self-addressed, stamped envelope (give name of city and state) to Dr. A. E. Wiggam in care of News-Star.

The RECORD SHOP

Artie Shaw Records

NEW YORK (NEA) —The fabulous new sounds Artie Shaw and his revived Gramercy Five are making are going to be recorded. But don't get your hopes up — most of them won't be for sale. They're for Shaw's own amazement.

"The recording companies issue maybe six records a year on any artist," Artie said, relaxing in his bathrobe with a big boxer at his feet. "That may keep the public happy, but it's not enough to preserve your work.

"Look, I'm 43. How do I know how long I'll be playing? Maybe in ten years I'll want to hear what I did now. So I'm going to take the boys into a recording studio once in a while and we'll make tapes of everything we do."

There is a strong possibility that a few of these will filter out through commercial channels. Shaw is dickering with several recording companies. As with his music, he's a perfectionist about these details, too.

He's one of the few musicians to span, actively, the era from hot to cool. He says it took him a lot of hard work to learn to play the new jazz.

"Music has progressed," he says "It always does. In '38, the new thing was rhythm, drive, beat. Today the notes are more important. My '38 band couldn't play this music we play now. They just wouldn't know how.

"Today the musicians are ahead of the public. In '38, the public taste and music met, and what was new was also popular. Not now. Maybe the people will catch up in ten years. Maybe it'll take longer."

At the moment, many people feel modern jazz "isn't pretty." Shaw gets particularly angry at that comment, "because those people's ears just aren't tuned to it." So keep Artie happy and get your ears tuned.

The Popular Side: Robert Merrill objects to the term "long-hair ' — he says, "It's only long-hair if you don't understand it." . . . Joni James imported a $1000 poodle, which is putting on the dog long distance . . . An album of show tunes, including everything but the show, is "The Body in the Seine." It's a complete score to an unwritten, unplotted and unproduced musical comedy. If you have a spare plot around, see if this fits. Pleasant lsitening on the record, issued by Allen - Shaw Productions.

On the Classics: A new classical label is Angel Records, the U. S. outlet for an old English firm. They have available an extensive list of operas and orchestral works . . . Out of the great musical past, RCA-Victor brings a magnificent addition to its Collector's Issue label. It's Rachmaninoff and Kreisler in a matchless piano - violin reading of Grieg's Sonata No. 3 in C-Minor and Schubert's Sonata in A, originally recorded about 1928.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Your husband or beau can actually be allergic to the cosmetics you use.

Swollen Lips May Come From Cosmetic Allergy

Is your husband or best beau allergic to you? Naturally you do not think so if he is attentive. However it is actually true that many men are allergic to the cosmetics their girls or wives use.

How embarrassing it would be if he cried after each kiss or sneezed when he came near you. There are instances of swollen lips because of an allergy to the woman's lipstick.

I know of one instance in reverse. A happily married woman became quite bewildered because she got along just splendidly whenever her husband was away from home. He had to travel a lot. Each time, after his return, she was bothered with a rash and swollen eyes. The minute he left home everything was fine again.

Irritated Her

She was in love with him and they were happy together but she actually began to wonder if she subconsciously held a grudge against him or if his personality had an irritating effect on her of which she was not conscious. A dermatologist finally discovered that she was highly allergic to her husband's dandruff, not dander.

If either a man or woman is bothered periodically by rashes or swollen lips or eyes, or itching eyelids there is a good chance that these are caused by some allergy. While people who are subject to this annoyance are in the minority, yet it is surprising how many folks do have this difficulty in some way. A recent survey showed that many women are allergic to some cosmetic. Some had not realized what was causing their difficulty.

If you suspect that you may be allergic to some cosmetic you are using, you may be able to discover what it is by a bit of experimentation. Leave off one item at a time and watch results. If this does not uncover the culprit, then you should see a dermatologist to find the source of your trouble. It would be wise to experiment with cosmetics first though, because these constitute one of the greatest sources of allergic response.

Not Irritating

Many do not know that there are cosmetics which are designed for allergic women. In these, around 50 recognized irritants which are generally used in making cosmetics have been replaced by substances which are not irritating. These are available in great variety and come scented and unscented, in case perfume is your harasser.

Just Want The Facts On Webb

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA) — HOLLYWOOD ON TV: This is the city. Big-hearted. Hard-boiled. Land of movie studios, restaurants in the shape of hats, glamor gals, egomaniacs and nice people, too. City of shattered dreams, fabulous success stories and boulevards lined with palms.

My name is Johnson. I'm a columnist.

I get the facts and I don't change names to protect anyone. It's my job to question Jack Webb, the Sgt. Friday, who does all the question-asking on Dragnet and also directs the hit TV show.

The charges: Draining emotion out of voices, introducing a new acting style of underplaying. Also: Suspected of being a genius—sometimes a temperamental genius who can be heard for blocks.

He's wearing a brown and white checkered shirt, dark blue trouse and a grin as wide as Joe Brown's. This is the deadpan S Friday? It is. There's emotion his voice, too—lots of it. And sparkling charm he rarely displa on Dragnet.

2:01 p.m. I explain that I w the facts—just the facts.

2:02 p.m. The questioning gins. Unlike Sgt. Friday, Ja Webb is animated and as fast ta ing as Pat O'Brien. He says has nothing to hide.

In Russia, if you want to get driver's license, you must be amined by a vision specialist, neurologist, a pathologist, and ear-nose-and-throat specialist.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off

Answer to Question No. 1

1. "The only thing worse than being talked about is not being talked about," said Oscar Wilde. A person not talked about either favorably or unfavorably is a nonentity. He doesn't do or say anything worth talking about. A study among high school students showed that those most talked about were mostly leaders, even when they were criticized for bossiness. The ones least talked about had the fewest friends. Of course many persons wish they weren't talked about, but at least they aren't "nobodies."

Answer to Question No. 2

2. Yes, gaining power over their parents— to get what they want. If the parents get at the seat of the trouble (with a hairbrush or open hand) the children soon learn it's the worst way. Grownup people who put on tantrums have merely returned to childhood and become emotional morons. They need our booklet, "How To Manage Your Feelings and Emotions." Sent at cost, 15 cents (coin only) plus self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Answer to Question No. 3

3. No. "The best reason for going to college is to learn to dispense with professors,' says Dr. A. F. Blakeslee, an eminent scientist. He added that the aim of education is to teach young people to think for themselves, and not merely to absorb what some professor tells them. The student must do his own learning and, as soon as possible, throw the professors out of his mental window.

You can't control your feelings if you don't understand how your emotional machinery works. Learn what happens to your mind and body when your emotions conquer you. Find out what you can do about it by reading the booklet, HOW TO MANAGE YOUR FEELINGS AND EMOTIONS. For a copy, send 15 cents (coin only), plus self-addressed, stamped envelope (give name of city and state) to Dr. A. E. Wiggam in care of News-Star.

The RECORD SHOP

Artie Shaw Records

NEW YORK (NEA) —The fabulous new sounds Artie Shaw and his revived Gramercy Five are making are going to be recorded. But don't get your hopes up — most of them won't be for sale. They're for Shaw's own amazement.

"The recording companies issue maybe six records a year on any artist," Artie said, relaxing in his bathrobe with a big boxer at his feet. "That may keep the public happy, but it's not enough to preserve your work.

"Look, I'm 43. How do I know how long I'll be playing? Maybe in ten years I'll want to hear what I did now. So I'm going to take the boys into a recording studio once in a while and we'll make tapes of everything we do."

There is a strong possibility that a few of these will filter out through commercial channels. Shaw is dickering with several recording companies. As with his music, he's a perfectionist about these details, too.

He's one of the few musicians to span, actively, the era from hot to cool. He says it took him a lot of hard work to learn to play the new jazz.

"Music has progressed," he says "It always does. In '38, the new thing was rhythm, drive, beat. Today the notes are more important. My '38 band couldn't play this music we play now. They just wouldn't know how.

"Today the musicians are ahead of the public. In '38, the public taste and music met, and what was new was also popular. Not now. Maybe the people will catch up in ten years. Maybe it'll take longer."

At the moment, many people feel modern jazz "isn't pretty." Shaw gets particularly angry at that comment, "because those people's ears just aren't tuned to it." So keep Artie happy and get your ears tuned.

The Popular Side: Robert Merrill objects to the term "longhair' — he says, "It's only longhair if you don't understand it." . . . Joni James imported a $1000 poodle, which is putting on the dog long distance . . . An album of show tunes, including everything but the show, is "The Body in the Seine." It's a complete score to an unwritten, unplotted and unproduced musical comedy. If you have a spare plot around, see if this fits. Pleasant lsitening on the record, issued by Allen - Shaw Productions.

On the Classics: A new classical label is Angel Records, the U. S. outlet for an old English firm. They have available an extensive list of operas and orchestral works . . . Out of the great musical past, RCA-Victor brings a magnificent addition to its Collector's Issue label. It's Rachmaninoff and Kreisler in a matchless piano - violin reading of Grieg's Sonata No. 3 in C-Minor and Schubert's Sonata in A, originally recorded about 1928.

THE LADY TAKES A SHOWER—The vicinity of a lady's shower is no place for a gentleman, even in the unpredictable Africa, as Ava Gardner primly points out to Clark Gable as she asks him for her robe in a scene from "Mogambo." The thrill-packed romance of a safari boss and a jungle-stranded Broadway show girl. The drama was filmed on a four-months location trek through British East Africa and French Equatorial Africa.

Mogambo' Brings Thrills alore In M-G-M's Film

'Mogambo," new M-G-M offer- starring Clark Gable and Ava rdner on the Jim screen, has rything a moviegoer could wish in the way of romance, thrill- ked adventure and wonderous kgrounds of the fauna and flo- of Africa filmed in Technicolor. his drama of an expedition der who becomes involved in a ngular romance with an Amer- n show girl and the wife of an glish anthropologist who accom- y him on a safari through the illa country was filmed on a r-month location trip through 00 miles of territory in British st Africa and French Equatori- Africa, much of it never photo- phed before. Its scenes of na- ceremonies and uprisings, an ounter with a maddened rhino- os and the climactic episode of perilous gorilla hunt supple- nt the emotional tension of the t situation to create an African drama even more suspenseful and breathtaking than the successful "King Solomon's Mines."

Gable plays Vic Marswell, who finds a charge of dynamite laid on the doorstep (actually, in the shower cubicle!) of his African jungle compound in the person of jaunty, slangy show girl "Honey Bear" Kelly (Ava Gardner). The latter is brought down to earth and subsequently into Vic's arms when she learns she has been stood up by the maharajah she has come to meet. This impetuous romance is brought to an abrupt end, however, when lovely Linda Nordley, wife of the British anthropologist Donald Nordley, plans to accompany her husband on a safari to be led by Vic. Circumstances force Honey Bear to become a member of the safari as well, and the resulting fireworks between the two girls, both of whom have become infatuated with Vic, are almost as dangerous as the safari's encounter with hostile natives and jungle beasts.

The action leads up to the thrilling climax in which the safari engages in a giant gorilla hunt, with native pygmies armed with spears and nets. Vic saves Linda's husband from the charge of a maddened gorilla who has escaped from the net in which he has been trapped, and Honey Bear wins out romantically in the conclusion.

Gable, as the safari boss, and Ava Gardner, as the show girl who knows her way around, form an electric romantic combination, and are ably abetted in the performances of Grace Kelly, as Linda, the young wife whose marriage seems threatened by the African interlude, and by the British actor, Donald Sinden, playing the anthropologist so intent on his study of animals that he is unaware of the emotional turmoil going on behind his back.

The atmosphere of Africa in sound and color as well as in the thrilling shots of animal life have been brilliantly captured by Director John Ford, who recently chalked up his fourth Academy Award for his direction of "The Quiet Man," and who might well garner yet another award for "Mogambo." The producer is Sam Zimbalist of "King Solomon's Mines" fame.

If an American husband is five years older than his wife, the chances that she will outlive him are 70 in 100; and they are 80 in 100 if he is 10 years older.

About 37 per cent of the continent of Europe is farmland; about 10 per cent of North America is farmable; and smaller percentages of other continents can be farmed.

'Blowing Wild' Brings Together Award Winners

"Blowing Wild," the new adventure-drama from Warner Bros., brings to the screen an unprecedented list of Academy Award winners in the major roles. Gary Cooper, winner of the 1952 Academy Award as the actor of the year, stars with Barbara Stanwyck, Anthony Quinn, Award winner as the outstanding supporting actor in 1952, and Ruth Roman. In addition, Dimitri Tiomkin, double winner of last years Oscar' for his musical score of "High Noon, composed the background music and title song for "Blowing Wild. It is sung in the film by Frankie Laine.

In "Blowing Wild, Gary Cooper is a wildcatter oilman who fights not only nature herself, but the bandits who infested Mexico during the early thirties. There is also a woman who causes Cooper some anxious moments. The woman is played by Barbara Stanwyck in a role that reportedly 'takes full advantage of her ability to portray beautiful, temperamental women. Standing between the harassed Cooper and the tempestuous Miss Stanwyck is the curvaceous figure of Ruth Roman, whose love for the wildcatter is considerably purer than her rival's. The fourth star of the oil field drama is played by Anthony Quinn, who creates an empire in the black gold for Barbara Stanwyck, only to lose it all in a climax set in a holocaust of burning oil and bandit bullets.

Filmed entirely in Mexico "Blowing Wild," which opens Wednesday at the Paramount Theatre, required the construction of one of the largest interior sets ever built. The set, a 6,000 square feet Mexican Hacienda contained such unusual features as mortared brick floors, solid mahogany beams, hand-carved mahogany stairway and multi-colored ceramic decorations.

The cheetah, known as the fastest mammal for short distances is easy to tame but never has been known to breed in captivity.

Inside Hollywood

By Jimmy Fidler

Good Music

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 14 — Most Hollywood producers are beginning to display an increased appreciation of the value of good music in connection with their productions, I'm happy to say. Far too long, the studios failed to realize the important contribution a good score can make in enhancing the screen story.

Let me make myself clear on one point. At no time, in my opinion, should the score be so strong as to cause audiences to take their minds off the plot being unfolded. In such instances the score would be more harmful than constructive. It should at no time become a competitor with the actual motion picture.

Music should serve to stress the various moods created by the writer. Properly used, it should enhance the story being related, accenting its various phases, dramatic situations and dramatic characterizations.

I often feel that exhibitors sometimes play the sound too low, and thus lose considerable of its effect upon the audience. This is especially true of sequences when there is no dialogue to be blotted out and which, fundamentally, need stimulation through background music. A monotonous sound level can help produce a monotonous picture. On the other hand, great care should be exercised in lowering the sound volume during scenes in which the dialogue is vital to the story.

An important phase of music in connection with motion pictures is the song or melody which, in effect, becomes a theme song. Such compositions can be of vast value in attracting patronage for the picture it appears in, as they serve as tremendous exploitation vehicles.

For example, the song "High Noon" was a tremendous factor in the success of the motion picture by the same name. And this is true of songs like "Spellbound," "Ruby Gentry," "The Song from Moulin Rouge" and, I hope, that my number, "Homeward Bound," written for the Allied Artist picture by the same title, will also fit in this category.

Not only do songs of this character help effectively promote motion pictures, but they also provide an important source of revenue for the writers and producers. Ordinarily a producer shares 50 per cent of the royalties derived from the use of the music on records and elsewhere. Of course, an important element in this field is the playing of these records over juke boxes throughout the country, in addition to radio, television and home performances.

The average big budget picture is scored by an orchestra comprising 50 pieces. In connection with the scoring of some productions, like "Arrow in the Dust," which I handled, we often use 35 or so men. Properly controlled, these smaller orchestras prove very effective, and the difference between their recorded scores and those of larger orchestras is sometimes hard to distinguish.

I mentioned the sales of records as an important factor in the popularizing of songs from motion pictures. The common yardstick now used is 250,000 records, which indicates that a platter is legitimately a best-seller. Right now, incidentally, a new wave of popularity is being created by the so-called psuedo church song, which seems to strike a popular chord with the buyers of and the listeners to popular music. Western music, like "Shane," always seems to find a great response with the American public, probably due to the fact that it contains an earthy and nostalgic quality. This also, of course, is true of hillbilly or country music, which, although classified in the lower social bracket, nevertheless sells widely throughout the land.

To stick my head into an old controversy, let me express the opinion that of the two, music is more important than the lyric. I don't mean to say that good lyrics are not a substantial help in stimulating a number's popularity. I do wish to point out that the songs are often plugged through instrumental presentations in which, of course, lyrics do not figure. Also, there is a minority of singers whose diction is so bad that the lyrics they are singing get lost in the musical shuffle. I feel there should be a happy wedding between both words and music.

Right now Hollywood is economy mindel, as most people know, due to circumstances beyond its control. These carefully controlled budgets should not be permitted to reflect upon the quality of motion picture scores. There must be no tendency to "manufacture" music as if it was a product off the assembly line. Good music cannot be created without an adequate time allocation for the work. I sincerely hope that Hollywood producers will keep this basic fact in mind and not let economy impair quality. Good music is too vital to good entertainment to sacrifice it by what adds up to false economy.

'Blowing Wild' Brings Together Award Winners

"Blowing Wild," the new adventure-drama from Warner Bros., brings to the screen an unprecedented list of Academy Award winners in the major roles. Gary Cooper, winner of the 1952 Academy Award as the actor of the year, stars with Barbara Stanwyck, Anthony Quinn, Award winner as the outstanding supporting actor in 1952, and Ruth Roman. In addition, Dimitri Tiomkin, double winner of last years Oscar' for his musical score of "High Noon, composed the background music and title song for "Blowing Wild. It is sung in the film by Frankie Laine.

In "Blowing Wild, Gary Cooper is a wildcatter oilman who fights not only nature herself, but the bandits who infested Mexico during the early thirties. There is also a woman who causes Cooper some anxious moments. The woman is played by Barbara Stanwyck in a role that reportedly 'takes full advantage of her ability to portray beautiful, temperamental women. Standing between the harassed Cooper and the tempestuous Miss Stanwyck is the curvaceous figure of Ruth Roman, whose love for the wildcatter is considerably purer than her rival's. The fourth star of the oil field drama is played by Anthony Quinn, who creates an empire in the black gold for Barbara Stanwyck, only to lose it all in a climax set in a holocaust of burning oil and bandit bullets.

Filmed entirely in Mexico "Blowing Wild," which opens Wednesday at the Paramount Theatre, required the construction of one of the largest interior sets ever built. The set, a 6,000 square feet Mexican Hacienda contained such unusual features as mortared brick floors, solid mahogany beams, hand-carved mahogany stairway and multi-colored ceramic decorations.

The cheetah, known as the fastest mammal for short distances is easy to tame but never has been known to breed in captivity.

Inside Hollywood

By Jimmy Fidler

Good Music

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 14 — Most Hollywood producers are beginning to display an increased appreciation of the value of good music in connection with their productions, I'm happy to say. Far too long, the studios failed to realize the important contribution a good score can make in enhancing the screen story.

Let me make myself clear on one point. At no time, in my opinion, should the score be so strong as to cause audiences to take their minds off the plot being unfolded. In such instances the score would be more harmful than constructive. It should at no time become a competitor with the actual motion picture.

Music should serve to stress the various moods created by the writer. Properly used, it should enhance the story being related, accenting its various phases, dramatic situations and dramatic characterizations.

I often feel that exhibitors sometimes play the sound too low, and thus lose considerable of its effect upon the audience. This is especially true of sequences when there is no dialogue to be blotted out and which, fundamentally, need stimulation through background music. A monotonous sound level can help produce a monotonous picture. On the other hand, great care should be exercised in lowering the sound volume during scenes in which the dialogue is vital to the story.

An important phase of music in connection with motion pictures is the song or melody which, in effect, becomes a theme song. Such compositions can be of vast value in attracting patronage for the picture it appears in, as they serve as tremendous exploitation vehicles.

For example, the song "High Noon" was a tremendous factor in the success of the motion picture by the same name. And this is true of songs like "Spellbound," "Ruby Gentry," "The Song from Moulin Rouge" and, I hope, that my number, "Homeward Bound," written for the Allied Artist picture by the same title, will also fit in this category.

Not only do songs of this character help effectively promote motion pictures, but they also provide an important source of revenue for the writers and producers. Ordinarily a producer shares 50 per cent of the royalties derived from the use of the music on records and elsewhere. Of course, an important element in this field is the playing of these records over juke boxes throughout the country, in addition to radio, television and home performances.

The average big budget picture is scored by an orchestra comprising 50 pieces. In connection with the scoring of some productions, like "Arrow in the Dust," which I handled, we often use 35 or so men. Properly controlled, these smaller orchestras prove very effective, and the difference between their recorded scores and those of larger orchestras is sometimes hard to distinguish.

I mentioned the sales of records as an important factor in the popularizing of songs from motion pictures. The common yardstick now used is 250,000 records, which indicates that a platter is legitimately a best-seller. Right now, incidentally, a new wave of popularity is being created by the so-called psuedo church song, which seems to strike a popular chord with the buyers of and the listeners to popular music. Western music, like "Shane," always seems to find a great response with the American public, probably due to the fact that it contains an earthy and nostalgic quality. This also, of course, is true of hillbilly or country music, which, although classified in the lower social bracket, nevertheless sells widely throughout the land.

To stick my head into an old controversy, let me express the opinion that of the two, music is more important than the lyric. I don't mean to say that good lyrics are not a substantial help in stimulating a number's popularity. I do wish to point out that the songs are often plugged through instrumental presentations in which, of course, lyrics do not figure. Also, there is a minority of singers whose diction is so bad that the lyrics they are singing get lost in the musical shuffle. I feel there should be a happy wedding between both words and music.

Right now Hollywood is economy mindel, as most people know, due to circumstances beyond its control. These carefully controlled budgets should not be permitted to reflect upon the quality of motion picture scores. There must be no tendency to "manufacture" music as if it was a product off the assembly line. Good music cannot be created without an adequate time allocation for the work. I sincerely hope that Hollywood producers will keep this basic fact in mind and not let economy impair quality. Good music is too vital to good entertainment to sacrifice it by what adds up to false economy.

Reflector-Type License Plates Urged For State

BATON ROUGE, Nov. 13 (AP) — The Louisiana Highway Board was told today the state could save nearly a quarter million dollars over a five-year period and cut down night accidents by using reflectorized license plates.

"Maine has been using these aluminum plates longer than any other state," said board member Sam Short of Baton Rouge. "They've not only reduced their night accident rate considerably but also effected quite a saving."

Short said he made a preliminary study and found the sparkler type licenses would cost 38 cents to make, compared with 17 cents a plate Louisiana now spends.

"But," he added, "the reflector plates are designed to last at least five years. The motorist keeps the same license each year and simply inserts a small metal tab to change the year."

The tabs would cost three cents each, Short said. Louisiana charges $3 a year for licenses.

"Maine is going to make their plates last seven years," he told the board. "We only projected the costs over a five-year period. The state would lose money the first two years, but be ahead by the third year.

"Figuring five years as the average life of a plate, Louisiana could save $225,000."

He also offered a use for old reflectorized license plates — "Maine tacks them on trees and bridges to mark hazardous places on the road at night."

Short urged the board to study the possibility of using the plates "so we can introduce them in 1955. It's too late now for next year, but that gives us plenty of time to work on it. We already have the authority under the law to change the plates."

Chief Engineer E. J. James reported a survey of changing Louisiana road numbers was nearing completion and a proposed new road map would be ready by the next meeting.

Tentative plans, he said, call for eliminating state numbers on U.S. highways and having the same route number continue across the state. "Route 1, for instance, will go from way up in north Louisiana all the way to Grand Isle. Route 2 will start at Lake Providence and continue west across the state to the Texas border."

NEW LOUISIANA LICENSE PLATE —Here's a preview of the 1954 Louisiana license plate, held by honey blond Janet Rauschenberg of Lafayette, the state's Yambilee queen. The cream-colored plates with blue numerals, expected to go on sale in December, will feature the slogan "Louisiana Yams" and the traditional pelican. Louisiana is the nation's leading producer of sweet potatoes. Approximately 15 states used license plate slogans in 1953, ranging from Arizona's "Grand Canyon State" to Wisconsin's "America's Diaryland." The 1954 plates will mark Louisiana's entry into the license plate slogan field.

Need For State Library Bldg. Is Stressed By PTA

At the conference of the fifth district P.-T. A. leaders, held in Bernice recently, a resolution was approved asking that an adequate building be erected for the state library at Baton Rouge.

It was pointed out that the building now used is too small and that it is fifty years old. It was erected at the time as the library of Louisiana State University which was only a small institution at the time. Now it is far from adequate for modern requirements.

Copies of the resolution will be sent to the governor, to each member of the state legislature and to the press of the state.

"WHEREAS, crowded offices, poorly arranged work quarters and inadequate space for book, and supplies and other library materials limit expansion of Louisiana State Library services and result in less efficient, more costly operation; and

"WHEREAS, the building, the state library, owned by the department of highways, was built over fifty years ago for a then small Louisiana State University library and is understandably lacking in modern functional features; and

"WHEREAS, qualified persons who surveyed the building reported it would be impossible to enlarge and remodel it into suitable library quarters for a state library agency; therefore

"Be It Resolved, That the Fifth District P.-T. A. conference on October 29, pledged its support to a movement to obtain adequate housing for the state library.

"Be It Further Resolved, That each member of the P.-T. A. contact in person or by letter his state legislators and the governor urging that at the next session of the legislature funds be provided for the construction of a state library building.

"Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the governor, to each member of the state legislature, and to the press."

Carol Layton Will Be NLSC Guest Speaker

Miss Carol Layton will be guest speaker Monday at 9:50 a.m. in the recital room of the Fine Arts Building at Northeast State.

Everyone is invited to attend this open meeting sponsored by the Honor Society and the Social Science Club of the college.

Miss Layton will use slides and several rare objects of art to illustrate her talk which will emphasize her travels in France and Italy.

The speaker, born and reared in Monroe, toured Europe during the summer of 1949 with the National Student Association. She received the B. A. degree in 1951 at the University of Colorado.

Miss Layton held the position of assistant curator of decorative arts at DeYoung Museum, San Francisco, during 1951-52. During the summer of the latter year she did graduate study at the University of California, Berkeley. During 1952-53 she attended the School of the Louvre, Paris, France, to study ancient art. This past year Miss Layton took several side trips in Europe.

Preceding her illustrated talk, the college mixed ensemble will give selections.

The Honor Society has sponsored for several years an open meeting featuring a travel talk. Previous guests have been James A. Noe, Jr., Mrs. A. L. Harrington, Joseph Proust of Luxembourg, and Maj. John Pracher.

Presiding at Monday's meeting will be Dorothy Works, head of the Northeast State Honor Society. Mrs. Harry M. Lemert is faculty sponsor of the organization.

Ry. Clerks Group To Meet On Tuesday

The Ouachita lodge, Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, will hold a regular monthly meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. All members are urged to be present.

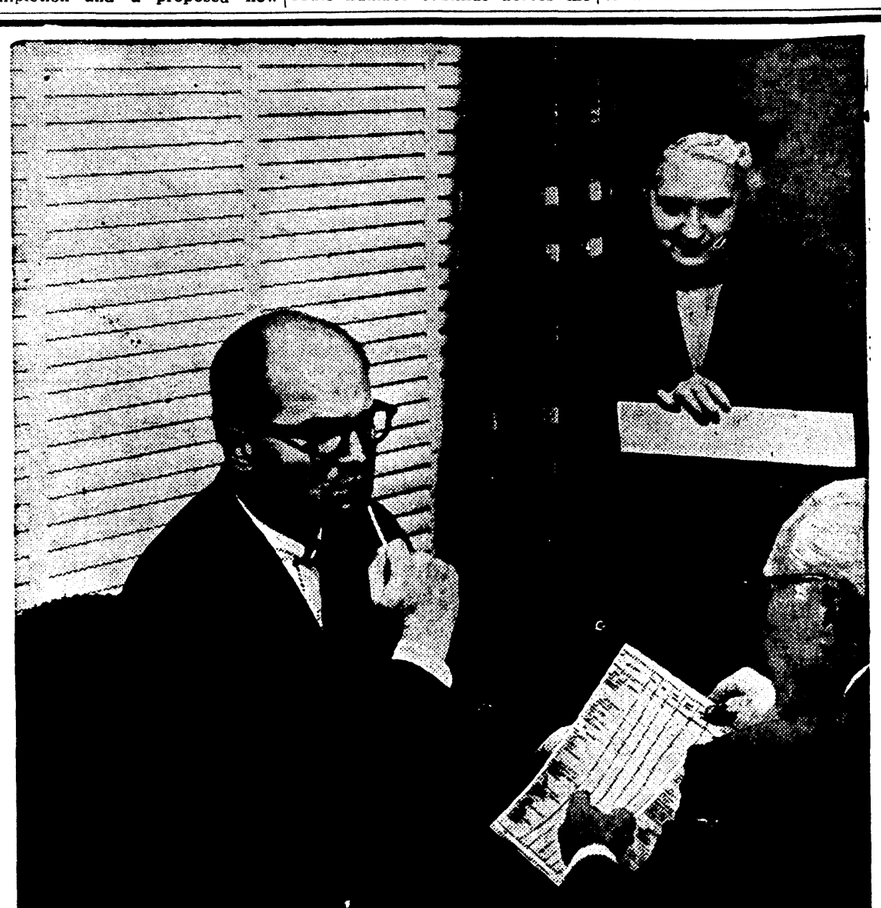

F. P. Johnson is president and Paul J. Newman, secretary.

Of the $1,614,196 telegrams handled by Canadian telegraph companies during 1952, nearly 10 per cent were received from the United States. The remaining 19,500,0[illegible] were sent through their offices.

Meet an educated tiger
Who knows a flavor treat;
He raves about this golden corn
With frosting sugar-sweet.

Kellogg's
SUGAR FROSTED FLAKES

They're bigger flakes!
They're crisper flakes!
They're Kellogg's Sugar Frosted Flakes!

If you're as smart as tigers,
And goodness knows that's true!
You'll have Frosted Flakes for breakfast
And then at snacktime, too!

Get Kellogg's Sugar Frosted Flakes
The next time you go shopping;
You'll find them at your grocer's.
You'll also find them topping!

GOOD. NOW TELL GRANT YOU WANT ANOTHER CHANCE TO SING AND TO SEE MARILYN.

1

YOU'RE TOO YELLOW TO FACE AN AUDIENCE! NOW BEAT IT--OR I'LL SOCK YOU AGAIN!

2

3

NOW WILL YOU GIVE ME A CHANCE, OR DO I HAVE TO HIT YOU AGAIN?

GO AHEAD --SING--I HAD ENOUGH--

HE DIDN'T HAVE THE COURAGE BEFORE, MARILYN.

HERE'S THE WAY IT HAPPENED, FOLKS: DIRTY BURT WAS UNCONSCIOUS IN HIS STALLED RACER IN THE MIDDLE OF THE TRACK. THE GIRL DRIVER, LUCILLE SWEENEY, STOPPED AND CARRIED BURT TO SAFETY.

TOO BAD! HER CAR, OLD HOODOO TOPSY-TURVY, HAS FAILED TO FINISH TWO RACES, AND IS AUTOMATICALLY DISQUALIFIED FROM ENTERING THE $500 GRAND CHAMPIONSHIP.

LOOK.... YOU'RE OKAY, KID. SORRY I RAN YOU OFF THE TRACK IN THE PRELIMINARY. MAYBE I CAN SQUARE IT.

SECTION A

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, IN VIEW OF MISS SWEENEY'S HEROIC AND UNSELFISH DEED, THE OFFICIALS HAVE AGREED TO WAIVE THE QUALIFYING RULE. DEFINITELY MISS SWEENEY WILL RACE IN THE $500 GRAND CHAMPIONSHIP.

YAY! WHEE!

BELIEVE ME, FOLKS, THE GALLOPING AMAZON IS ON A RAMPAGE! SHE'S MOVED FROM LAST TO SEVENTH PLACE.

NOW SHE'S IN SECOND PLACE! ONLY FIVE LAPS TO GO! AND BURT, THE WILY VETERAN, IS IN THE LEAD.

ME? YOU'RE PLUMB BATTY! BUT THANKS, KID, FOR PULLIN' ME OUTA THAT PILE-UP.

The PHANTOM

WE PROMISED LITTLE CONLEY WE'D COME BACK AND PLAY WITH HIM. LET'S PEEK IN AND SEE HOW HE IS.

MISTER MAN! YOU CAME BACK TO PLAY WITH ME ~ LIKE YOU PROMISED!

NOW WE'LL PRETEND I'M HERO ~ AND DEVIL IS A BIG TIGER IN THE BUSHES

THUS, THE LONELY LITTLE BOY FINDS A PLAY-MATE AFTER ALL—THE FABULOUS 'GHOST WHO WALKS'!

NOW WE'RE HUNTERS, AND WE SHOOT THE BAD TIGER. PLAY DEAD, DEVIL.

BANG-BANG ~~ YOU'RE DEAD!

WHAT DID YOU DO, TODAY, DEAR?

MISTER MAN PRETENDED TO BE A HORSY, AND DOGGIE PRETENDED TO BE BAD TIGER, AND WE WENT BANG-BANG.

WHAT MAN? WHAT DOGGIE?

HE'S INVENTED AN IMAGINARY PLAY-MATE BECAUSE HE HAS NO REAL ONES. ALL CHILDREN HIS AGE DO THAT.

HE MAKES IT SOUND REAL, DOESN'T HE?

WHAT AN IMAGINATION! MAYBE HE'LL GROW UP TO BE A WRITER, OR AN ACTOR.
